Divided But One:

What is it? Divided means split into more than one part, and H.L. Richards is certainly that. Three different school buildings, two with freshmen and sophomores, one with juniors and seniors, having two different class schedules, A.M. and P.M. We are divided but we are still one. Despite divisions, we are still one because we share a common bond—we all attend Richards, and we support it. We may be divided but we are one.

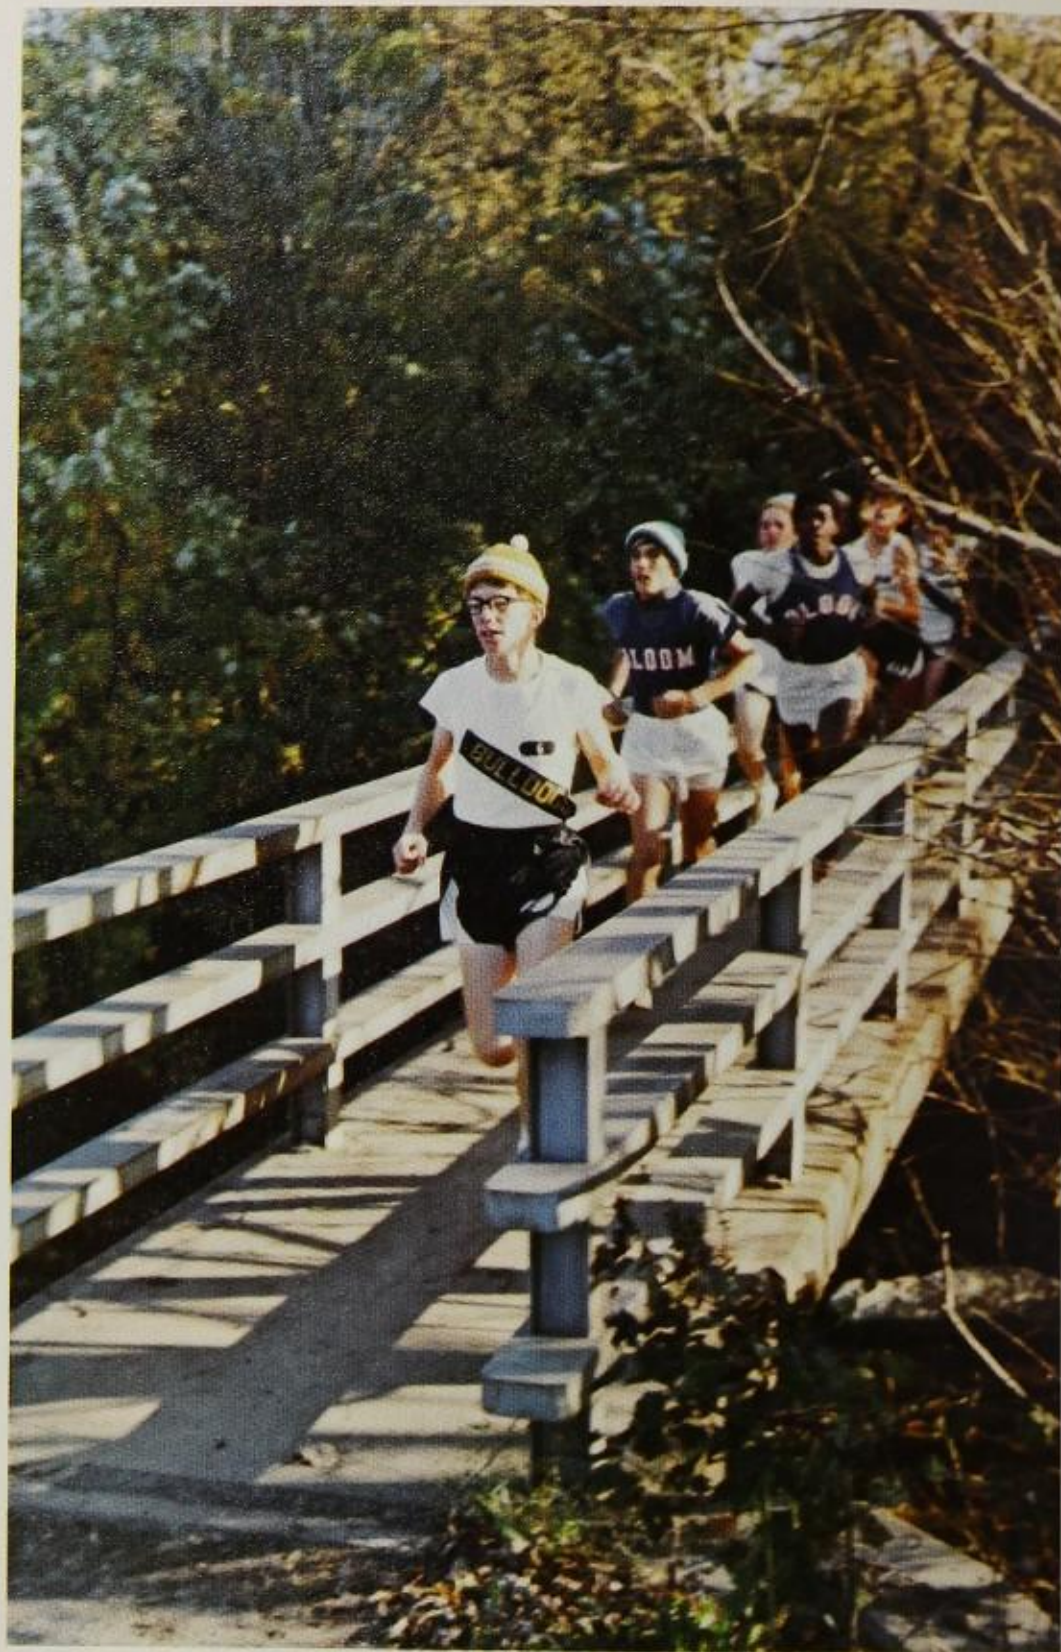

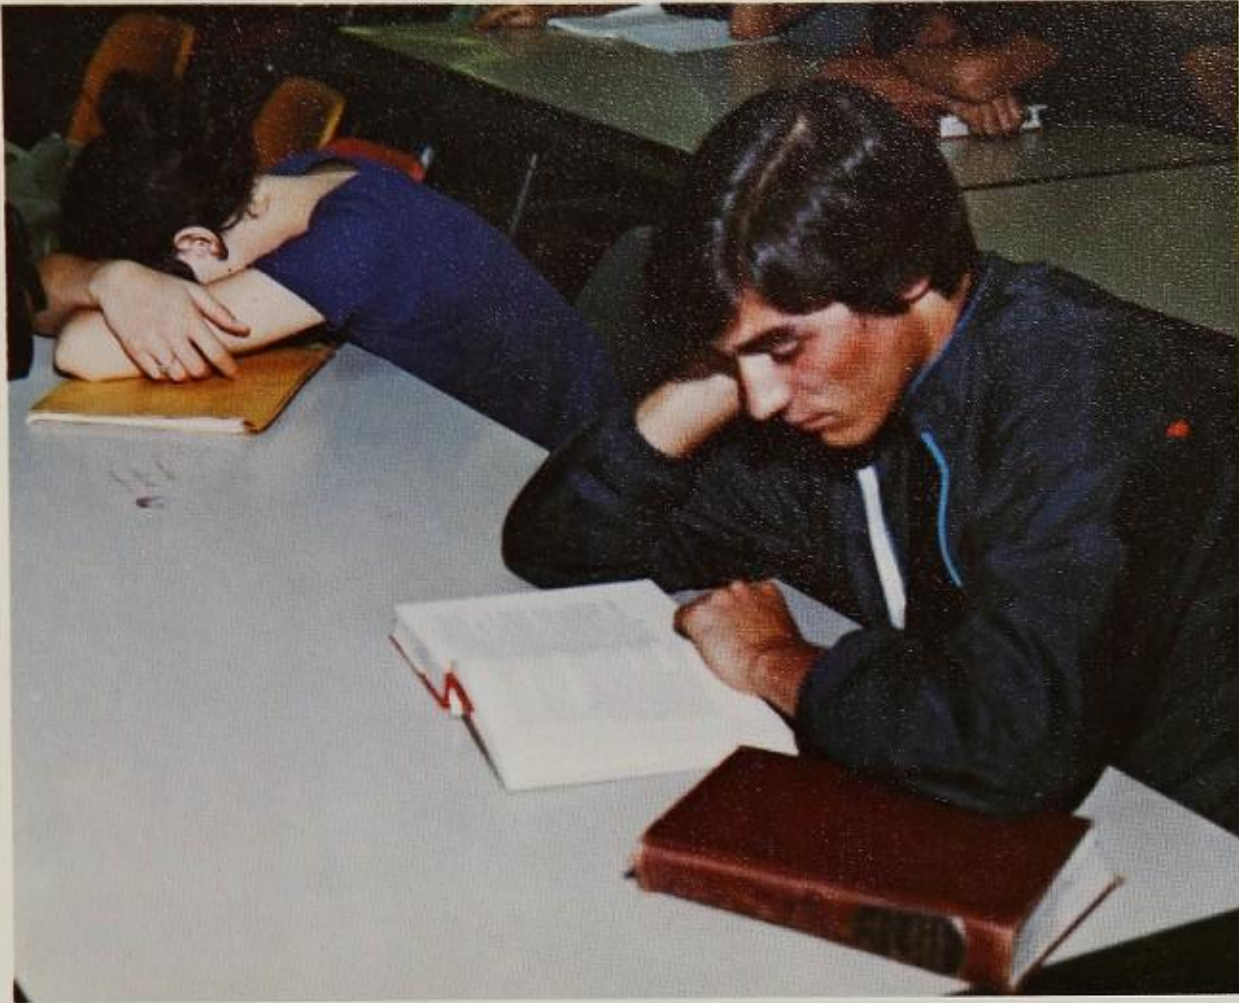

During the course of a students high school years, one makes many friends that will long be remembered. A sense of pride, or as the cliché "school spirit" describes, a feeling of school pride is acquired. But what happens when people are split from their friends? What happens to that sense of pride when athletic or academic achievement goes unrecognized because of the schools population being divided into two shifts?

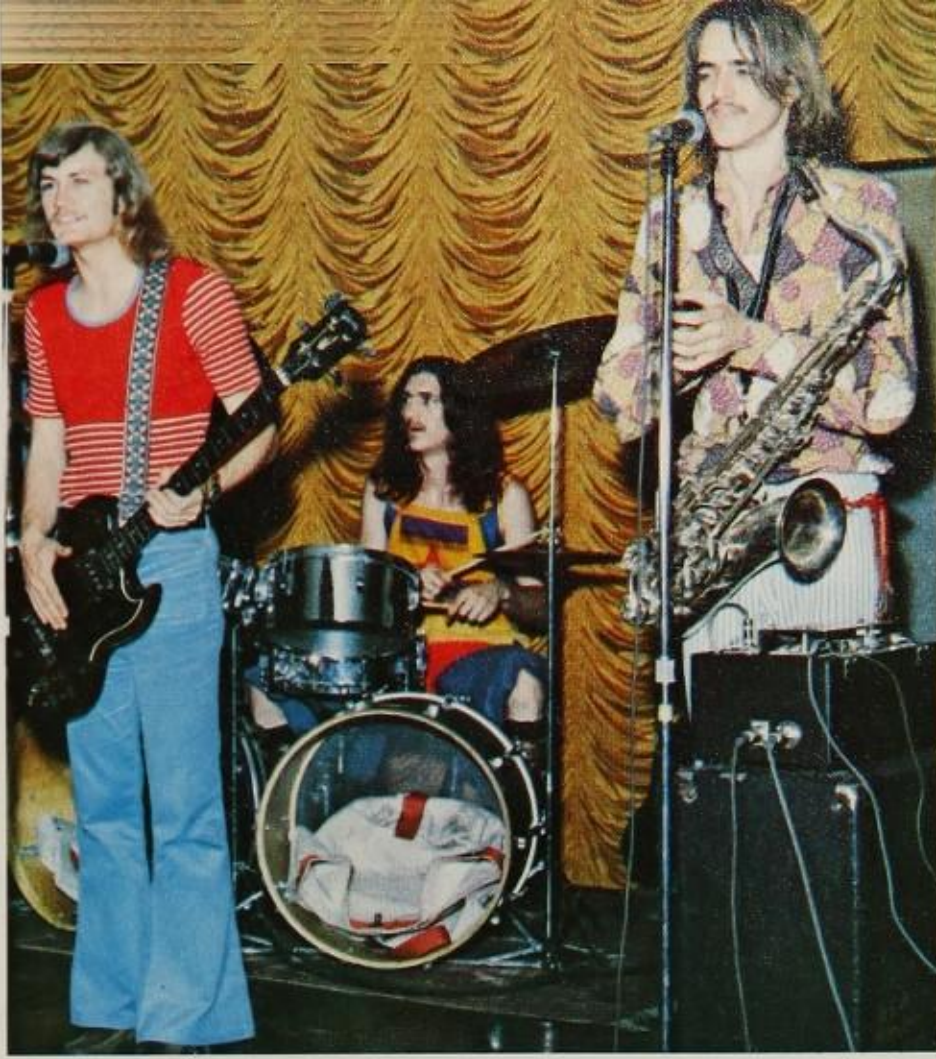

Isn't it enough that kids already have some barriers, trivial as some are, between them? Eighteen year olds having the right to vote, and serving in the Armed Forces. The drug situation being as it is, some kids may feel, or be forced, to withdraw from the normal flow of people, being divided further.

Divided into Freshmen-Sophomore; Junior-Senior buildings, living in six different communities, and last, being seperated into A.M., P.M. Splitting the student body in half, what is the result? How does it affect a student? Does school pride fail just because guys on the athletic teams are in the morning? Do academic standards lower because of "irregular" school hours? After only two school years of these conditions it is hard to tell. However, we are divided we are still one.

High school years are highlighted by such things as Homecoming with all its boundless frivolity, and the Prom with all its months of preparation.

Being split put a damper on the lesser activities, such as pep assemblies and spirit rallies but the most beloved traditions held through.

Student Life

Students job - prepared after ending high school at Area Technical Center

"The main purpose of the Area Technical Center is to provide training opportunities for Juniors and Seniors, so that after graduation of high school they will have a salable skill to either find a job involving that skill, or to continue their education," explained A.T.C. director, Mr. Arthur J. Stejskal. Assistant director was Mr. Mr. Benjamin Harkins and the Vocational Guidance Co-ordinator was Volmer Erickson. The list of courses offered, ranged from Ornamental Horticulture to Child Care Services. 305 Richards and Eisenhower students were enrolled in the new program just opened in District 218, at the new Southeast building.

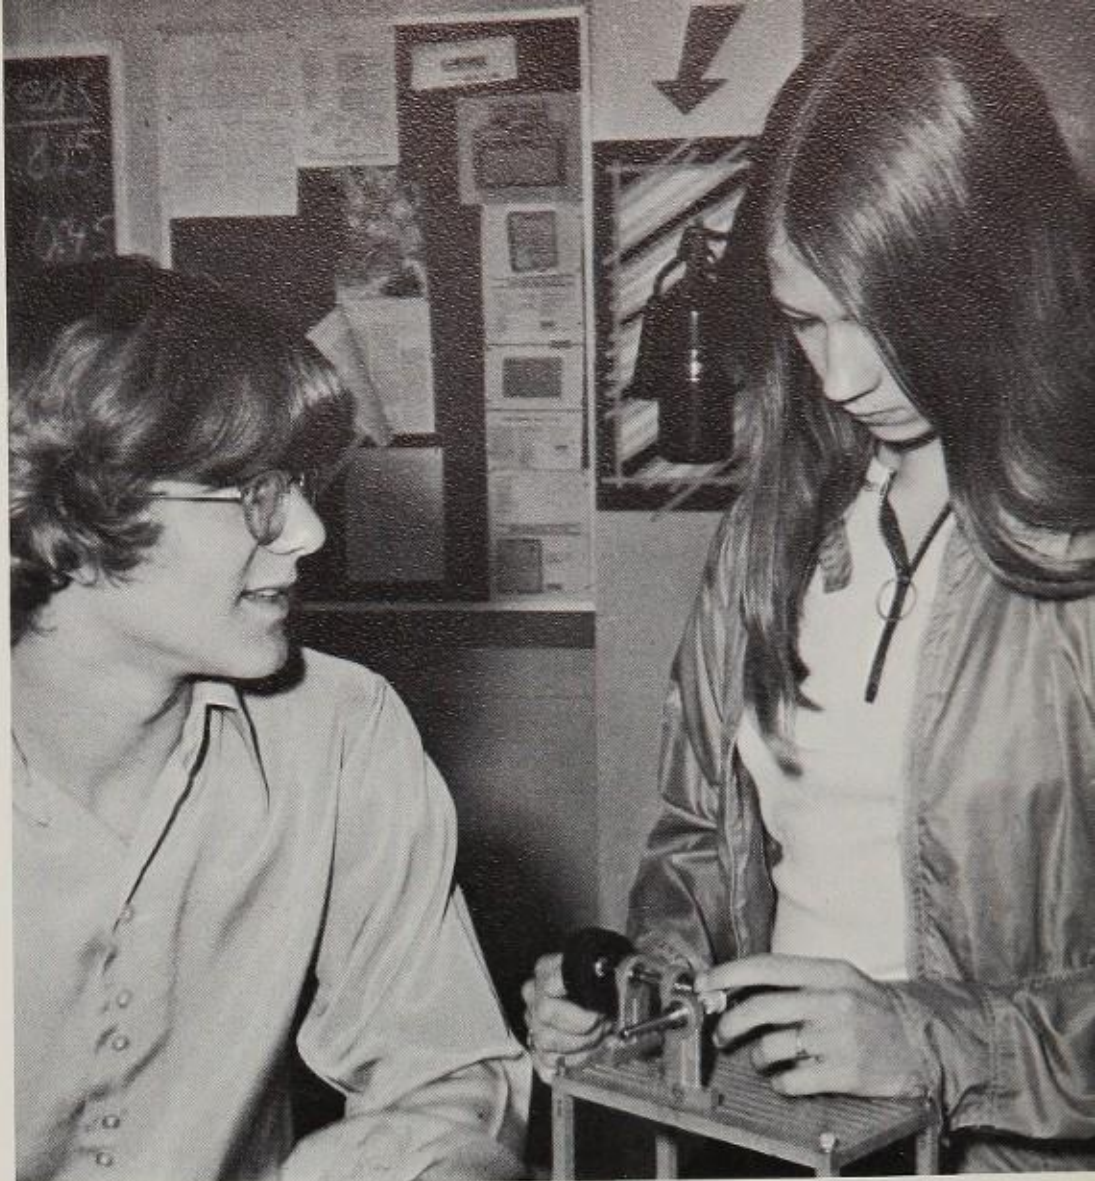

Pleasant voices and sunshine made a serene picture as the capable A.T.C. office staff coped with the multiple problems of a new building.

Painstaking, practical experiments in electric conductivity were part of a student's preparation for a career at the Area Technical Center.

Working on an assigned advertising project with paints in order to discover the impact visual art has on the public was Jim Marsh.

Examining a piece of shop equipment closely at the Area Technical Center was Joyce Welsh while Dean Case explained the function.

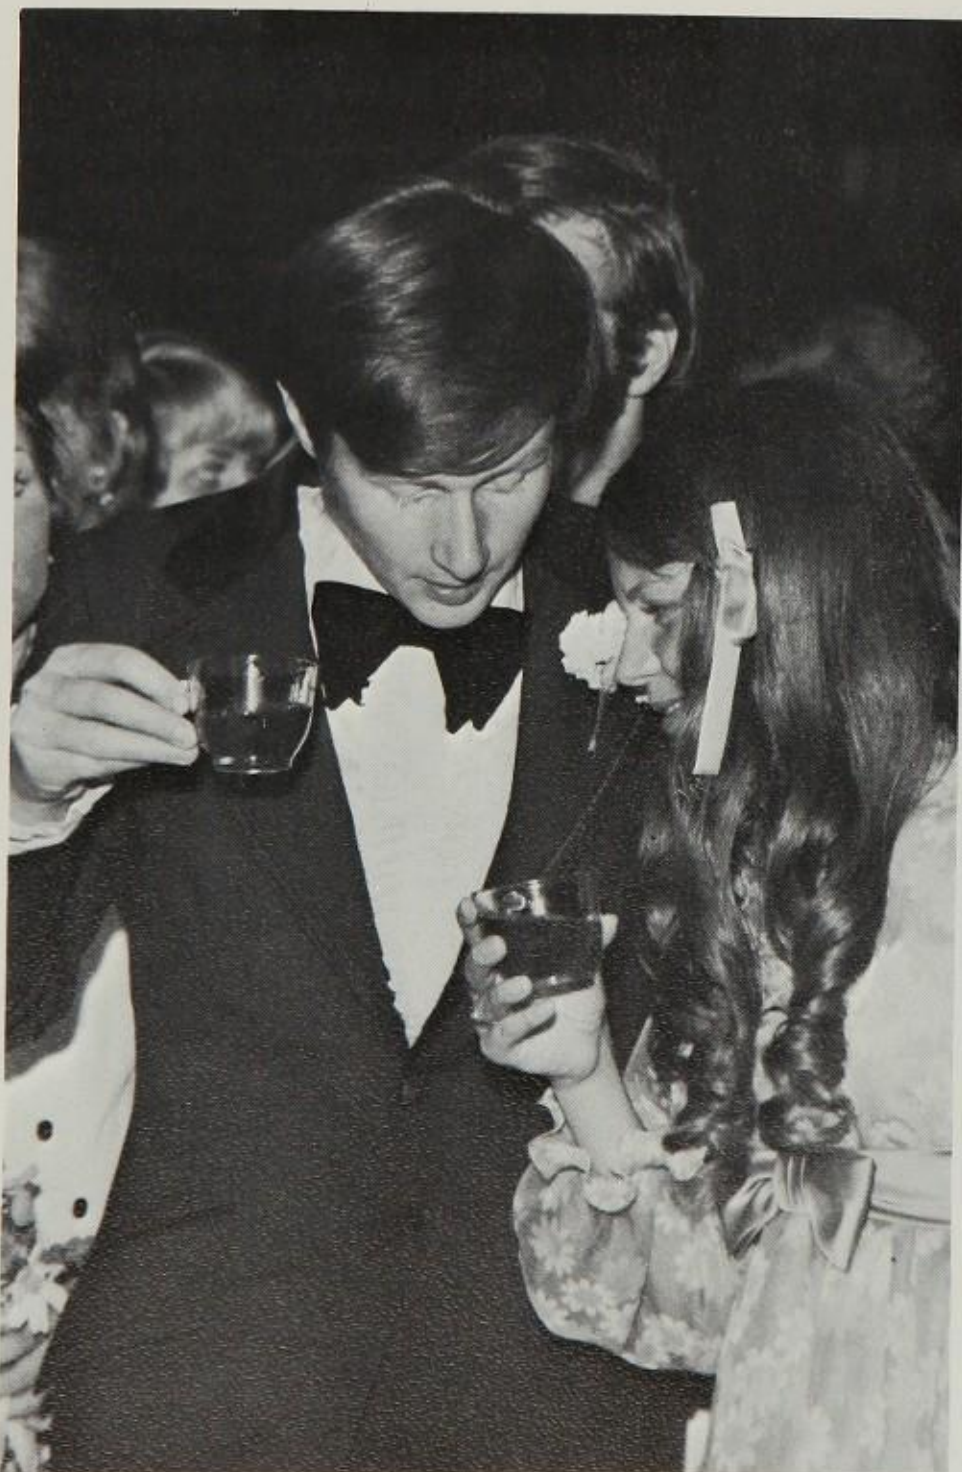

"Now let me see was it supposed to be an a or an e?" thought this A.T.C. typing student as she corrected her speed test.

*'Colour My World',
'72 Prom Theme, 800 attended at Continental Plaza Hotel*

With a single rose as the symbol, and "Color My World" as the theme, couples at the 1972 Junior-Senior Prom danced to the music of Wakefield. A gold ring charm, a tie-tack and pictures remained as memories of the May 19 dance held at the Continental Plaza Hotel in the Grand Cotillion Ballroom. The 400 couples who attended the Prom began arriving at 8:30 and departed at 12:30 were served punch and cookies. Despite the extremely overcrowded conditions, amid the glamour of long dresses and tuxedos, the scent of corsages and masculine shaving lotion the couples continued on until the early morning dancing at the Richards Prom.

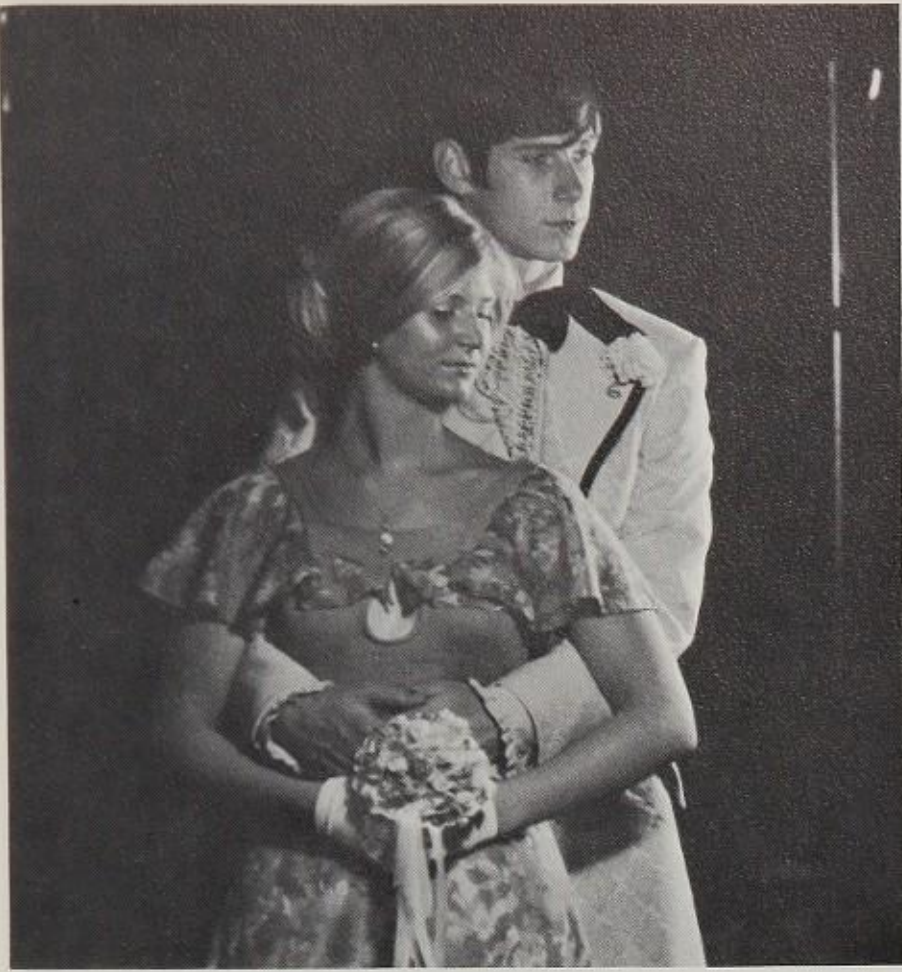

Taking a moment off the dance floor at the Continental Plaza, Terri Skender and John Mulcahy enjoyed refreshments and conversation.

Always ready to help students out, Mr. Todd Shafer, sponsor of Prom, helped by distributing bids to the couples as they entered.

Tender moments were demonstrated by Karen Kats and her date, Gayle Markle and John Cira as they danced the one last dance.

Happiness was captured from "Color My World" as couple Angela Bekkering and Paul Marbach had Prom pictures taken.

First things first, seemed the precedent which Cheryl Konrath and Rich Mulconery followed as they received mementos of the Prom.

Waiting impatiently with many other couples on the dance floor for another song by "Wakefield" were Lois Hobson and Jim Heidegger.

*Brigadoon's Spring magic brought to Richard's stage
by work of choir-orchestra*

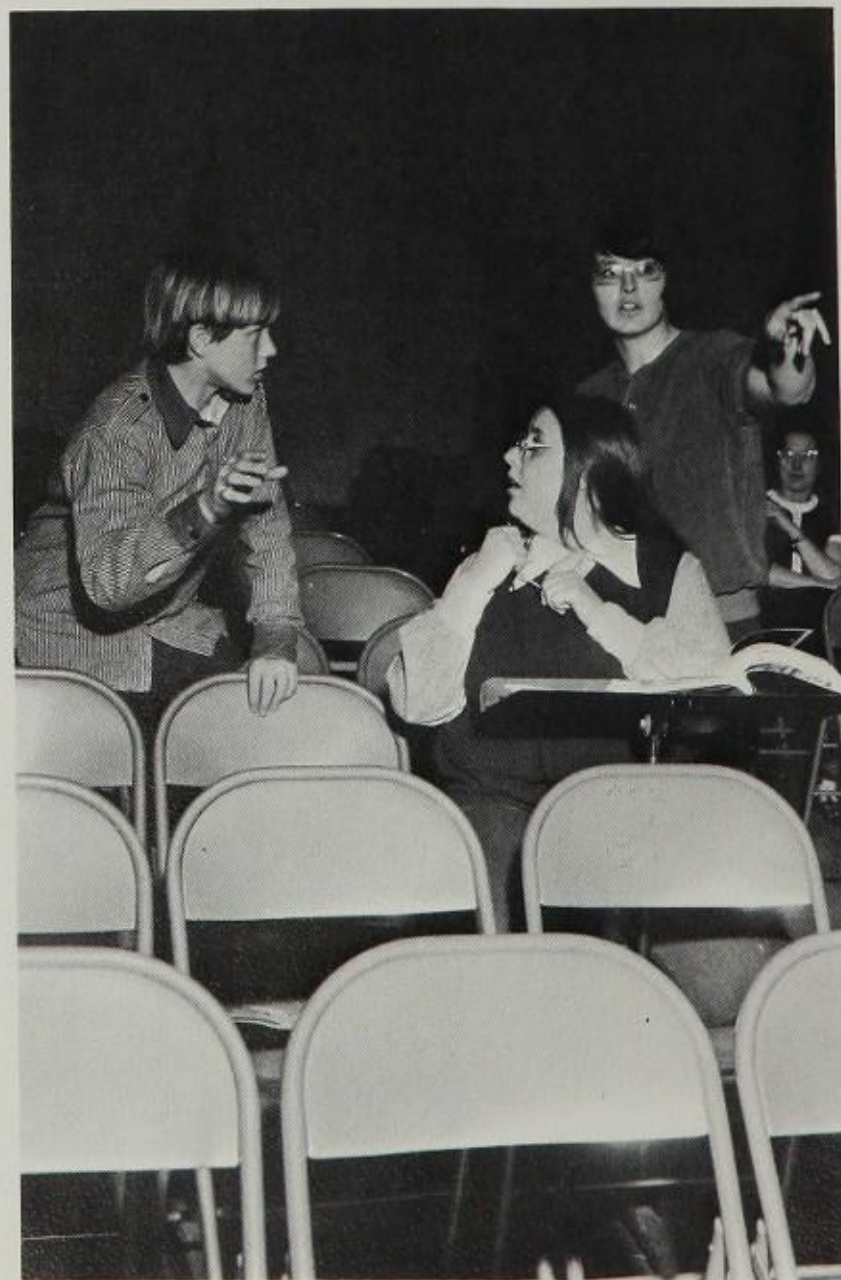

Do you believe in magic? The 18th century town of Brigadoon was magic. At least it became magic for one day every one-hundred years. The play was held in the Campus gymnasium on April 21, 22, 23. The leading male characters were: Tommy Albright, played by Dave Raab, and Jeff Douglas, played by Bob Keslinke. The villain was Harry Beaton, played by Dave Roth. The leading female characters were: Fiona MacLaren, played by Robin Gutzwiller, and Meg Brockie, played by Jeanne Chionis. A special dance was provided by Donna Reed and Dave Roth. The director of the musical was Miss Alva Smaniotto. The choreographer was Miss Marge Thompson. The musical director was Mr. Robert Guenzler.

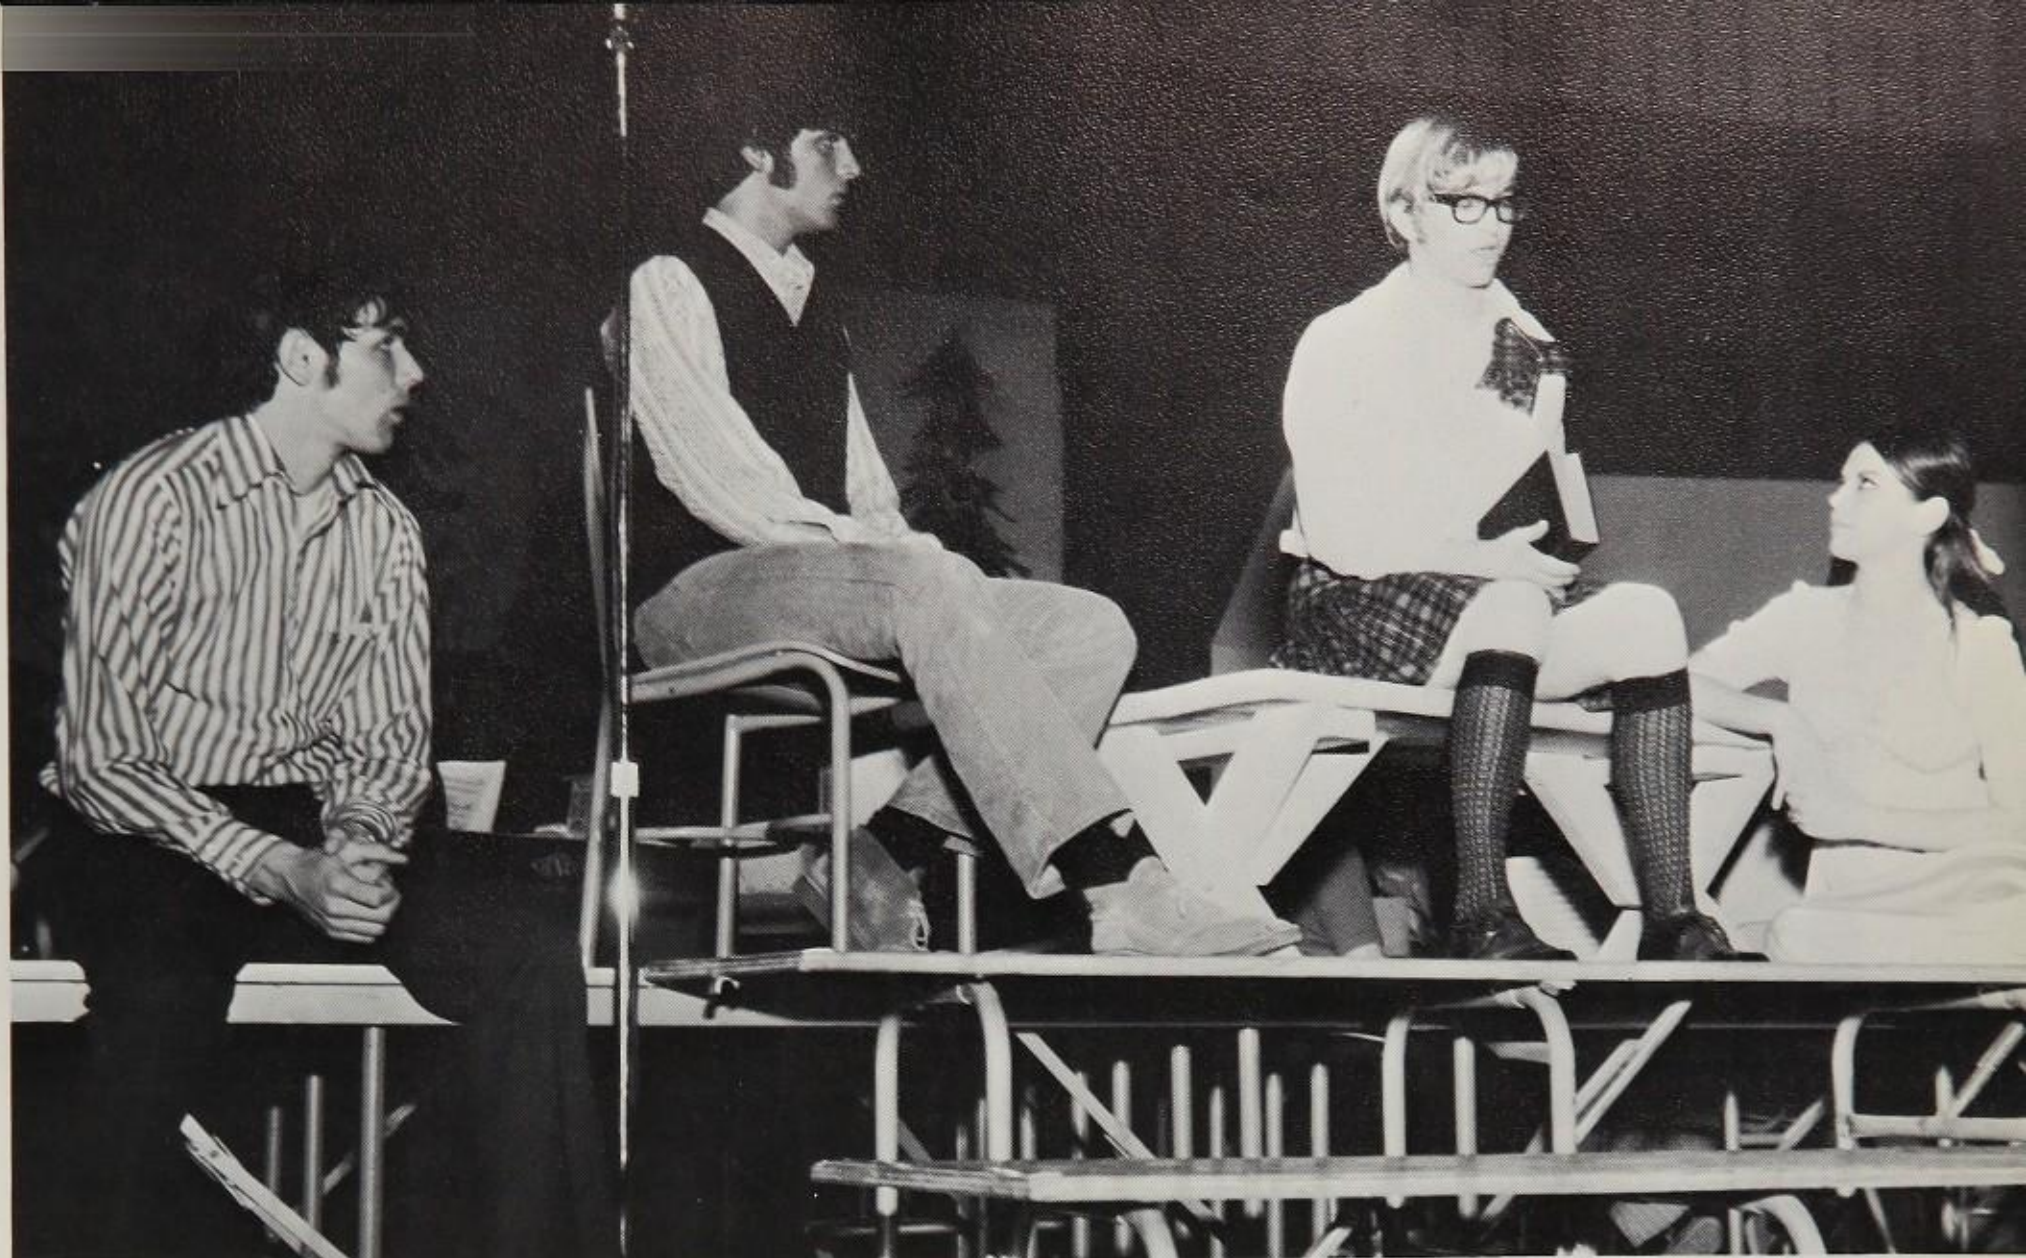

Gazing into the distance, with the look of love in their eyes, Robin Gutzwiller dramatically sang "Heather on the Hill" as Dave Raab listened.

Surrounding the lifeless body of villain Harry Beaton, portrayed by Dave Roth, were the stunned townspeople from the village of Brigadoon.

Going over some last minute discussion and adjustment with a cast member during rehearsal were Miss Thompson and Miss Smaniotto.

Telling the story of the reappearing town Brigadoon, was Mr. Lundie, while Bob Keslinke, Dave Raab, and Robin Gutzwiller, listened attentively.

"I'll go home with Bonnie Jean," was the musical toast that Mark Flanagan sang for his bride-to-be as townspeople accompanied him.

Fall's dramatic production of 'Thurber's Carnival' held on November 17, 18

Peals of laughter echoed through the Campus halls on November 17 and 18, when "Thurber's Carnival" was produced on the Little Theater Stage this Fall. Skit after skit was presented by a barrage of student actors and actresses after many long hours of hard work and preparation. A cast of 21 members contributed to this performance which was based upon a James Thurber creation, centralizing on the henpecked husband theme. Visual as well as audio effects were expertly used by the crew, with the girls wearing all white costumes and the boys completely in black. The full-house attendance at both performances seemed to show it was worth seeing.

Showing great affection for secretary Sharon Boyle, Jim Vitkauskas turned on his charm to persuade her to run off with him after work.

Assisting the doctor, Eileen McShane read letters to Gary Fey pertaining to problems pet owners often encountered during daily routine.

Pleading with beautiful bird, Sue Brown, Tom Spratt, the crow, fell to his knees and begged her to give him just one chance before she left.

Trying to persuade his wife, played by Barb Kluchins, to go in the cellar was Jim Vitkauskas in Thurbers, 'Mr. Preble gets rid of his wife'.

*Disney on Parade theme for 72 Homecoming parade
1st time for marching band*

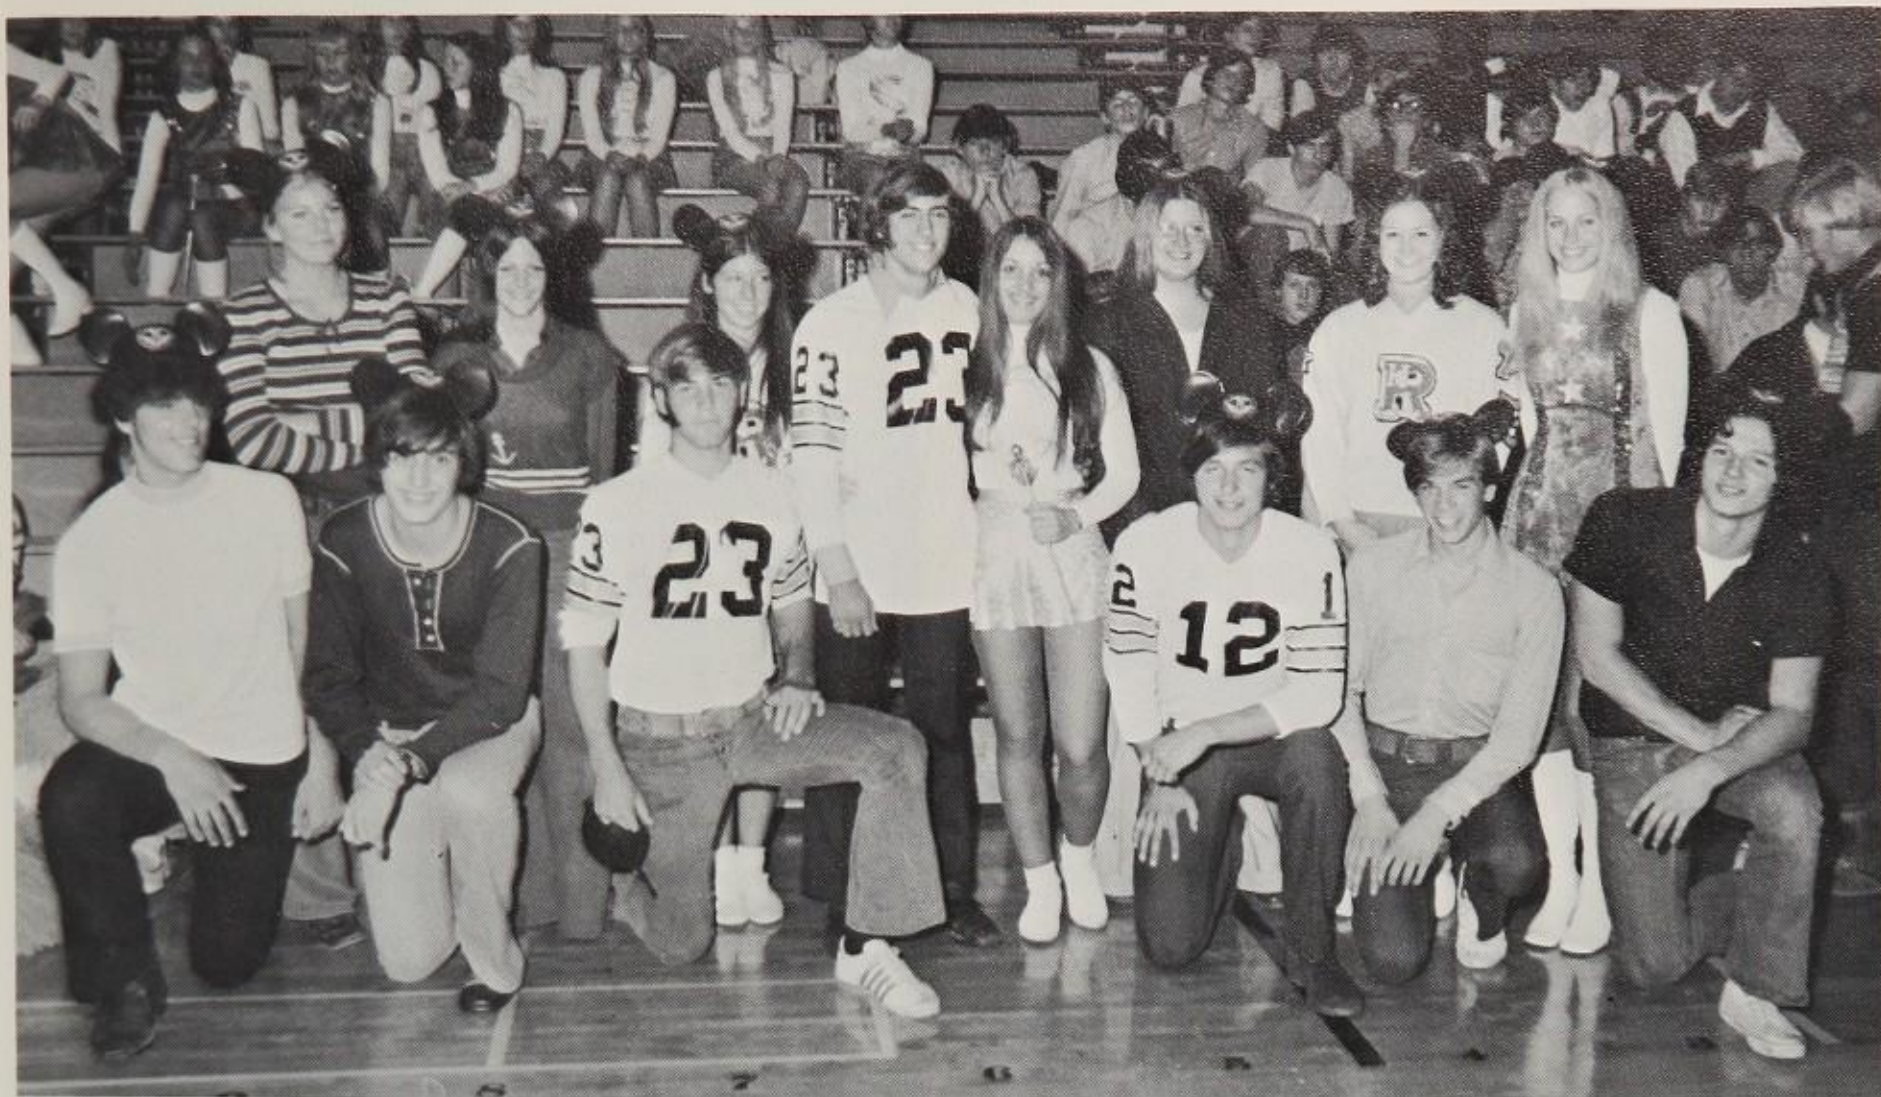

Crowned the King and Queen with Mickey Mouse ears? Shades of Pluto, Donald and Walt Himself haunted the halls during Homecoming week. The theme of the week was Disney on Parade. Preceding the victorious game with Bloom with a score of 30 to 0, floats, decorated cars and the marching band (for the first time) paraded its way through Oak Lawn past the three school buildings. Campus, N.E. and N.W. The parade route had been shortened to accomodate the band. Northeast's Pep Club won Grand Prize for it's float depicting Snow White and the Seven Dwarves. The paper mache dwarf heads to fit the theme. Ray Ulrich and Lois Romano were crowned Thursday as King and Queen.

Peeking out from her white nose and big ears was Laura Dreger, Official Mickey Mouse for H.L. Richards Homecoming Parade on October 28th.

Important to the mood of a sock hop were the cheerleaders enthusiasm as was demonstrated by Kay Hahn, Debbie Tusack, Caren Lilien and Jackie Piekarz.

Excitement and active students made up the charge atmosphere of the sock-hop that named the Homecoming court as demonstrated by Steve Jamieson and Rachel Belcher.

*Band Styx played music for 72 Homecoming dance;
Romano, Ulrich crowned*

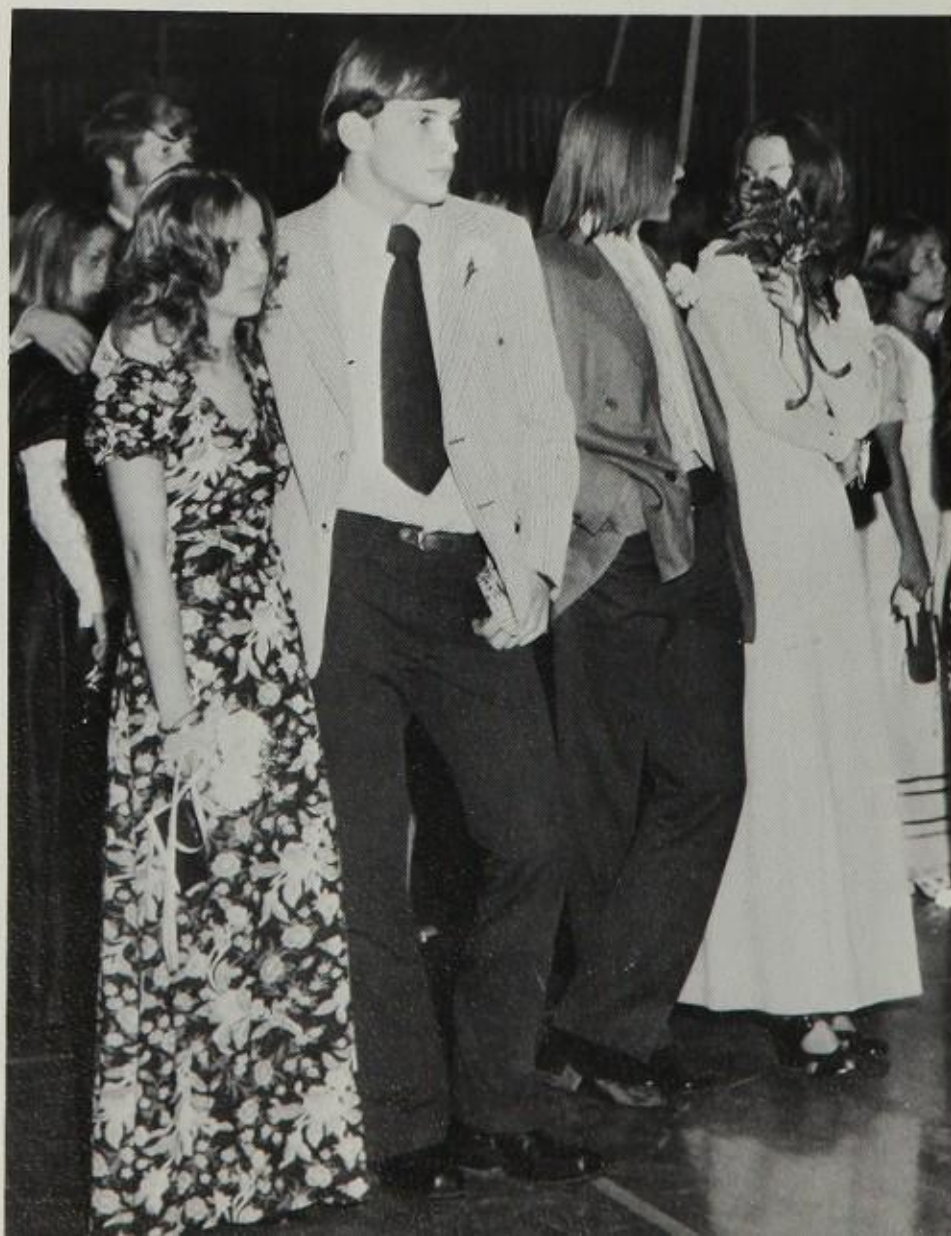

In ancient Greece, the river Styx was the subject of a myth concerning the dead. It was the dividing line between life and death and the dead would cross over it into Hades or the after life. Styx for H.L. Richards students on the night of October 28 was also the instrument for crossing over from books and studying to music, flowers and soft romantic lights. They were the band that played for the Homecoming Dance. The gym had been transformed into a room with a hanging crepe canopy through and under which the some 150 couples danced. The high point of the dance was the crowning of Ray Ulrich and Lois Romano King and Queen of the Homecoming '72.

Music filled the air, soft and romantic, while many couples danced and shared those memorable and sentimental moments together.

Having found a secluded spot during the homecoming, Michelle Atamian and her boyfriend, Don, shared a romantic moment alone together.

Admiring beautiful decorations and listening to "Styx" play memorable songs couples enjoyed Richards homecoming dance, Cinderella's Ball.

Dancing to the stimulating music provided by Styx at Richards homecoming dance, Cinderellas' Ball, was Scot Wisner and Cathy Duncan.

Providing popular music to anxious couples after a victorious football game, "Styx" played at Richards homecoming dance, Cinderella's Ball.

night of September 29*

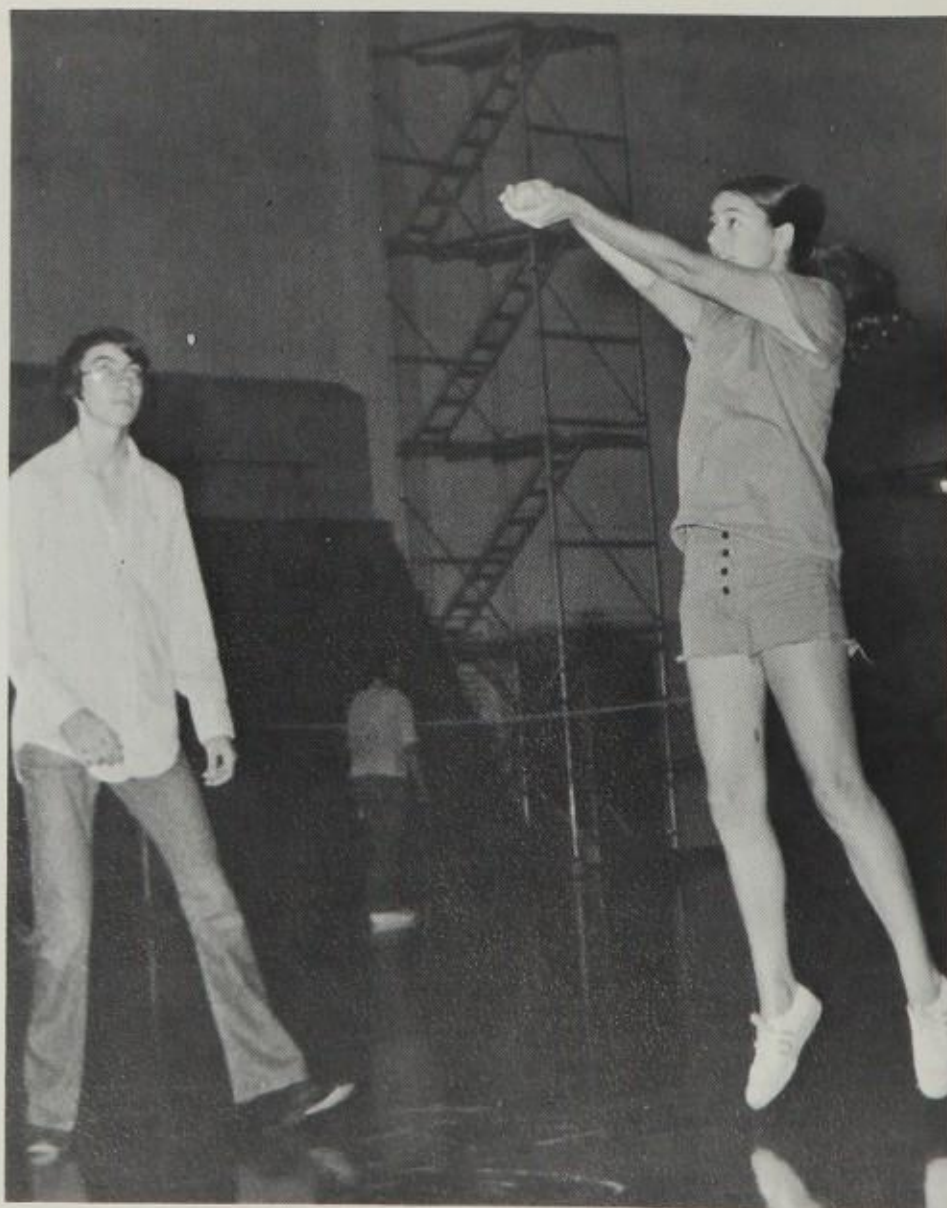

Torrents of ping pong balls, volleyballs and basketballs bounced across the campus gym at the September gym jam. The Junior class officers sponsored the gym jam which started at 7:30 and ended at 10:30. Any Richard's student was welcome upon presentation of an I.D. card and fifty cents or an activity ticket. Faculty members were present not only as chaperones, but participating in all of the activities. An active time was guaranteed for all who attended the gym jam and refreshments were available at a minimum cost for anyone who got thirsty. Many students attended and the money making project turned out to be successful.

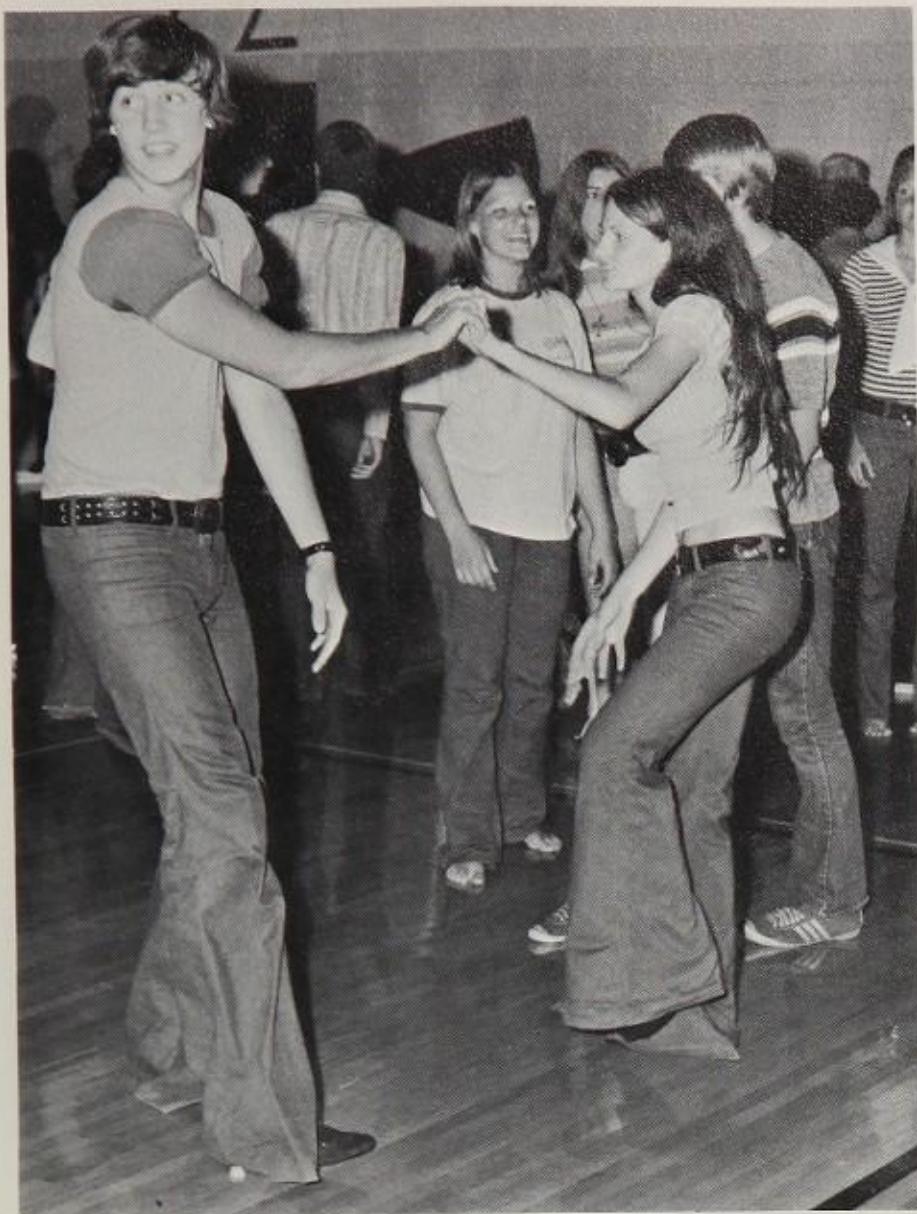

On of the more invigorating activities of the Campus Gym Jam was badminton in which Lynn Sillman tried desperately to beat her opponent.

Stretching to make a basket were Jim Schultz and Paul Fiala as Bob Gilles intently looked on at the Junior-Senior Gym Jam.

Skillfully hitting the volleyball with a so called "bump pass," was Judy Sparks, as her teammate, Leonard Gilmore, watched apprehensively.

Coach Korhonen's speech,

"One Pound Round" highlighted Kick-off dance

On September 16 the traditional Kick-Off Dance was held in the Campus gymnasium. The dance followed our first game of the season, against Morgan Park that afternoon. Between eight and eleven o'clock the band "One Pound Round" entertained the crowd of Richards students, and during the break Coach Gary Korhonen spoke about the meaning of football, and tried to make it more understandable to the kids. He also introduced some of the varsity players. Decorations included the names of football players, cross country squad members, and cheerleaders printed on paper footballs that had all disappeared from the wall by the time the dance was over.

With a grin on her face and some devilish ideas in her mind, Sharon Quinn ran around the school gym with a handful of tissue paper.

In spite of the many people that attended the annual Kick-Off Dance, Mike Grandy and Leanne Dehaan found space to dance with soft music.

Leaning against the decorated bleachers, Greg Meyers observed the dance while listening to Ellen Folta socializing with her friends.

Foreign exchange students

Visit Harold L. Richards

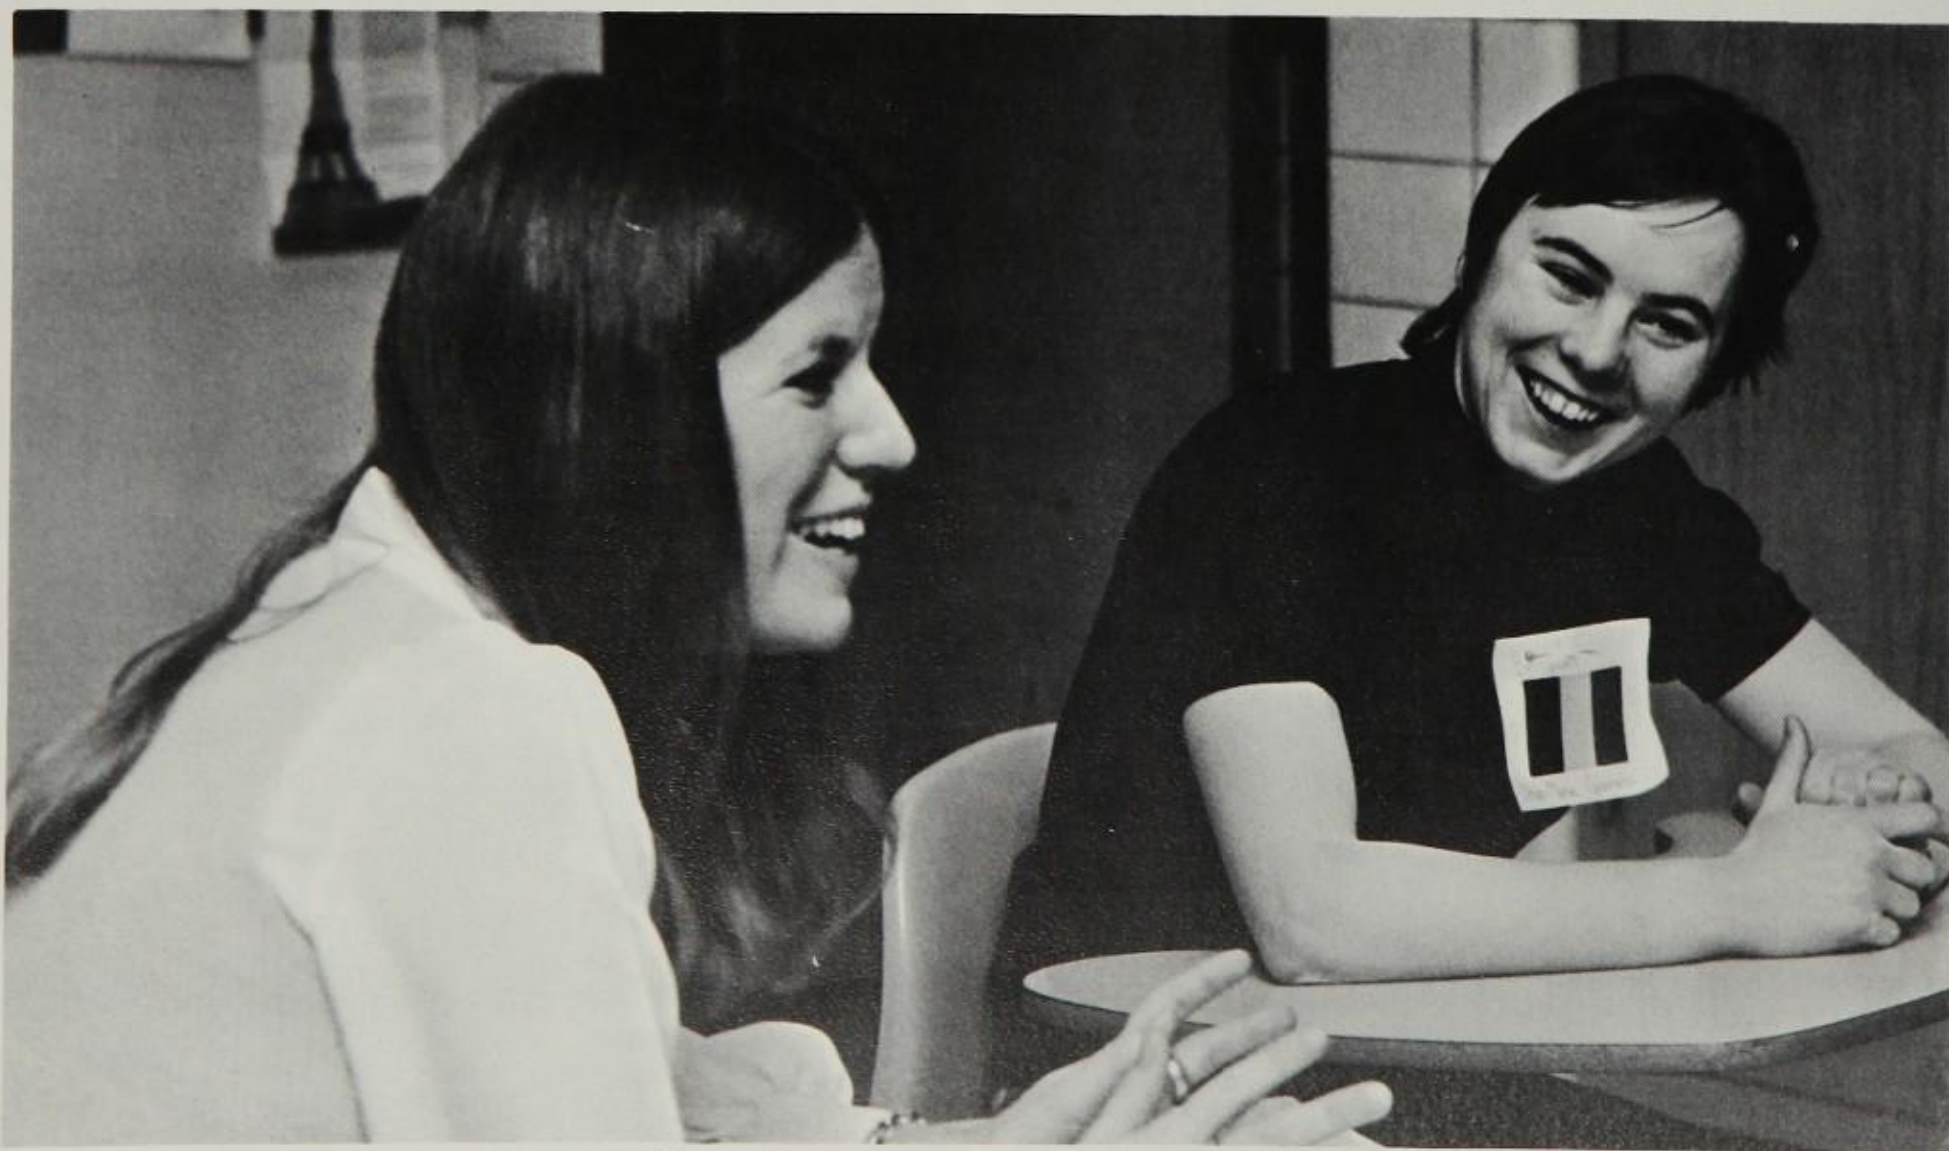

Weekend of entertainment

A weekend of entertainment and get-togethers was planned for the foreign exchange students. A reception was held Thursday, March 23 at the main Campus II building, and on Friday the students visited various classes and discussed their countries. March 25, a guided bus tour of the Loop and Chicago was supplied. Homes for these students were provided by the students of H.L.R. for the whole weekend. Many of the students were living in small mid-Illinois towns, and this was their first trip to a large city. Saturday night a big party was held at Connie Stein's house with a pot luck dinner. Miss Lueke was in charge of the A.F.S. weekend.

Waiting for questions to be asked Paulina Lavis and Chris Marino of Columbia related experiences and customs to Richards students.

Amused by the other members of Miss Goodman's class, she and Anne-Marie Geeroms from Belgium took part in the discussion.

Global miles converged to meet at Richards Campus cafeteria when Maris Delfin and Maria Liwag of the Philliphines met Anders Olsson of Sweden.

Coming from different countries, Riyo Puhakka from Finland and Elizabeth Seronni from Brazil found similarities in being exchange students.

Clarifying the position of her country on the map in one of the classes she visited was Dzenna Hadzic of Yugoslavia.

S.C. sponsored first annual Saint Patrick's Day dance, on March 17.

The H.L. Richard's Campus II Student Council sponsored a Saint Patrick's Day dance on Saturday, March 17, from 8:00 to 10:30. Music for the dance was provided by "Freedom Rock".

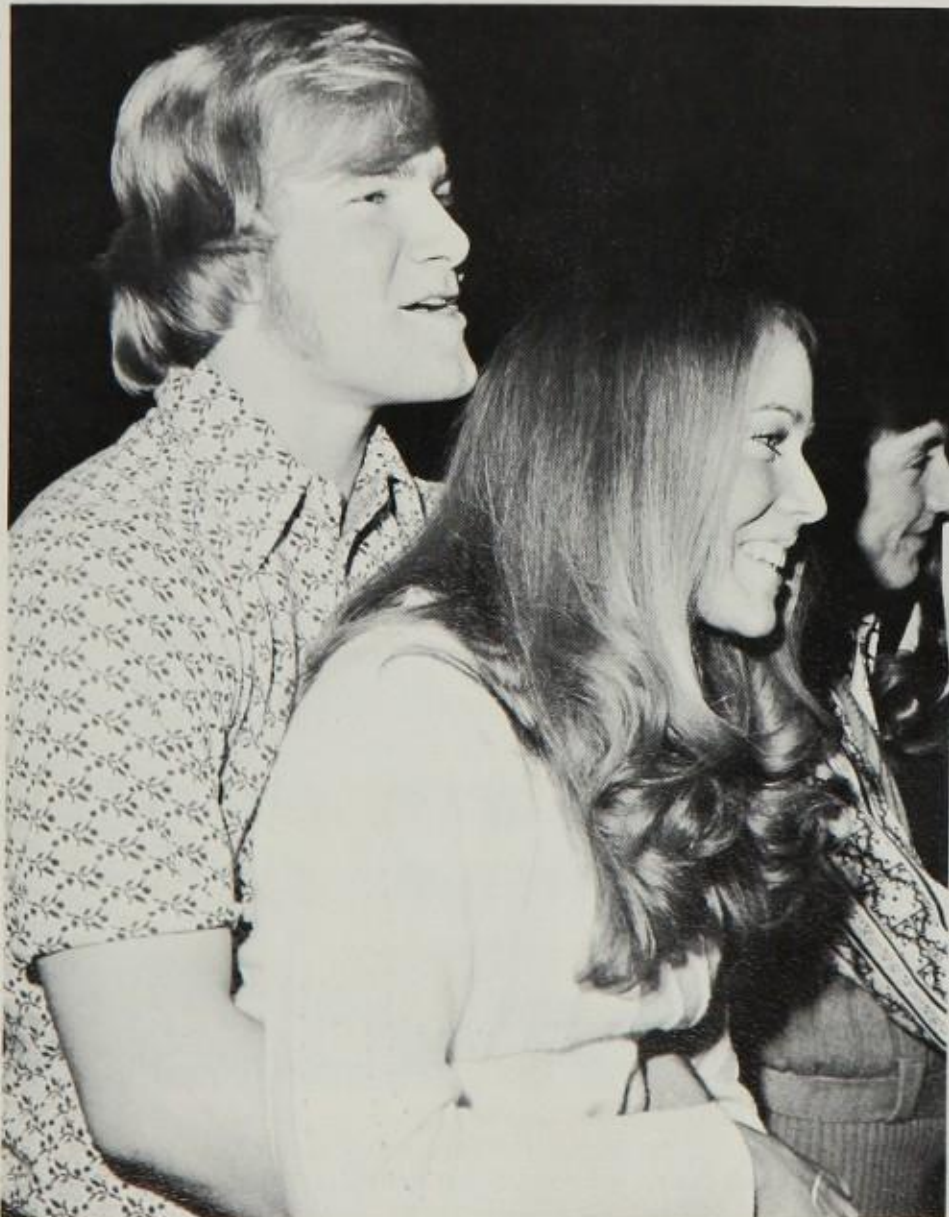

Student Council members provided refreshments which included cookies and green kool-aid. The gymnasium was gayly decorated all in green with shamrocks and leprechauns.

The dance was open to all Richards students and guests were allowed if they had a guest pass. There was a big turnout and the band was fantastic, they played selections from "Chicago" and "Deep Purple".

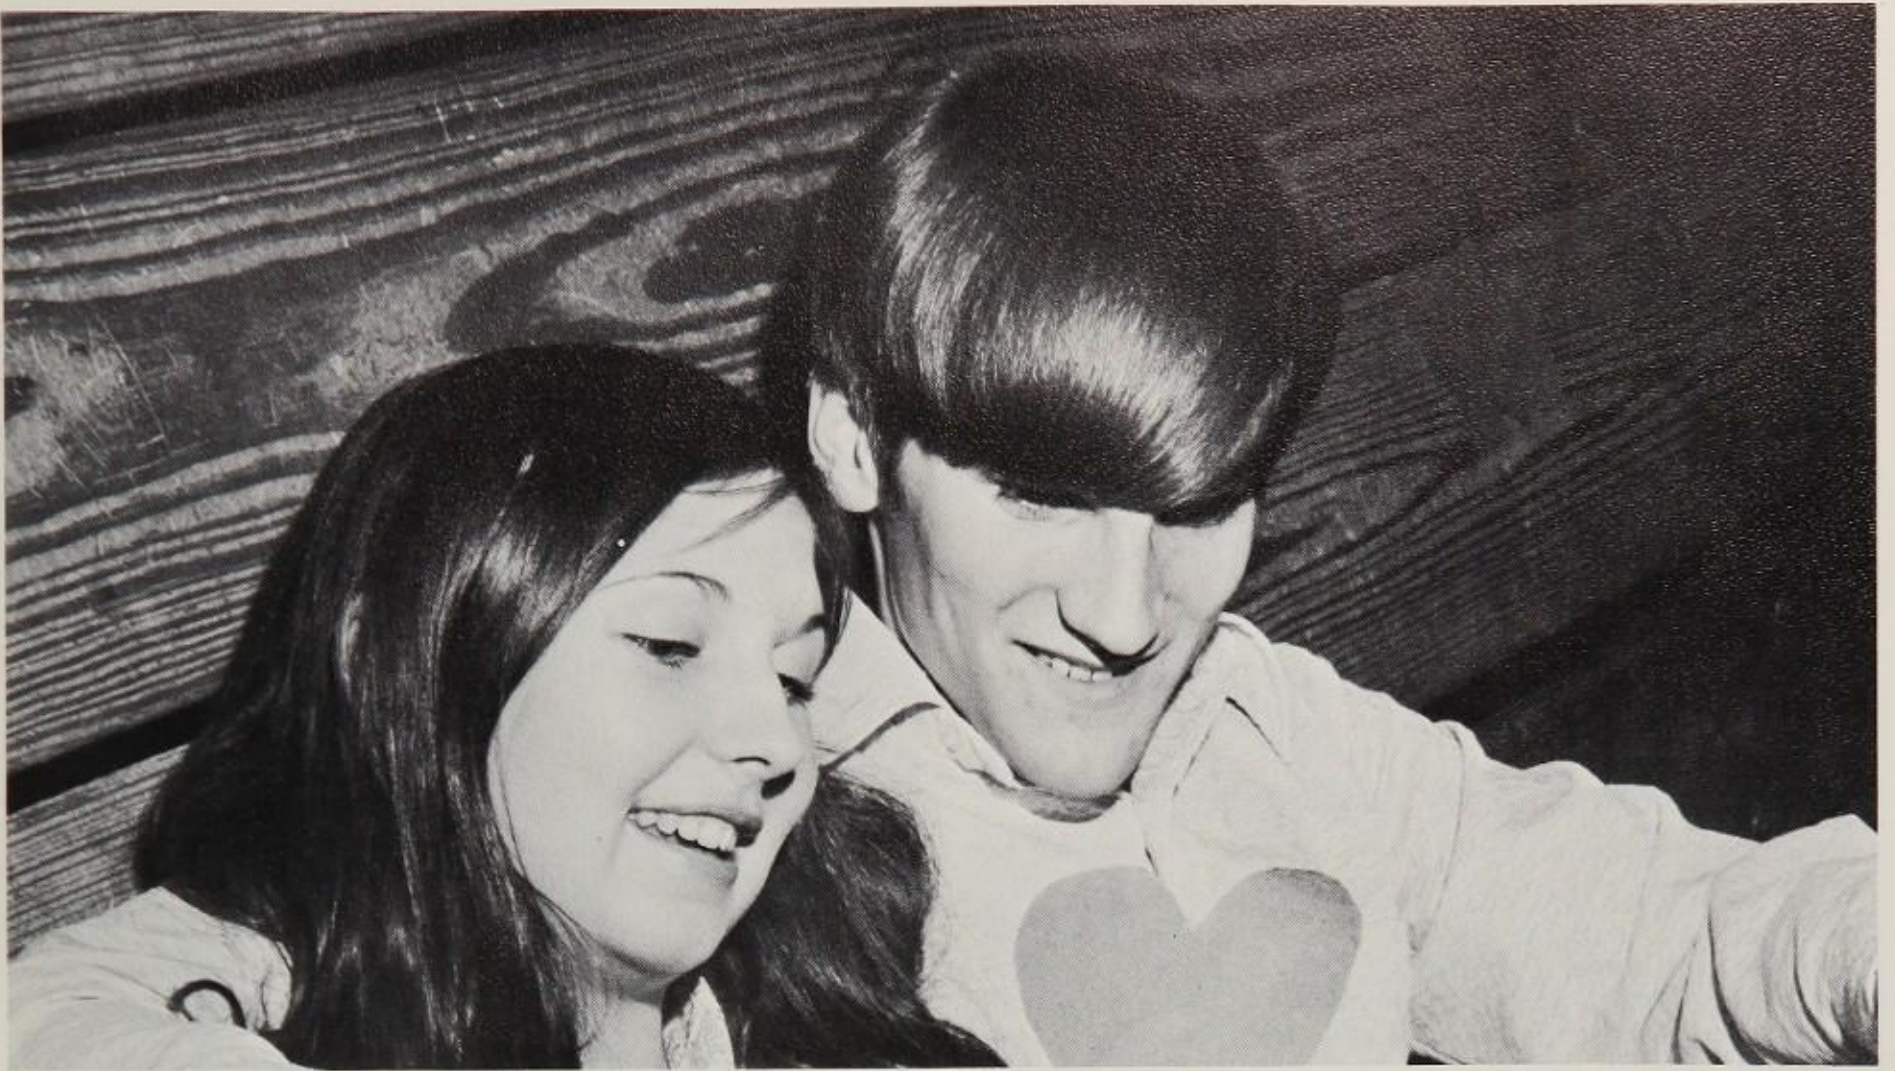

Whether it's standing or sitting listening to "Freedom Rock" at the St. Pat's Dance was an enjoyable night for this Richard's student.

Listening to "Freedom Rock" at the St. Pat's Dance that Student Council sponsored in March were Bill Savage and Holly Albarran.

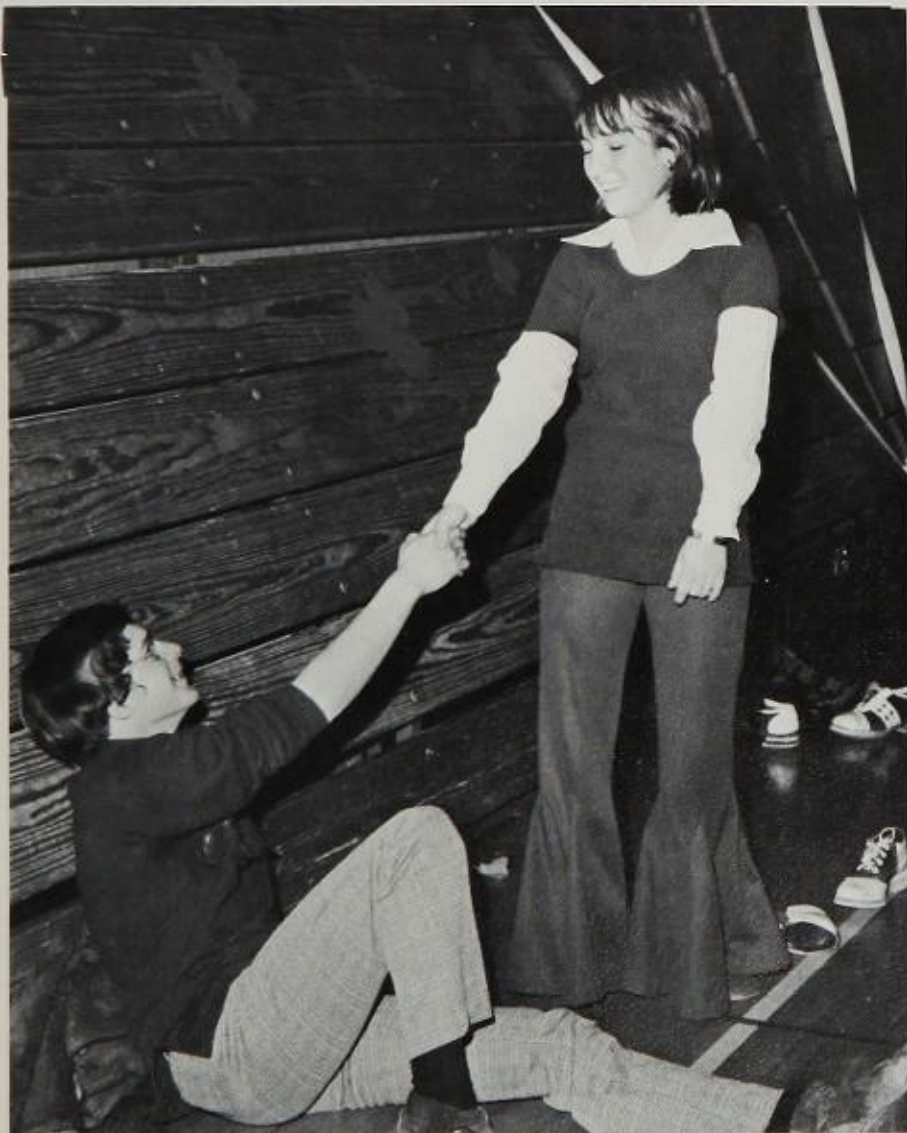

Performing at the St. Patrick's Day Dance at the Campus building was the group entitled "Freedom Rock" and played all of the recent songs.

Taking time out from the St. Pat's dance, relaxing while admiring one of the many paper shamrocks was Jim Morchinski and his date.

Pulling him to his feet and entreating him to dance with her for the next selection played by the band was Sue Lenz and her date.

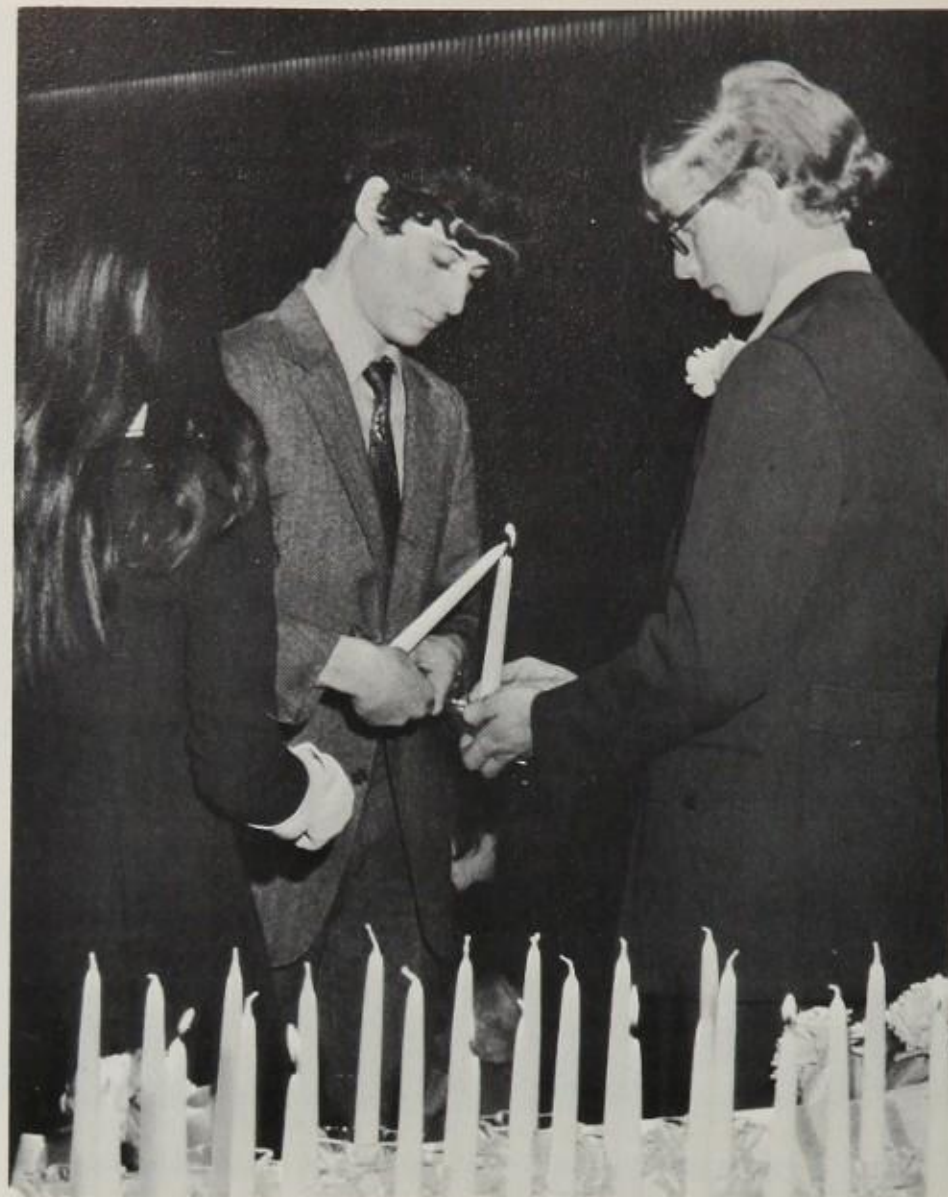

Students took time out from dancing and socializing among themselves for refreshments which consisted of cookies and punch served during the break.

Over 100 students initiated into National Honor Society at ceremony in Little Theatre

Near the end of the Spring semester in 1972, students were chosen for H.L. Richards National Honor Society, commonly known by their initials NHS. The requirements for entry into the society were to have a grade point average of at least a B or better and an active participation in a club or service. According to Mrs. Ridderhoff, sponsor, over 100 students were initiated into the society in a ceremony held in the Little Theatre. The initiates walked down the aisle to the stage where they received a candle and light from a departing member, symbolizing his or her acceptance into the society. NHS members performed the ushering duties.

Being brought into the National Honor Society, Brian Gilmore proudly lit his candle held by Ted Newman as part of the initiation ceremony.

Presenting the National Honor Society award to Chris Martig are Mrs. Beattie and Mr. Lowe who congratulated the winners at the presentation.

While walking down the aisle, Cheryl Hartman experienced the thrills and joys of being a N.H.S. member which was held at H.L. Richards.

To have a talk with a student's mother about classroom activities was what Mr. Roberson enjoyed at the Parent Faculty night conference.

Parents had opportunity to discuss student problems with teachers at PFA

Three times a school year, concerned parents and teachers had the opportunity to meet and discuss their mutual business-the students who attend Richards High School. The PFA meetings (Parent-Faculty Association) met on specified nights at each building for two hours from 7:00 PM to 9:00 PM. The days were long for both and the response often disappointing, but the discussions held with the parents who did come proved to be profitable for parent, teacher and student. Opportunities to discuss grades received, unsatisfactory notices, and problems in class were available. Although as often as not, parents did show up at the conferences.

An introduction of parents to Miss Alva Samaniotto was what Sue Suffern, FTA representative, helped with during Parent Faculty night.

Explaining some of the work that's done in his shop class to an interested parent was Mr. Frana during Richard's Parent Faculty night.

Diane Schwieger, MC for
entertained by members

The evening of May 4th, 1972 was the special night that the Girl's Club from the Richards buildings sponsored their annual Mother and Daughter Banquet entitled “Dotted Swiss and Daisies.” Mistress of Ceremony was Miss Diane Schwieger and the welcome and response were spoken by Peggy and Mrs. Hilton. Entertainment was provided by the members of Girl's Club, ranging from a one-act play of “Bob-A-Link and the Warblers”, which included Teresa Christian, Sandy Gerat, and Sharon and Karen Ward, to a solo entitled “You Never Walk Alone”, sung by Robin Gutzwiller. Also included in that night's activities was the installation of the new Girl's Club officers.

Acting as Mistress of Ceremonies at Girls' club Mother-Daughter Banquet, 'Dotted Swiss and Daisies', was president, Diane Schwieger.

Performing their dance routine at the Mother-Daughter banquet were Therese and Sharon Plahm, Sharon Swan and Georganne Diver.

Performing to the song “Rockin’ Robin” were several girls who were a part of the entertainment at the Mother-Daughter Banquet.

During Dad and Daughter date night, shadows of wonderful memories lingered in the minds of fathers as their daughters performed skits.

Displaying her talent, this young student performed a solo ballet for the large crowd that attended Dad and Daughter date night last October.

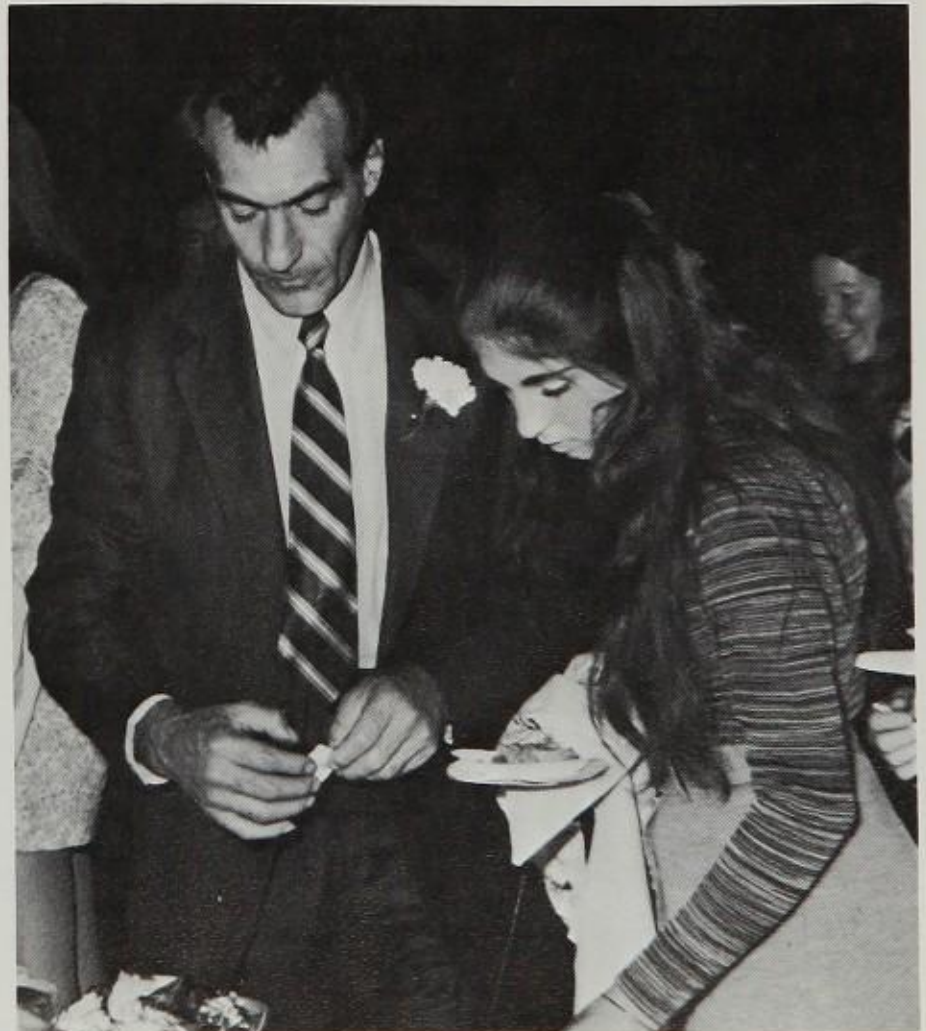

'Daddy for President!'

Guenzlers give warm welcome to all present

It was campaign night at Richard's campus gym on Oct. 12, when the Harold L. Richard's girls club presented the 1972 Dad and Daughter date night. "Daddy for President" was the theme. Each Dad that entered as a candidate received a carnation boutonniere. Giving a welcome and response to the large crowd was Susan, Marsha, and Mr. Guenzler. Sue Guenzler, president of the Girls Club, was also Mistress of Ceremonies hosted the evening. Eleven acts were displayed. Among them were two skits, Daddy's Little Girls and Tribute to Daddy. Musical talent was also performed by Celaine Bouma, singing The Impossible Dream.

After being entertained at Dad and Daughter date night, Jodi Lo Presti assisted her Father with some dessert before ending the evening.

Turnabout-“Moonlight Bay”

sponsored by Girl's Club

with continuous dancing

“Moonlight Bay” was the theme for the 1973 Girl's Club Turnabout Dance which they sponsored on Saturday evening, February 24th. Two bands played continuously throughout the evening to enhance the attending couples into a romantic atmosphere. The two bands that performed for the dance were “Revision” and “Papa Saint John”. The coronation of Mr. MIG took place during the dance and Dennis Kladis was named the Most Ideal Guy. Also announced and crowned that evening were the Most Ideal Guys representing the Junior, Sophomore and Freshmen classes. Captain and sailor hats were used for the crowning of the Mr. MIGs instead of a crown.

Glancing through the bids that the Girl's Club had printed for the 1973 Turnabout entitled “Moonlight Bay” were John Cox and his date.

Couples dancing to songs played by Revisions and Papa Saint John for the '73 “Moonlight Bay” turned out to be a memorable occasion.

Dancing in the Moonlight enhanced the romantic evening at “Moonlight Bay” as shown by Gerry Wiatrowski and his date, Darlene Lyons.

Taking the first dance after the announcement of Mr. MIG were Susan Guenzler, Girl's Club president and Dennis Kladis, Mr. MIG.

Dancing around the beautifully decorated and colorful gym, couples attending Turnabout enjoyed the music and the romantic mood it gave.

Decorated corridor leading to Turnabout's "Moonlight Bay" was filled with many anxious couples awaiting the night's delightment.

H.L.R. Christmas Concert

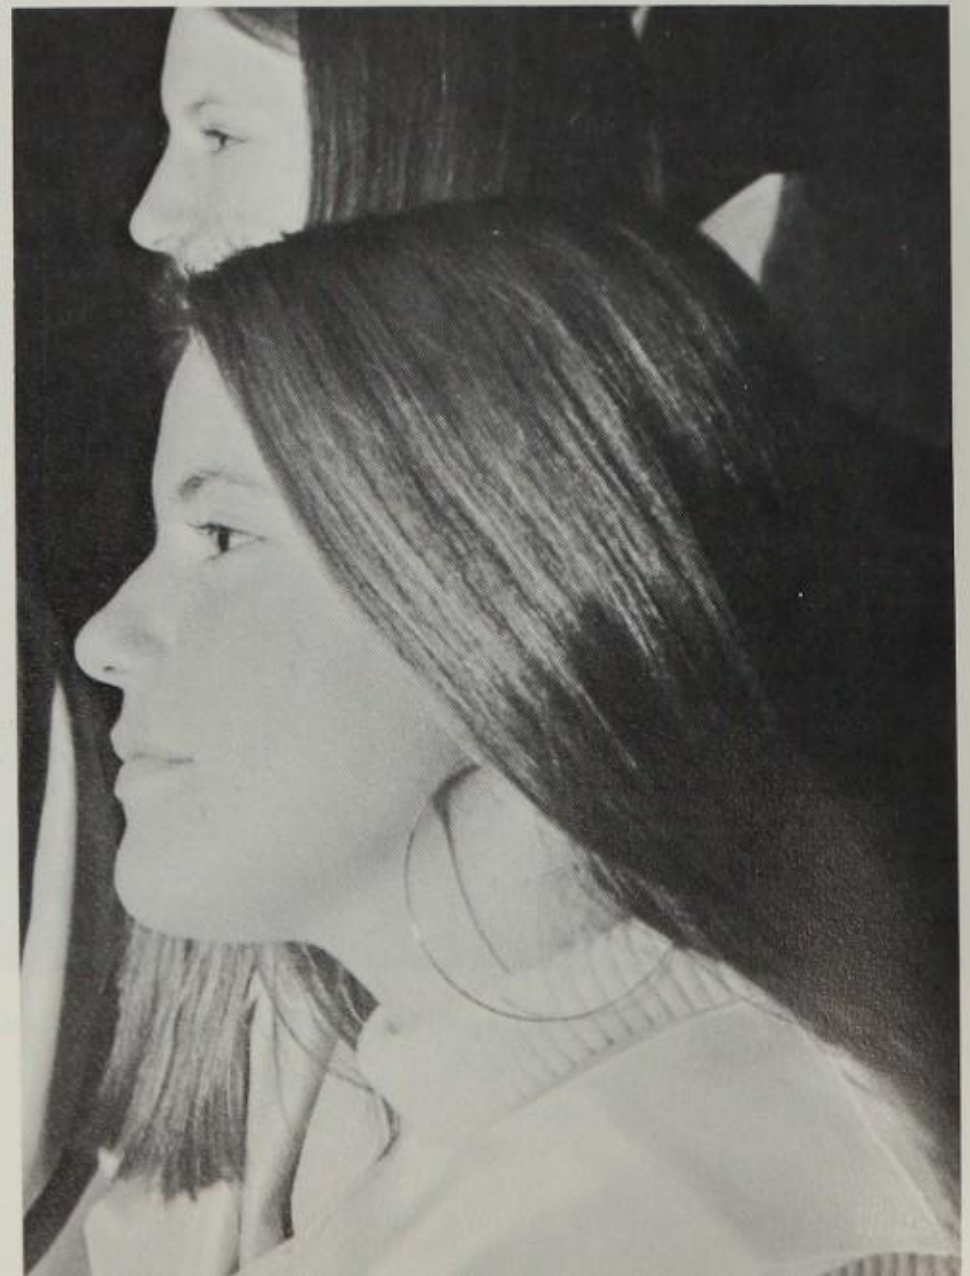

Christmas Spirit was floating everywhere when the day dawned on the 1972 annual Christmas Concert. This joyful season was made even more festive from the strains of the H.L. Richards orchestra, who played two carols, traditional at Christmas. The concert choir sang songs, true to Christmas, while a stringed quartet accompanied them, also under direction of Mr. Mayer Channon, the band played Christmas melodies. Tri-M awards were distributed to the various students of music, and special honorary awards were given to members of the faculty for outstanding achievements. Candy and records were sold to support students on the spring tour at the Wisconsin Dells.

Honored was Janet Gunty, while pinning Tri-M pin on Robyn Morse, being recognized as a Modern Music Master along with Jan Krass.

Delivering a speech was Tri-M president, Marty Yost, behind him, Bev Kruder, Cyndi Gardeakos, Mary Christopher, Sharon Sikora.

Fascinated by great sounds of H. L. Richards orchestra, were students Sue Solnar, Penny Yandel quietly listening while sitting on bleachers.

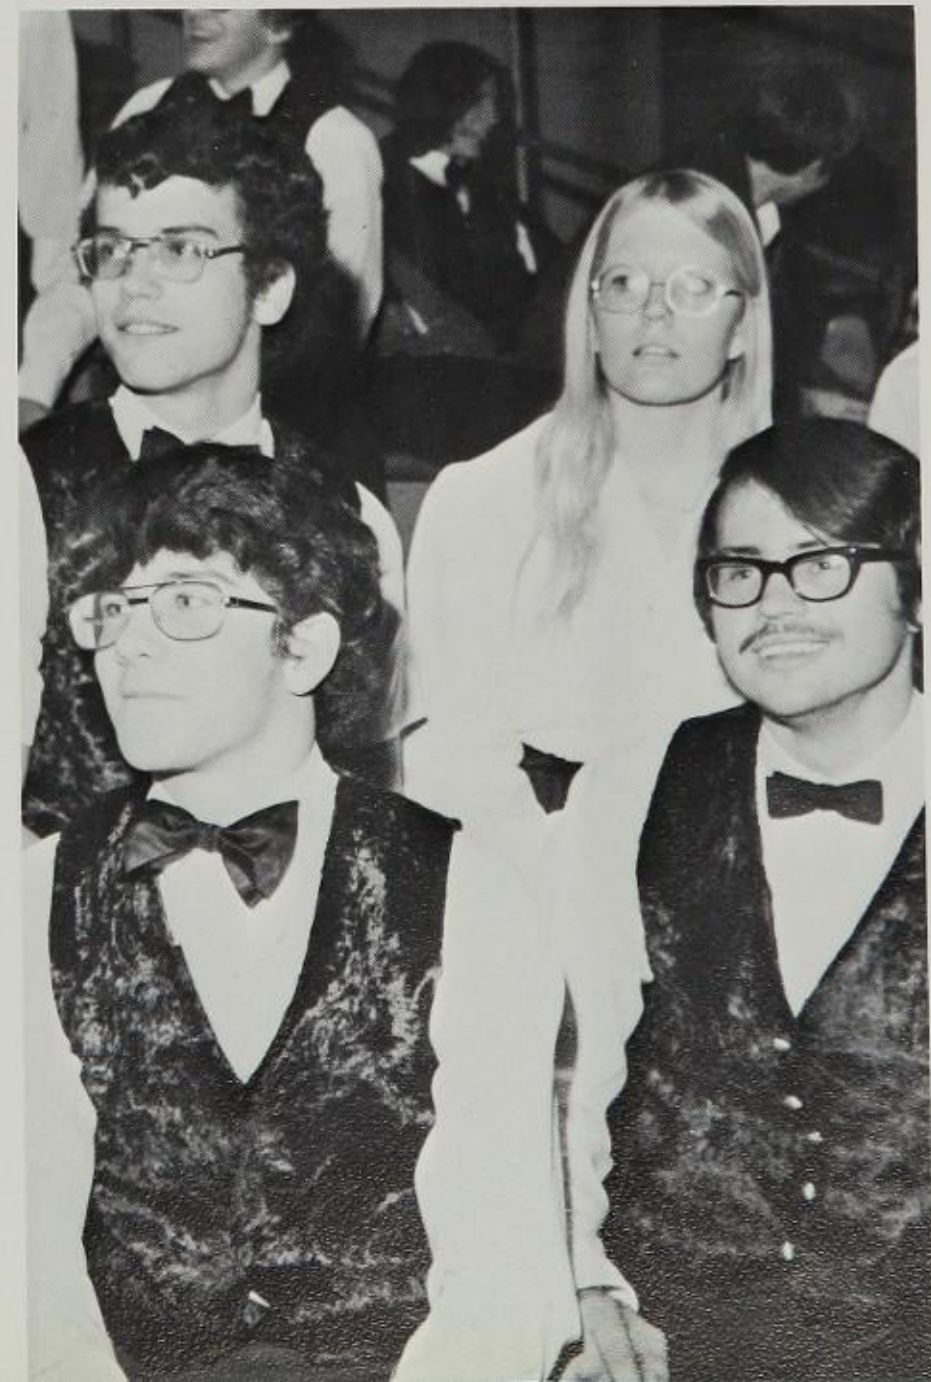

Proudly pinning on her newly received Modern Music Masters pin, was Mary Kerkstra, after initiation ceremony during Christmas concert.

Members of orchestra showing great talents at concert were, Joanne Picianno playing cello, Lucy Pletka, bass.

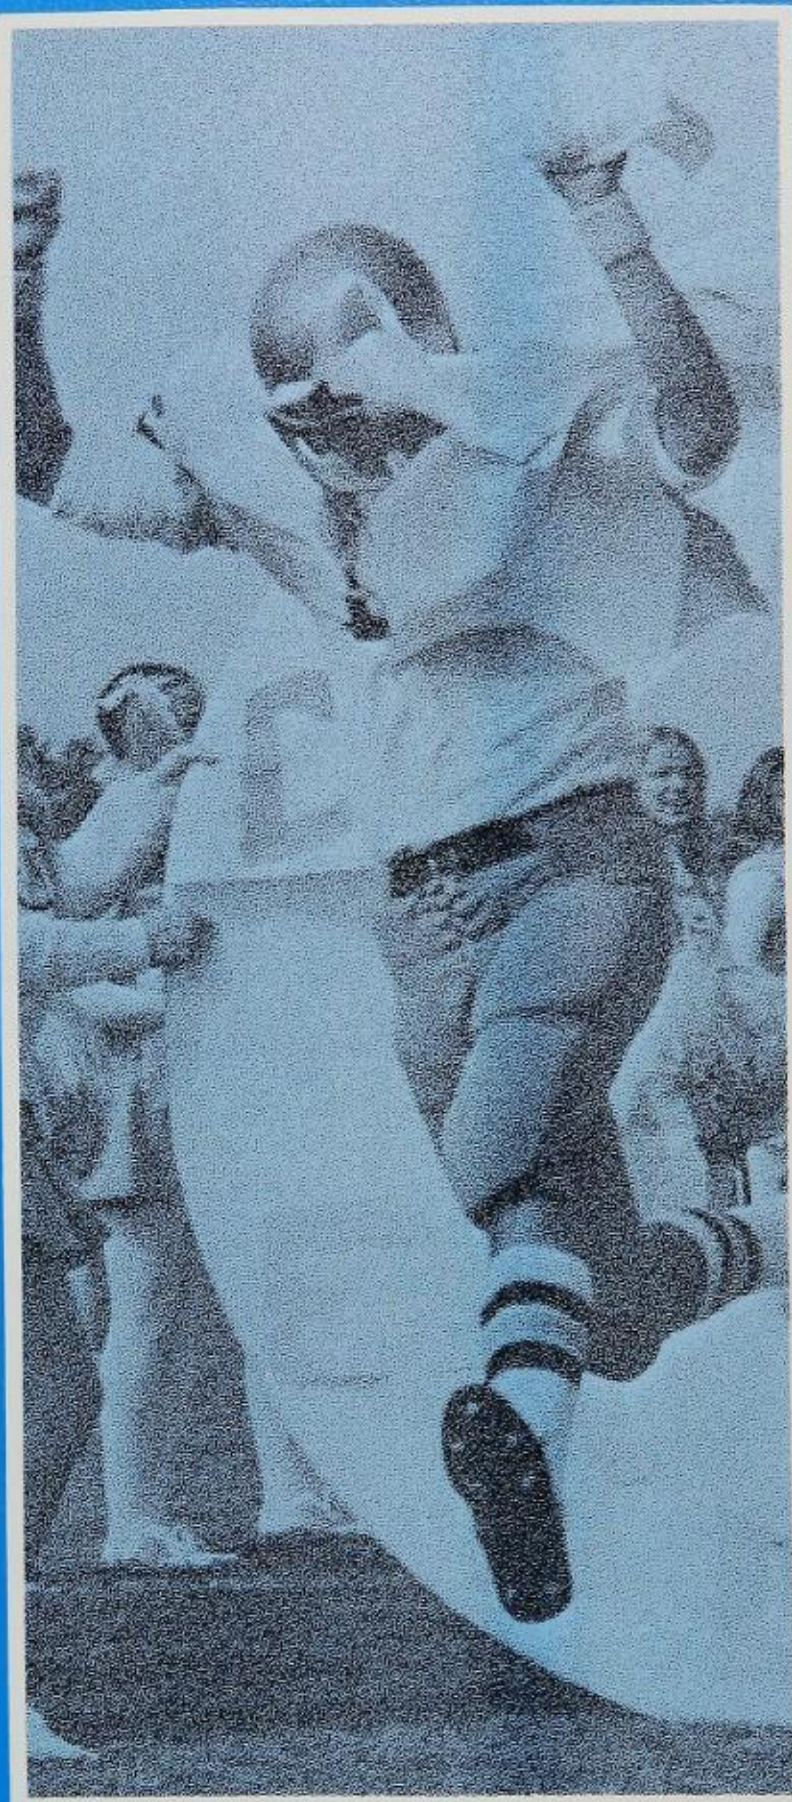

Eyes attentively watched guest conductor, Mr. Gabbert, Fine Arts Director, as the orchestra played Toccata at the Christmas concert.

After orchestra finished performing, Dorothy Boyle, Dave Thomas, Bev Kruder, Rodger Stansburg, Nick Sotiros watched rest of concert.

When split schedules were made part of our school, one of the more notable changes was that all our athletes

were scheduled in the morning, dividing them virtually from one-half of the student body at Richards High School.

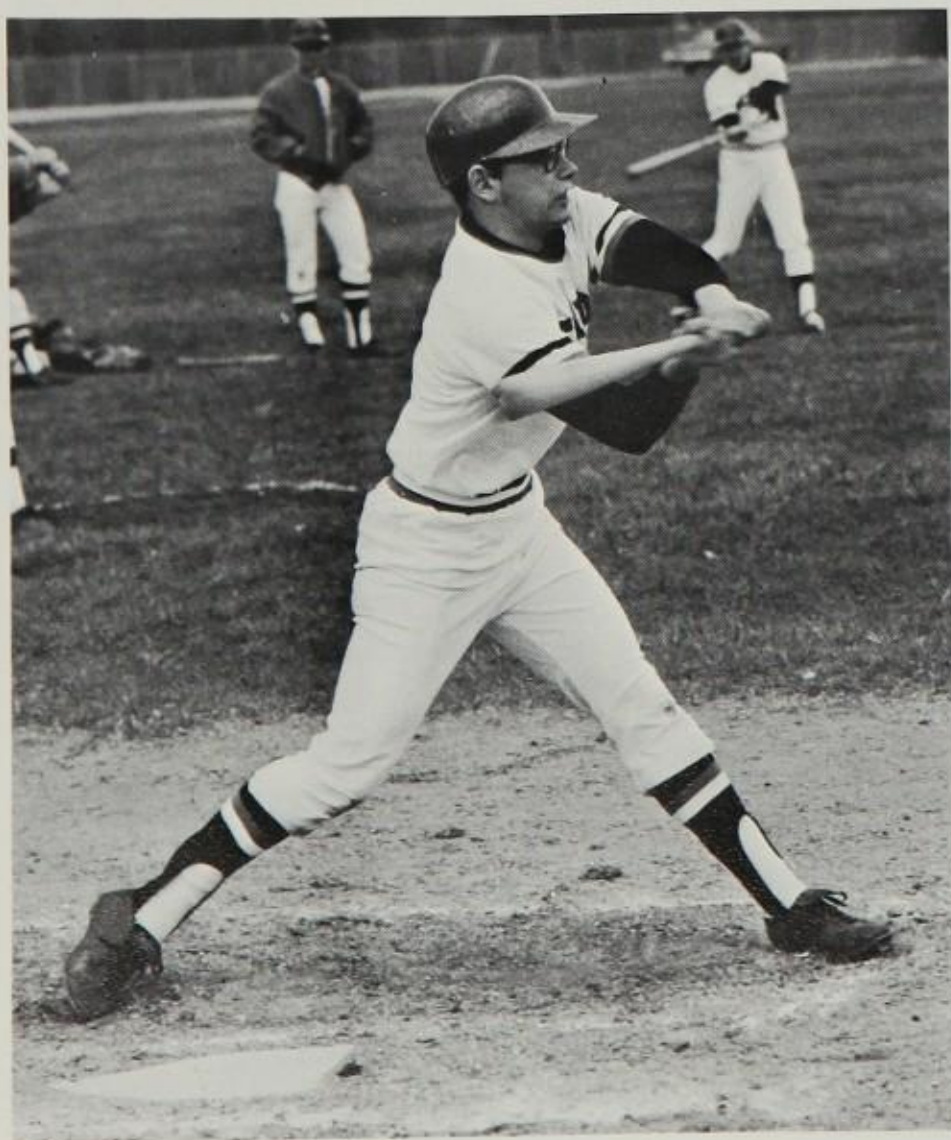

COMPETITION

*H.L.R. varsity baseball
led by Captain Maher;
three make "All-Star"*

"Strike One, Strike Two," yelled the umpire, as the Varsity Baseball Team placed 3rd in the South Suburban League by ending their season with a record of 8 wins and 7 losses. Ken Kudla coached the team with the co-operation of Captain Dan Maher. The Most Valuable Player Award was given to Senior Eric Karlsson for his performance throughout the season. The All Star Team was made up of 3 Richards students, Dan Maher, 1st team, infield, Eric Karlsson 2nd team, pitcher, and Joe Benson, 2nd team, catcher. The 1973 Captain was Ray Ulreich. The skill, knowledge and past experience as a guide was shown by Coach Ken Kudla.

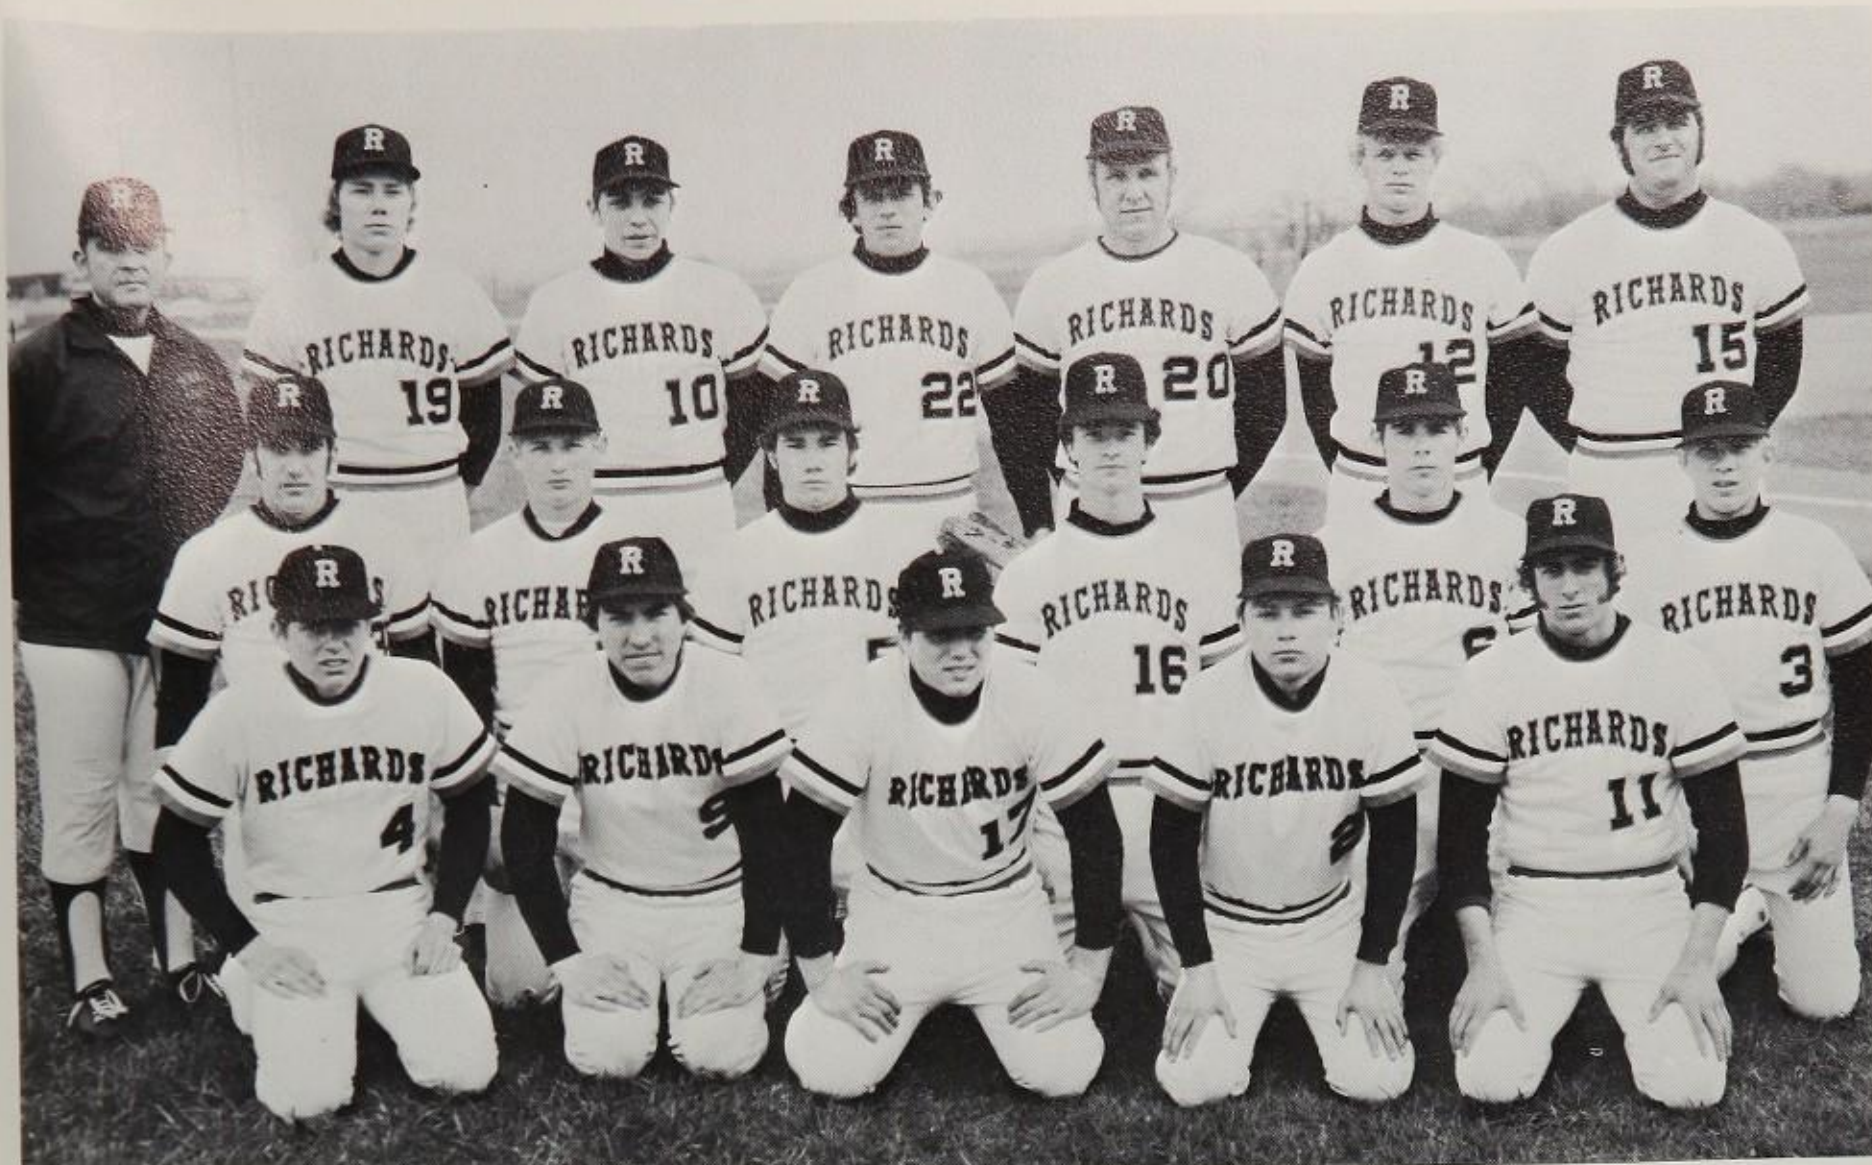

Leading off anticipating a possible stolen base, Dan Maher crouched in position to get the best jump on the opponent's catcher.

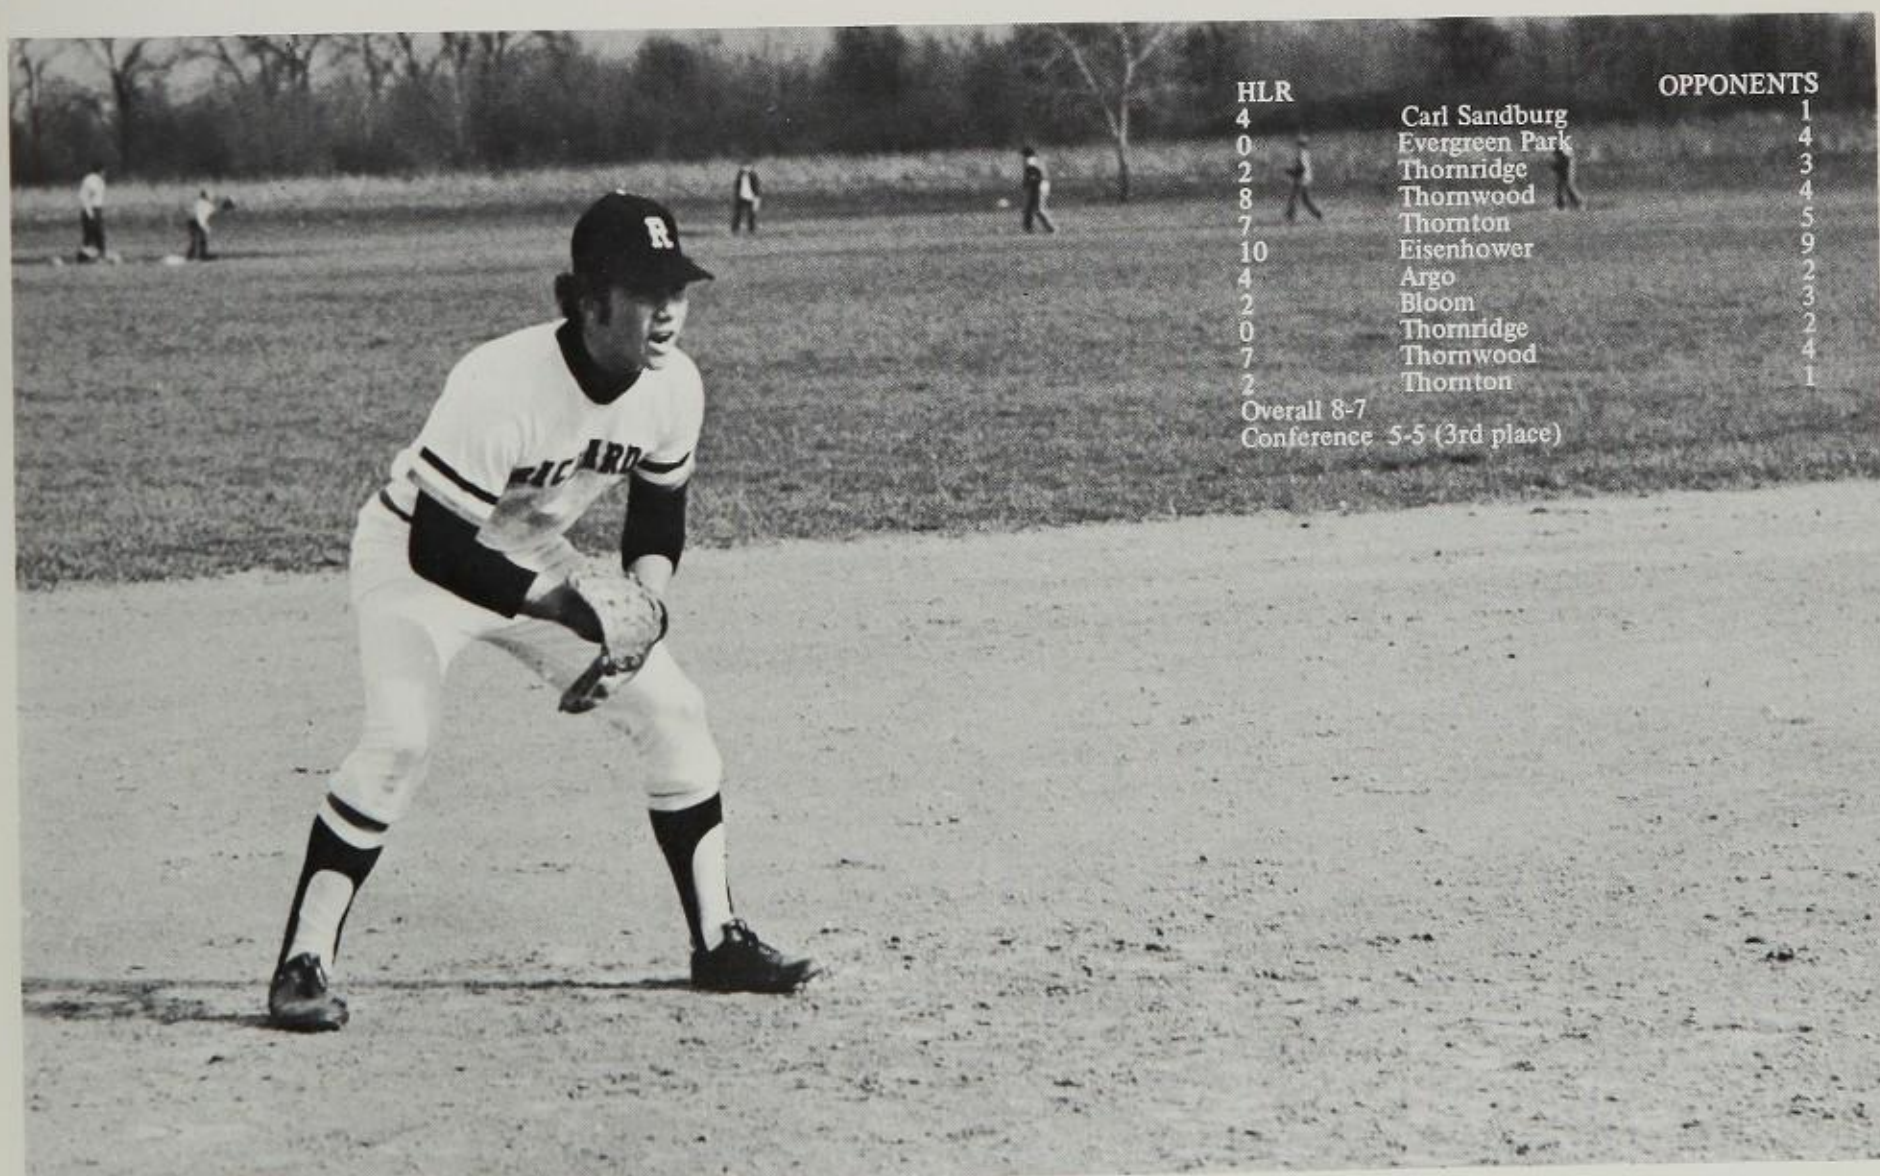

With his arm and wrist a blur of motion, Ed Krezer, varsity pitcher, wound up his curve ball and prepared to let it fly at the wary batter.

Intently swinging for a homerun was Dennis Barker, who's .400 batting average was something to worry the pitchers.

With an outstanding batting average of .500, Dan Marshall, the top hitter on the sophomore baseball team, stands ready in the on deck circle.

Year for Richards Sophs

Baseball has become a power here at Richards for the Sophomore teams. The Sophomores clinched the S.S.L. crown for the third year in a row. The '72 team was coached under the direction of Mr. Walt Tyler. This was the second year in a row that Mr. Tyler has taken the crown. The fifteen member team compiled a 10-5 record. Captains of the Sophomore team were Bo Gutzwiller and Bob Cummings. Leading hitters were Dan Marshall, hitting an even .500, Don Snider .400, and Dan Paczesny .375. The most consistent pitchers were Kevin Kelly and Dave Dombrowski who put together a 6-8 record. Errorless ball was played by Dave Dombrowski and Don Snider.

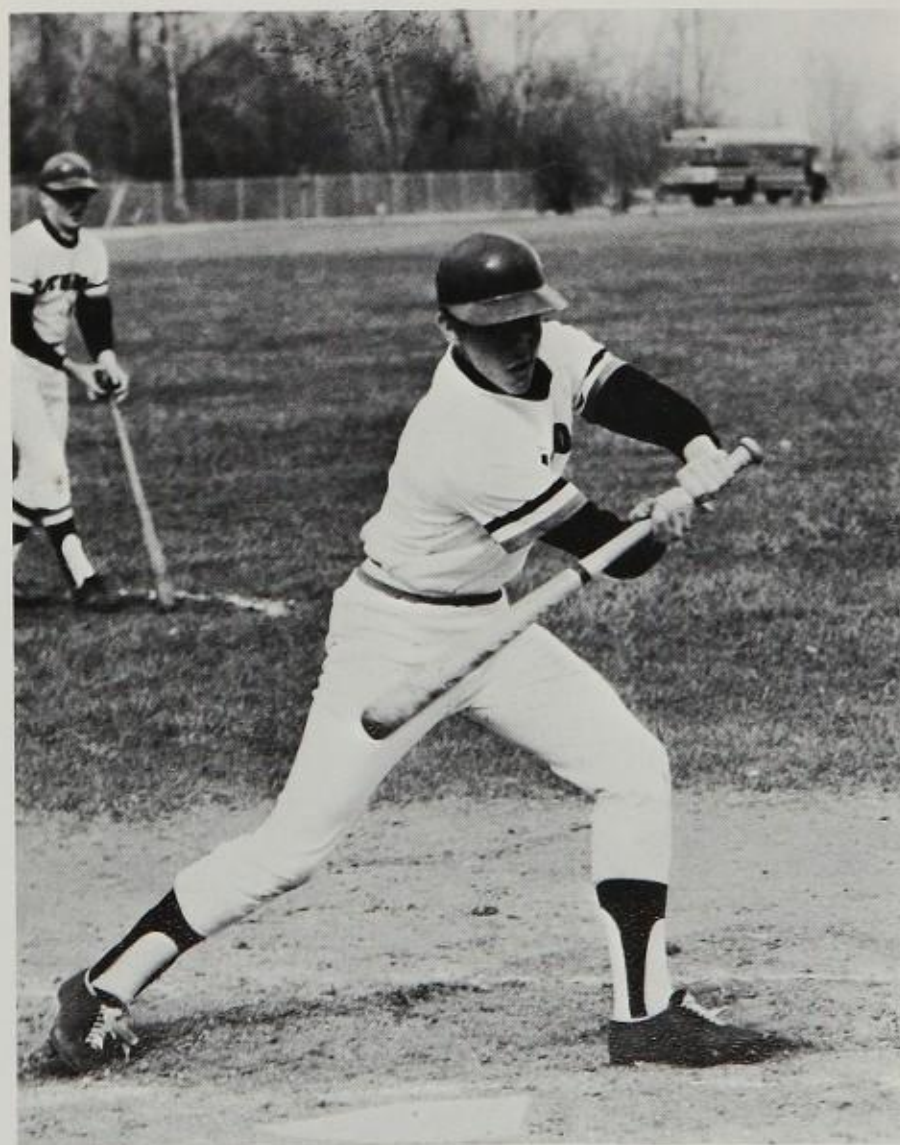

Conferences on the mound became part of the strategy of the Bullpups that accounted for the team effort being increased for a good season record.

Holding all their home games at the Northwest school building at 115 and Ridgeland were Sophomore baseball team coached by Mr. Walter Tyler.

This Sophomore Bullpup checked his swing and waited for his pitch before hitting a line drive double to right field to score two more runs.

Newly built track put to use; team ended third in S.S.L. conference

Led by the triple coaching efforts of Mr. Mike Ritchie, Mr. Homer Thomas and Head Coach Mr. Harry McDaniels the Varsity Track team ended fourth place in the South Suburban League Conference. They came in fifth place in the H.L. Richards Invitational meet and achieved third place position in the Joliet East Invitational. The competitors were judged on points attained during the different events during the meets such as the mile run, the high jump and the 50 yard dash. Some members of the team were Don Pratl, one of the top scorers, Ken Moody and Marco Corsi. This year marked the first time that the newly built track was used extensively.

The Western Roll, along with many other skilled techniques, were used by Jim Evans to clear the high jump bar for his finishing points.

Keeping in shape during the winter was as important as the summer workouts, demonstrated here by John Kass and Tom Abrahamson.

Sophomores remained undefeated in dual meets

Jansen replaced McDaniels

Jogging around the track; sprinting on the stretch, straining with an effort that tested muscles, wind and strength to test them for further competition were the Freshmen-Sophomore members of the Harold L. Richards track team.

The Sophomore squad remained undefeated in dual meets. The season lasted from March until May and was considered "a very successful season" by members. Former coach Harry McDaniels worked with Mr. Homer Thomas and Mr. Mike Ritchie in coaching for events such as sprinting, running the mile and field events. Mr. Dale Jansen was the head coach for the many field events.

Outgoing Coach Frisch brought team to 11 in district; 6th in conference

Among the most beautiful of settings for an athletic, competitive sport was the golf course and the Harold L. Richards 1972 golf team found that setting at the Silver Lakes Country Club.

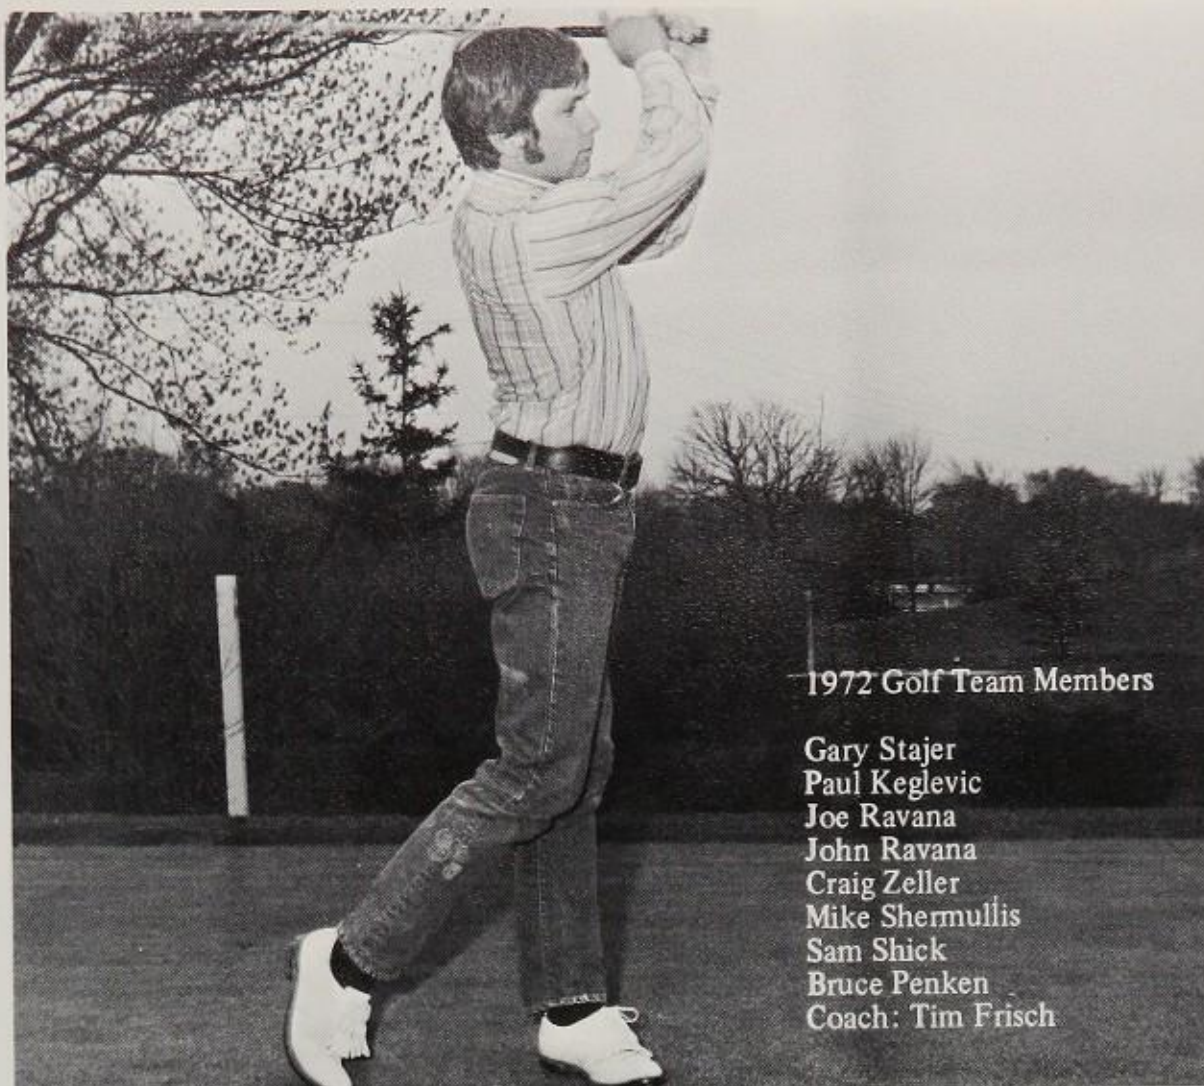

The eight man team was coached by Mr. Tim Frisch who left the district this year for a new job in Oregon to a sixth place in conference standings and an eleventh in the district. The team was made up of Gary Stajer, Paul Keglevic, Joe Ravana, John Ravana, Craig Zeller, Mike Shermullis, Sam Shick and Bruce Penken. Some opponents that the team played included Bremen, Thornton, Eisenhower, Argo and Thornwood.

Diligently practicing at perfecting a teeing off technique was Mike Shermullis, varsity golf team member at the Silver Lakes golf course.

led Frosh-Soph tennis

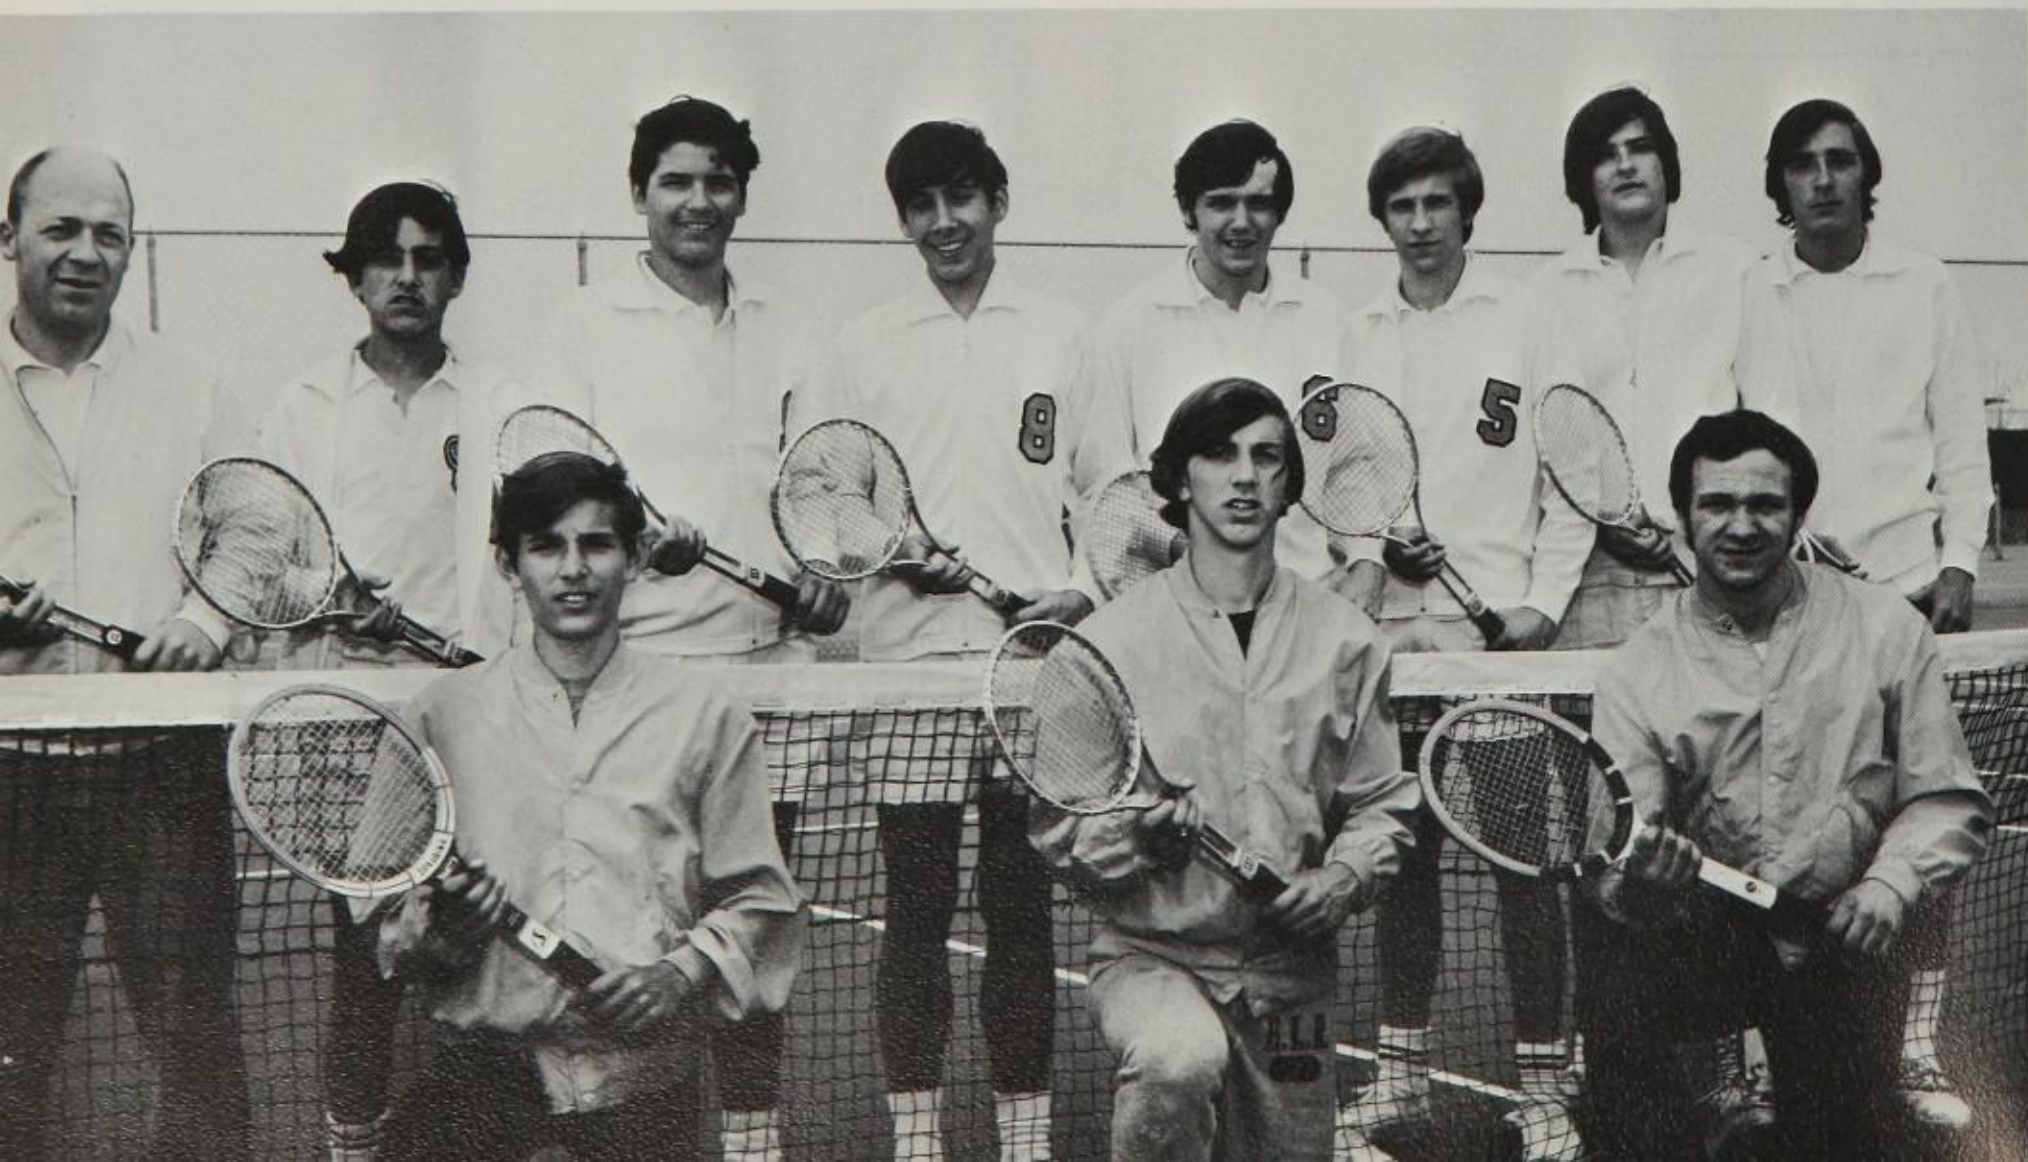

team to a 5-3 record

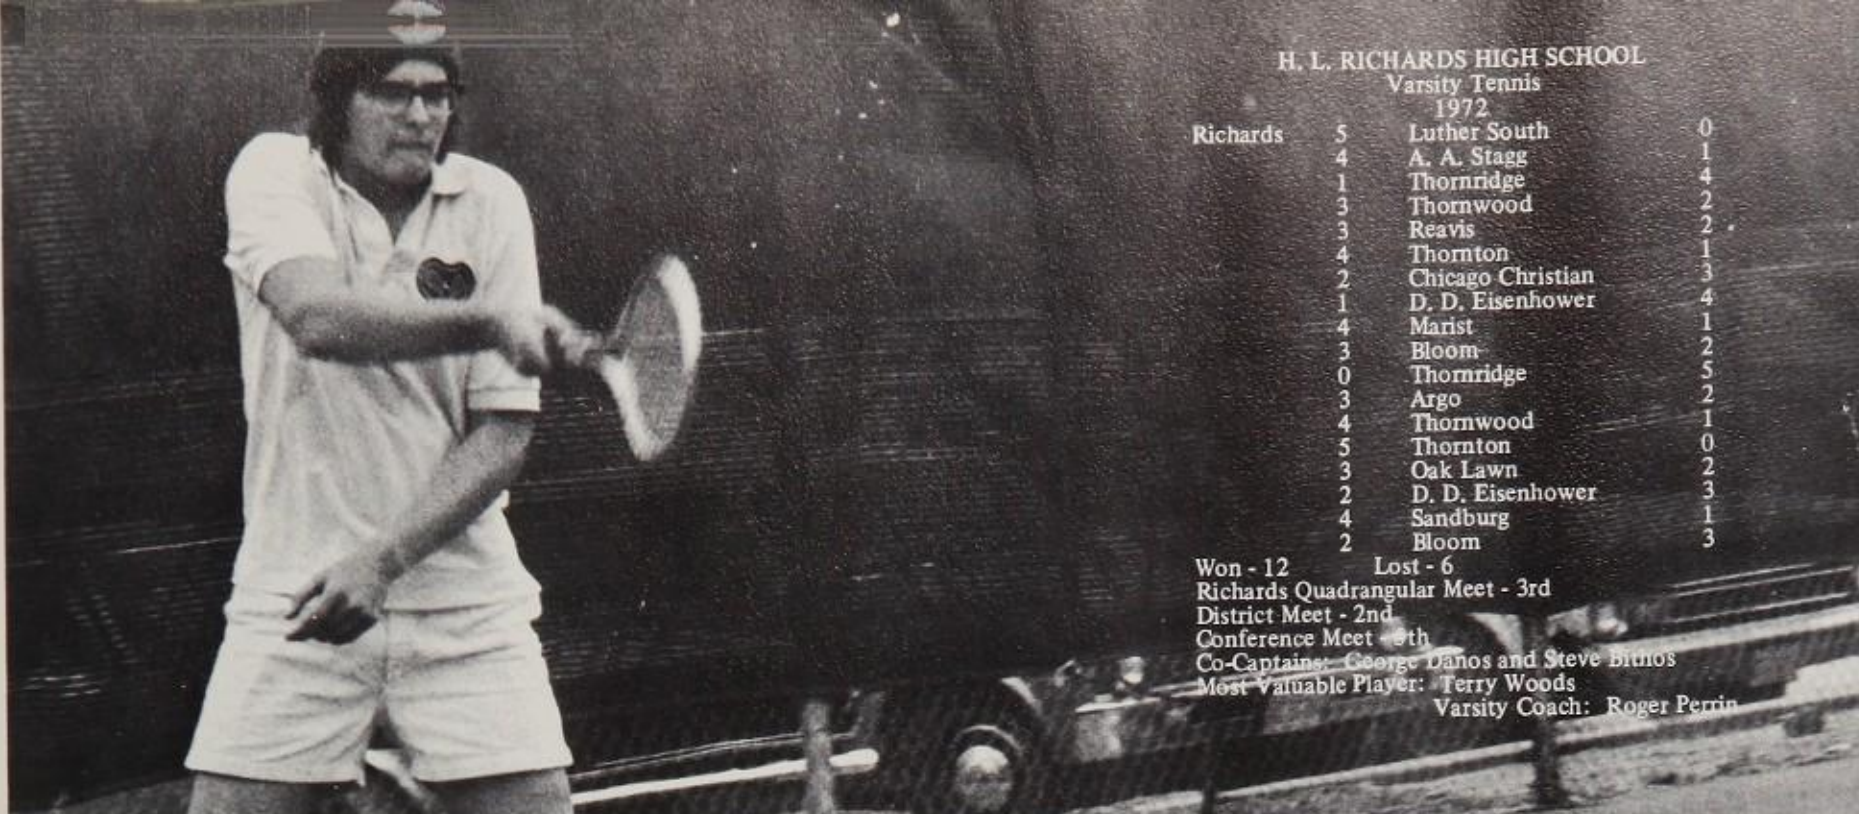

After many hours of hard practice, hitting the ball to one another, and getting ready for matches, the Freshmen-Sophomore Tennis Team, coached by Campus Business Teacher, Fred Triefenbach, went for a great '72 Spring Season as they played on the newly resurfaced tennis courts. The top three scorers were as follows: Ben Paul, who won 27 and lost 2, Rande O'Neal won 22 and lost 4, and Scott Brown won 18 and lost 8 games. In the H. L. Richards Quadrangular Tennis Meet, Richards placed second and in the Conference Meet, placed fourth, having a tie with Thornridge. Some of the other schools that were in the competition were Thornwood and Thornton.

Anxiously waiting to hear the umpire's decision on whether his opponent committed a double fault was Bob Keslinke, a varsity tennis member.

CONFERENCE E-tied for 4th Place
 Quad- 2nd Place

We're Number One!

Ritchie led Varsity

runners to first place

We're number one!

Under the guidance and Mother Henning of Coach Micheal Ritchie the Varsity Cross Country team fought or rather ran on to first place.

The sport of cross country tests speed and stamina which Richards proved in their twelve to zero record.

Placing second in the Reavis International, fourth in the Tinley Park Invitational and fourth in the Rich Central Invitational against nineteen teams and won first place in conference. Captain of the team was Don Pratl.

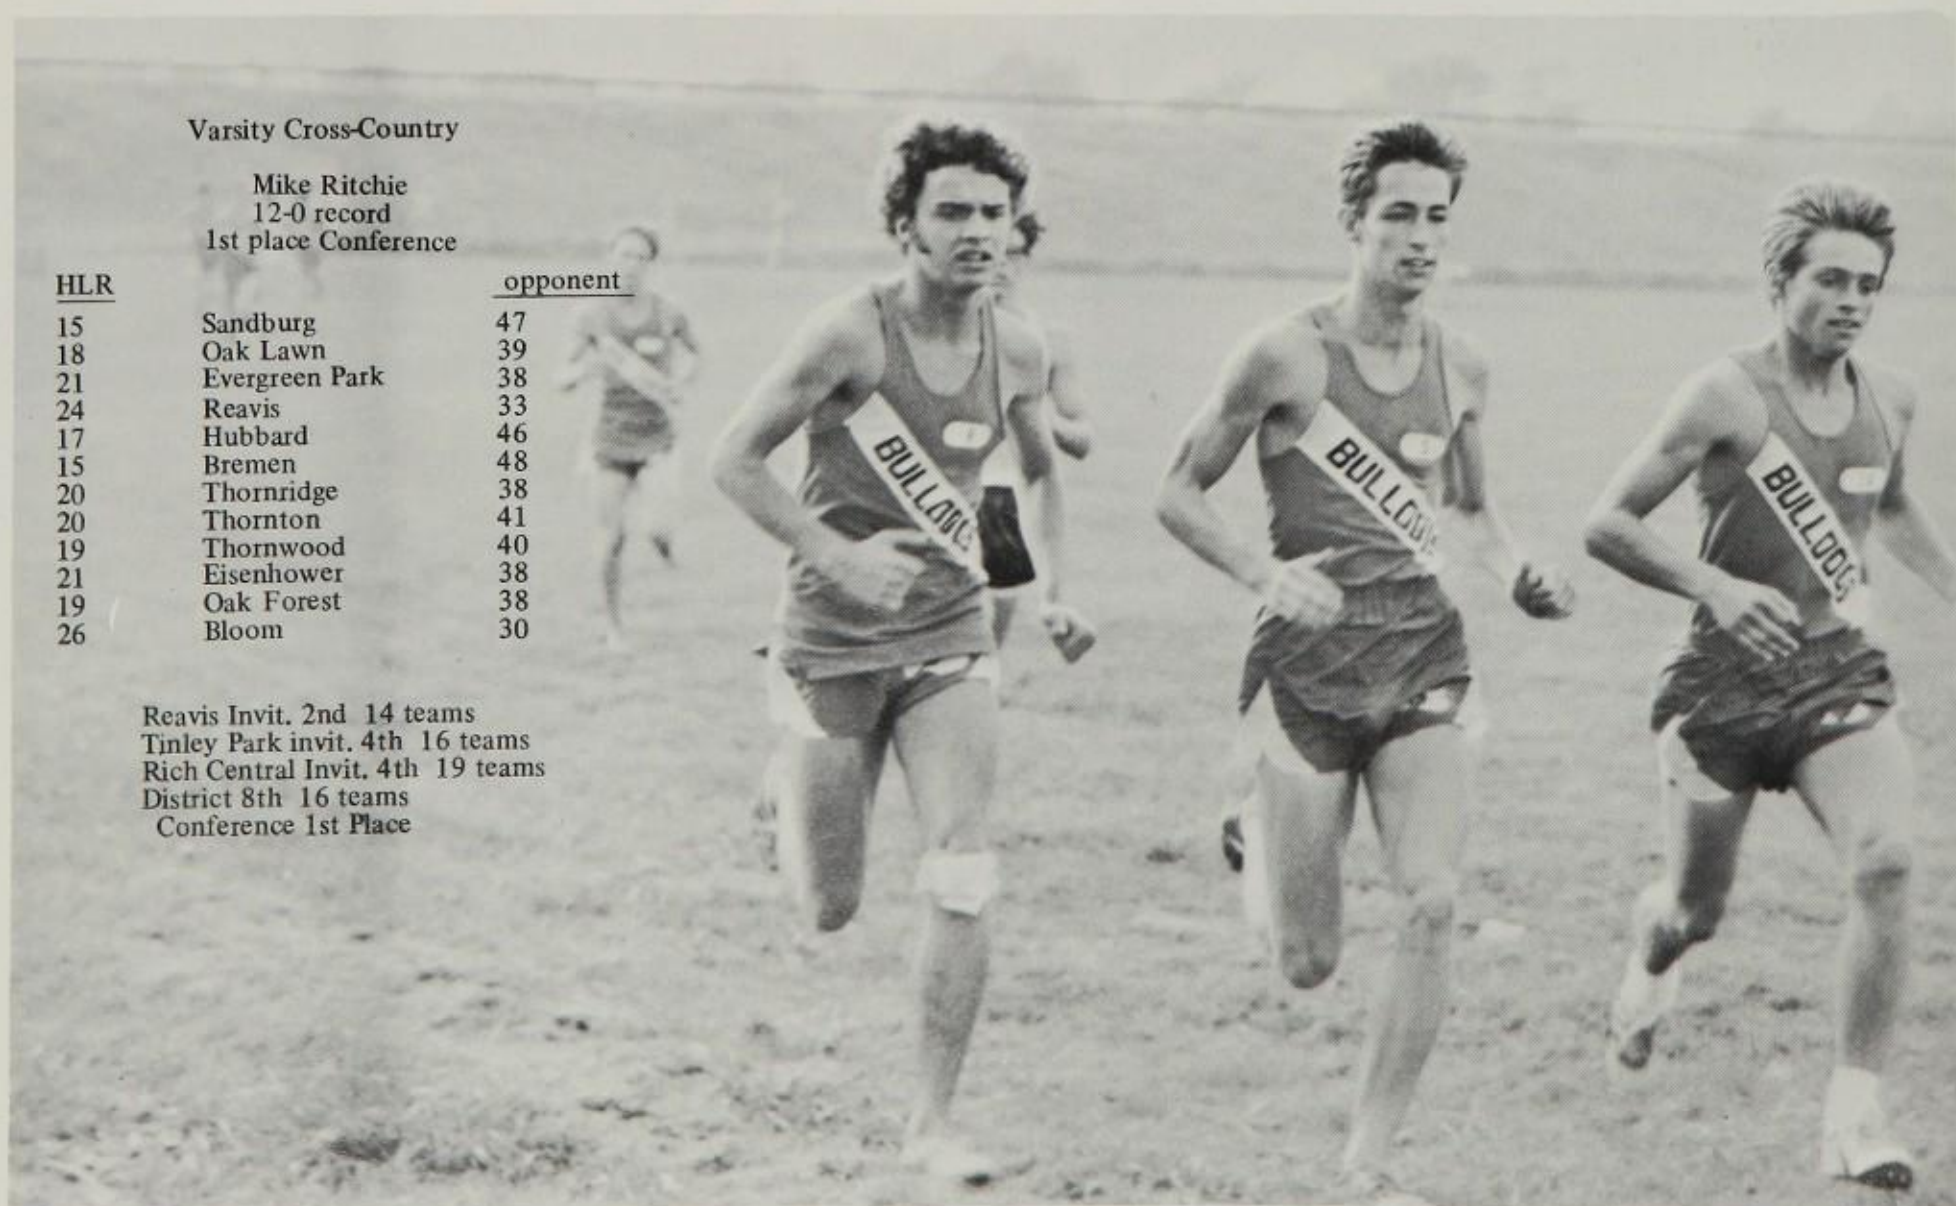

Striving toward the finish line in the meter race, a Varsity Cross Country runner, Mike Shaughnessy strides with determination to success.

Doing a fantastic job during the cross-country meet were Seniors Ken Felton and Ray Giff as they both tried to get to the finish line faster.

Determined to get done with his training session is Senior Ken Moody as his coach, Mr. Ritchie watches to make sure he does it correctly.

Frosh-Soph, second in conference; Cozzio, Bohne, Bensema best runners

"They were pretty decent!" seemed the consensus of the students we asked about the Soph.-Frosh. Cross Country Team. Practicing over the entire summer they ended with a 12 to 1 record. They ran some 8 to 15 miles a day. The first practice was held on August 12 and continued on throughout the season.

Coach Mike Ritchie worked his second year with the team which placed second in the Conference and achieved first place in the Thornridge Invitational tournament. Among the Freshmen top runners were: Chris Cozzio and Brian Bohne and among the Sophomores was Gary Bensema and Jeff Evans. All in all - pretty decent.

Richards took second to Thornwood in playoff; Bylsma new coach

Defeated in a heartbreaking three way play-off, Richards Varsity football team worked to a 6-3 season under the direction of first year head coach, Gary Korhonen. The result of the play-off put Richards in second place in the South Suburban League to first place Thornwood. All conference players were Tom Sinderwald, Mike G'Francisco who also was all state, Mike Shemullis and Mike Kruse. The team defeated Thornridge in the Homecoming game, 38 to 0. Mr. Bill Bylsma was added to the coaching staff.

In the opinion of some observers and fans this was possibly the most promising and best played season ever.

Receiving his instructions for the next attack, from coach Don Webster, was a member of the varsity football team, Mike Shermulis.

To achieve a degree of excellence in a sport required effort, practice, dedication and more practice. Harold L. Richards Sophomore team practiced everyday during the warm summer months in order to prepare for the Fall season.

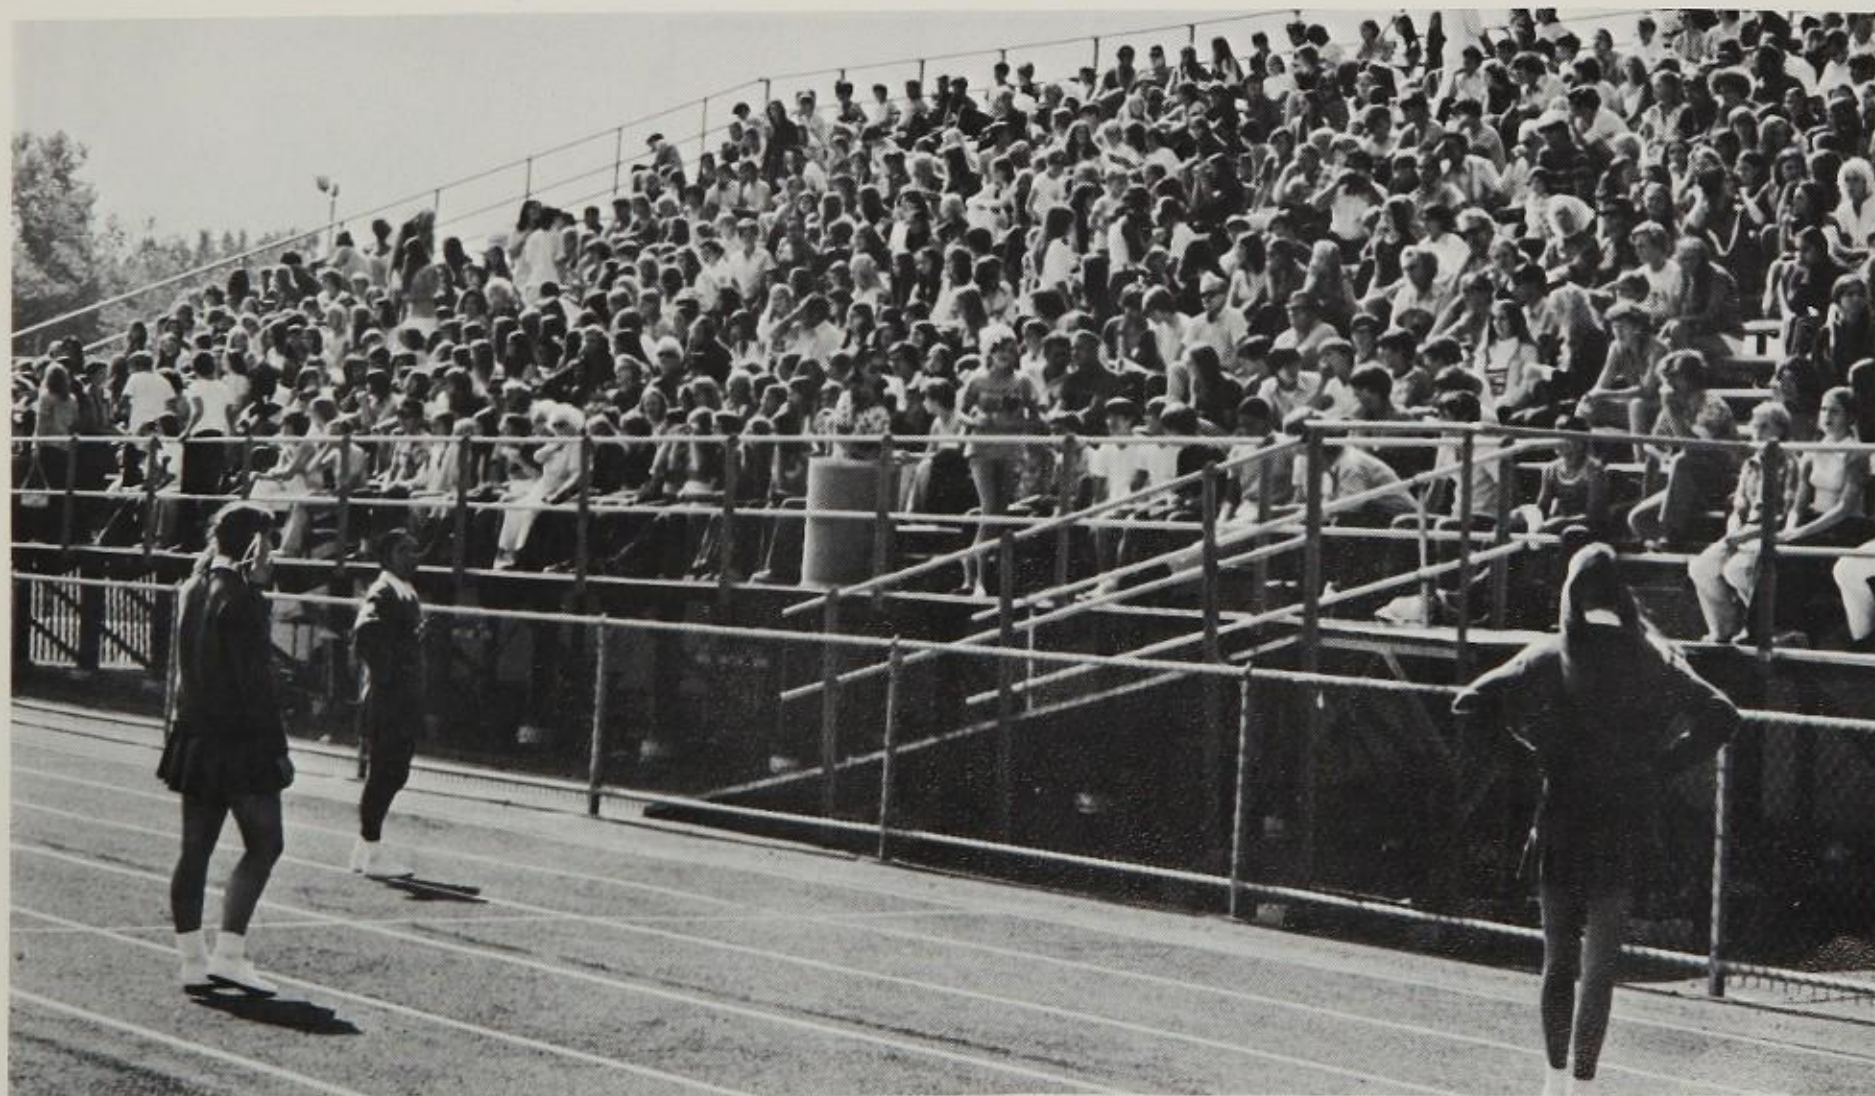

Coached by Mr. Tony DiAnza, Mr. Frank Salvatori and Mr. John Burke to an overall record of seven wins and two losses. The team was headquartered at the Northwest building. Sophomores took on the same schools as did the Varsity, engaging schools such as Eisenhower, Bloom, Thornwood, Thornridge and Lockport. First game of the season was with Morgan Park. Among the best players were Bill Matthews and Tom Ryan.

High School competition brought new challenges to Freshmen Bullpups

Freshmen football has continued to be a power here at Richards. Practice began during the summer months, which made the teams ready for their first official game of the season. The coaches of the "A" team were Mr. Tom Klutchart and Mr. Jim Cygan. Despite being plagued with injuries and a small squad, the team came on strong by winning their last three games in a row with impressive victories. The Frosh "B" team, coached by Mr. Larry LaFoy, had a winning season, finishing with an 8 and 1 record. The combined record for the two teams was 11 wins and 7 losses. Vigorous training and many hours of practice proved to be worthwhile.

Wrestling for the Bulldogs proved to be a challenge for varsity wrestler Al Wood as he strengthened his grip on the Marion opponent.

The pep talks that Coach Heniff gave to Steve Traylor might be why Steve won a Conference championship and placed in District at 98 lbs.

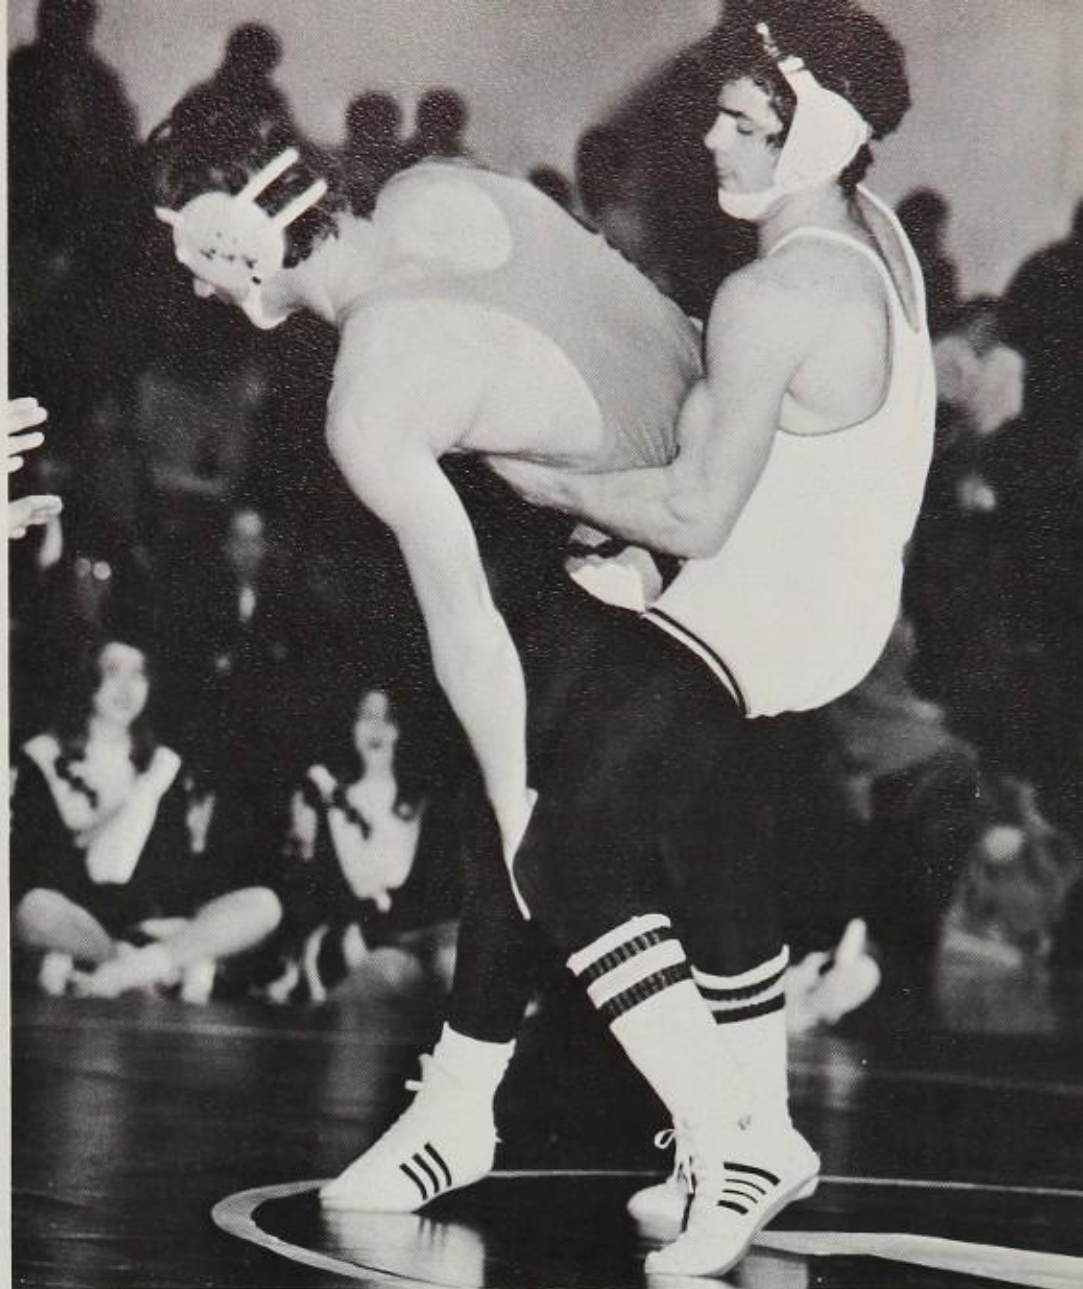

Daily practice from Nov.

to Feb., team placed

5th in conference fight

Tom Heniff, Varsity coach had the team practice from 5 to 7 everyday after beginning to work-out in September. The season covered time from November to February. Team placed 5th in the conference, beating Thornridge, Thornton and Breman. Among the players were Jim Alex, scored 119, Steve Cozzi, 145 and Dave Dzulba, 105. Varsity Capt. Jim Alex when interviewed said, that the philosophy of the team concentrated on the whole effort rather than on the individual. "We look forward to better years ahead, maybe some conference championships." The team purchased a new mat which is reversible, and it cost approximately three thousand dollars.

Fancy foot and arm work are just as important for wrestling as strength and endurance, as shown by this varsity Bulldog grappler.

Letting his opponent get a good look at his reflection on the mat was varsity wrestler Mike Dreger before making his move to gain points.

Readjusting his hold on a Marion Catholic opponent was necessary for this Richards matman in order to overcome the force on his leg.

of 7 wins, 8 losses, 1 tie,

Sophs got 1st conference

Wrestling on the Freshmen level were 21 wrestlers from the Northeast and Northwest Buildings with Mr. Bowden as Coach assisted by Mr. D'Anza. The seasonal record ended with 7 wins, 8 losses and 1 tie. The Richards Freshmen team placed 5th at the Bloom Christman Tournament, 4th at the Rich East Frosh Tournament, with Greg Moore named Most Valuable Player on the Wrestling team. The Tinley Park Invitational Meet ended with a 1st place.

First time Conference Champions for Richards High School was the Sophomore Wrestling team winning 7 first places out of 12 weight levels. Co-captains for the team were Reggie Anderson and Alan Johnson.

Fast breaks are considered to be the most exciting plays in basketball as demonstrated here by Steve Sievers laying it up against Stagg.

Sievers, Lewis led our Bulldogs to Christmas title Second regional crown

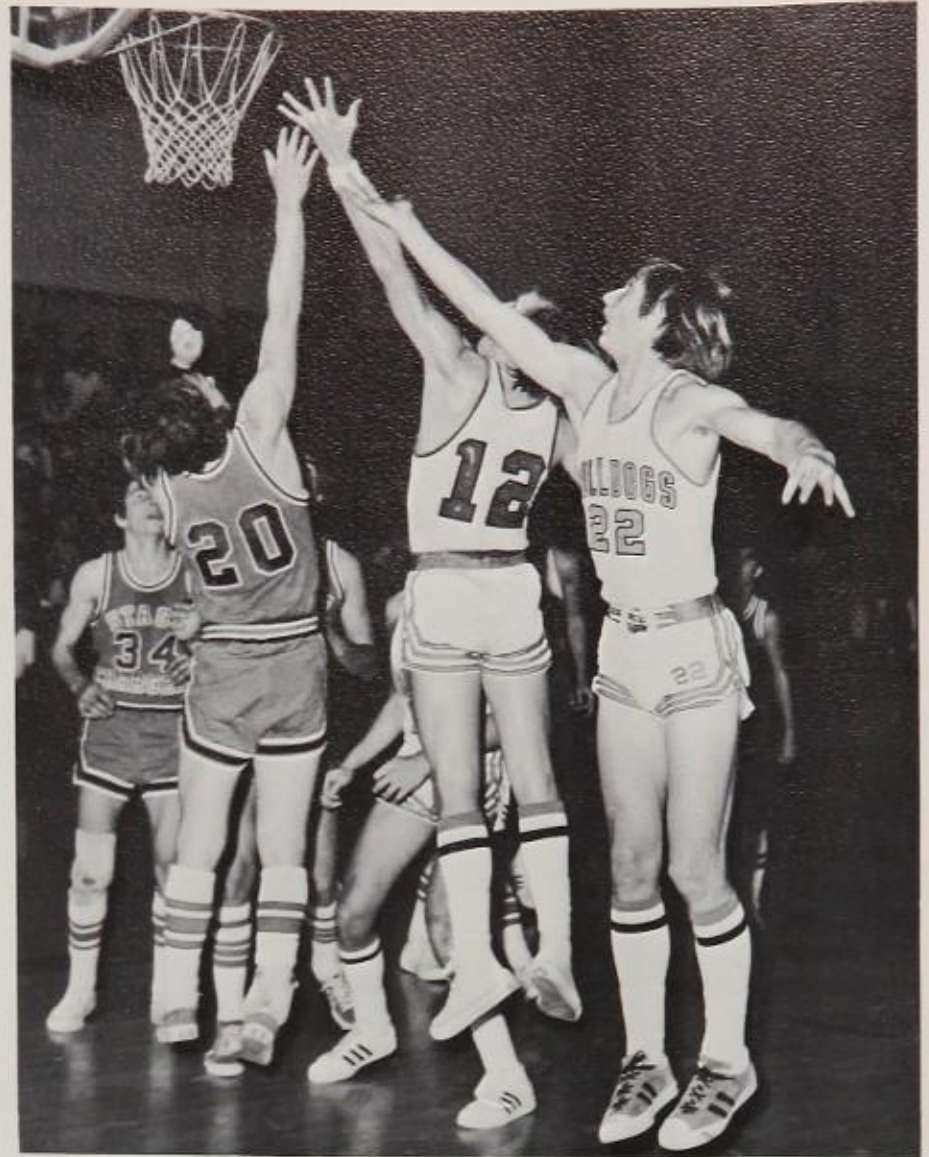

With a record of 15 wins and 12 losses, the varsity Basketball team gave HLR fans only the second regional championship in the history of the school. Led by Scott Lewis, the team captain, and Steve Sievers, the teams leading scorer, our fine team won the Christmas Tournament with a last second jump shot from the key.

Ken Flaws proved to be the team's most improved player as he set a new school record for shooting free throws at 80%. Coach Larry LaFoy coached the team to a 6th place finish in the rugged South Suburban League Conference, for the third year in a row.

Determination along with many other traits were evident on the face of Denny Kladis as he tried to muscle his way through the Bloom defense.

Jumping high into the air, in order to rebound the basketball and to keep their opponents from scoring were Ken Flaws and Tom Marback.

While waiting instructions for the next attack against Thornwood, Bullpup DuWayne Clemons watched as Coach Tyler protested a ref's call.

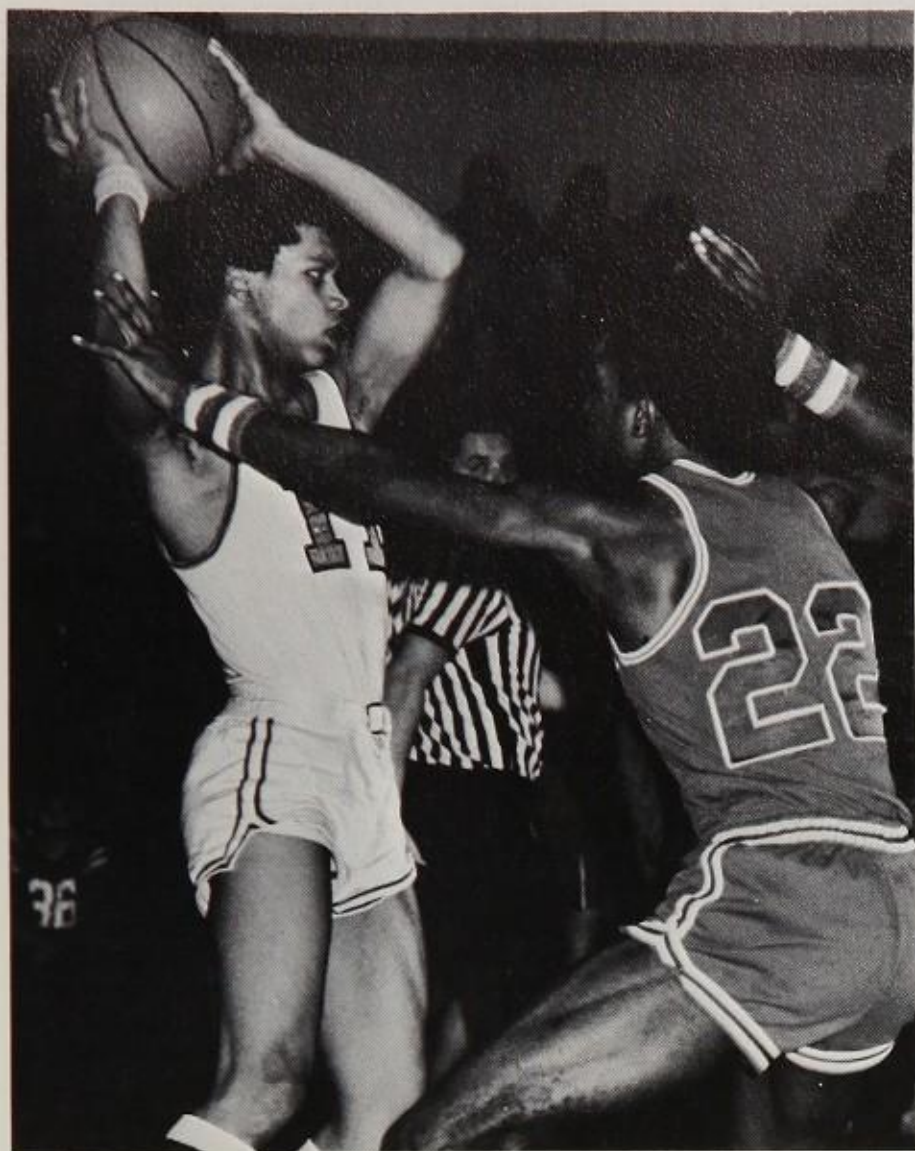

Tyler coached Sophs

to eight wins, one loss;

Chandi highest scorer

With a thundering cacaphony of compressed, enclosed air on a hard wood floor, sophomore fans cheered on their classmates. Sophomores were trained to participate in an active and competitive world of baskets, dribbles and hoops. Practicing everyday under the coaching of Mr. Walter Tyler who was also Sophomore Baseball coach, the team scored a total record of two wins and eight losses in conference. In non-conference six wins and two losses were recorded and in tournament play there were no wins and one loss. Their total record was eight wins and eleven losses. Mike Ghandi was highest scorer for the Sophomore Basketball team.

Not waiting for the referee to call an obvious foul on the Bloom defenseman, guard DuWayne Clemons looked for a teammate to pass to.

Driving around a Bloom defenseman in a one on one situation, Richards guard John Piatanesi broke past him and went in for the layup.

Speed, skill, endurance,
were necessary traits
of good basketball team

Dribbling, passing, guarding, and shooting baskets were only some of the skills learned and improved upon in Freshmen basketball. Important abilities such as endurance and speed were only achieved through constant work and dedication.

Coach Janson led the 14 players on the Northwest team to a season record of 8 wins and 9 losses. There were 13 team members from Northeast. These boys were coached by Mr. Ritchie. They finished with a season record of 9 wins and 7 losses. The long hours of hard work and practice prepared the Freshmen basketball players for a rewarding career ahead in high school competition.

Girls on the Harold L. Richard's baseball diamond? Sure enough, the fairer sex provided as much competition as their male counterparts. The only differences were the use of a twelve inch softball and red gym suits with white sneakers in place of pinstrip suits and spikes. Coaches were Carol Jankowski and Ruth O'Neil.

Allowed only two meets, the girls' track team was undefeated. Thronton Fractional North was the first opponent that the girls beat by a score of 103 to 6. Invited by Bloom to participate in the district meet, Richards girls came in an uncontested first place. The team was coached by Miss Barb Vitek from the Northeast building.

Sent two girls downstate

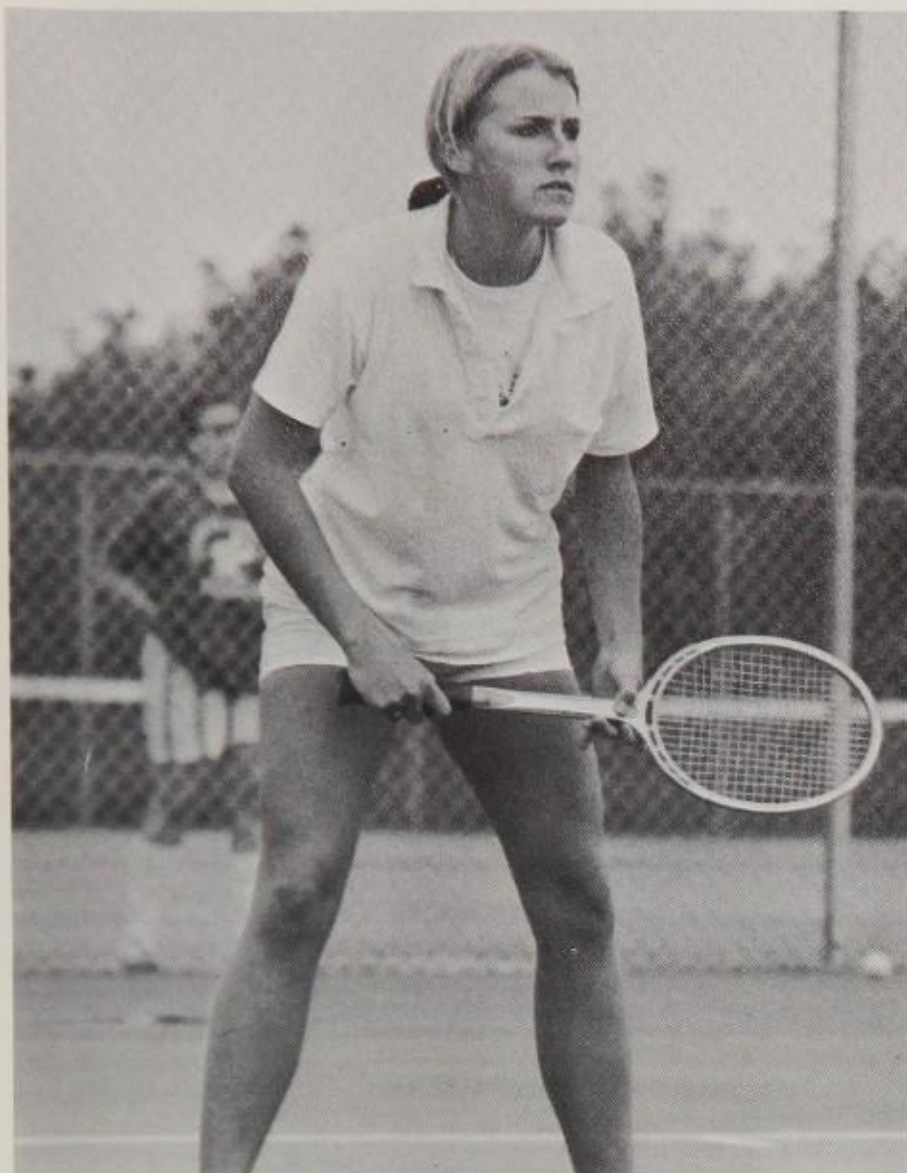

Tennis was the sport, as the girls at Richards had their first tennis team in the history of the school. A total of fifteen girls were on the team. The girls were coached by Miss Thompson, who was assisted by Darlene Kruttilla who was on the team. Captain for the '72 team was Joan Hedberg. Other teams that were in the conference were Thorntidge, Thornwood, Thornton, Bloom, Eisenhower, and Homewood-Flossmoor. Despite a 1-6 record the girls played well enough to have two girls qualify for the state finals which was held in Arlington Heights. Home matches and practices were held on the Richards tennis courts on the side of the Campus building.

At the Richards tennis courts, Joan Hedberg went through the motions of the overhand serve for a warmup before the match.

Their new uniforms were gold and white pleated skirts and matching sweaters with a Bulldog emblem on the front. The 15 Freshmen and Sophomore cheerleaders were coached by Miss Vitek. The captain was Lucy Azamar. To remain on the squad the cheerleaders had to maintain a "C" average and be ahead of the demerit system. New uniforms were also a change from last year, which were gold tunics over white turtle necks and tights underneath with gold and white saddle shoes matching the gold and white pom-poms. Officers of the Goldenaires were: Captain, Pat Lyons; Co-Captain, Tina Fontecchio; Secretary, Brenda Rodd and Treasurer, Debbie DiPietro.

Even though membership in them has decreased, and activities were curtailed, organizations still played a vital role at HLR.

ORGANIZATIONS

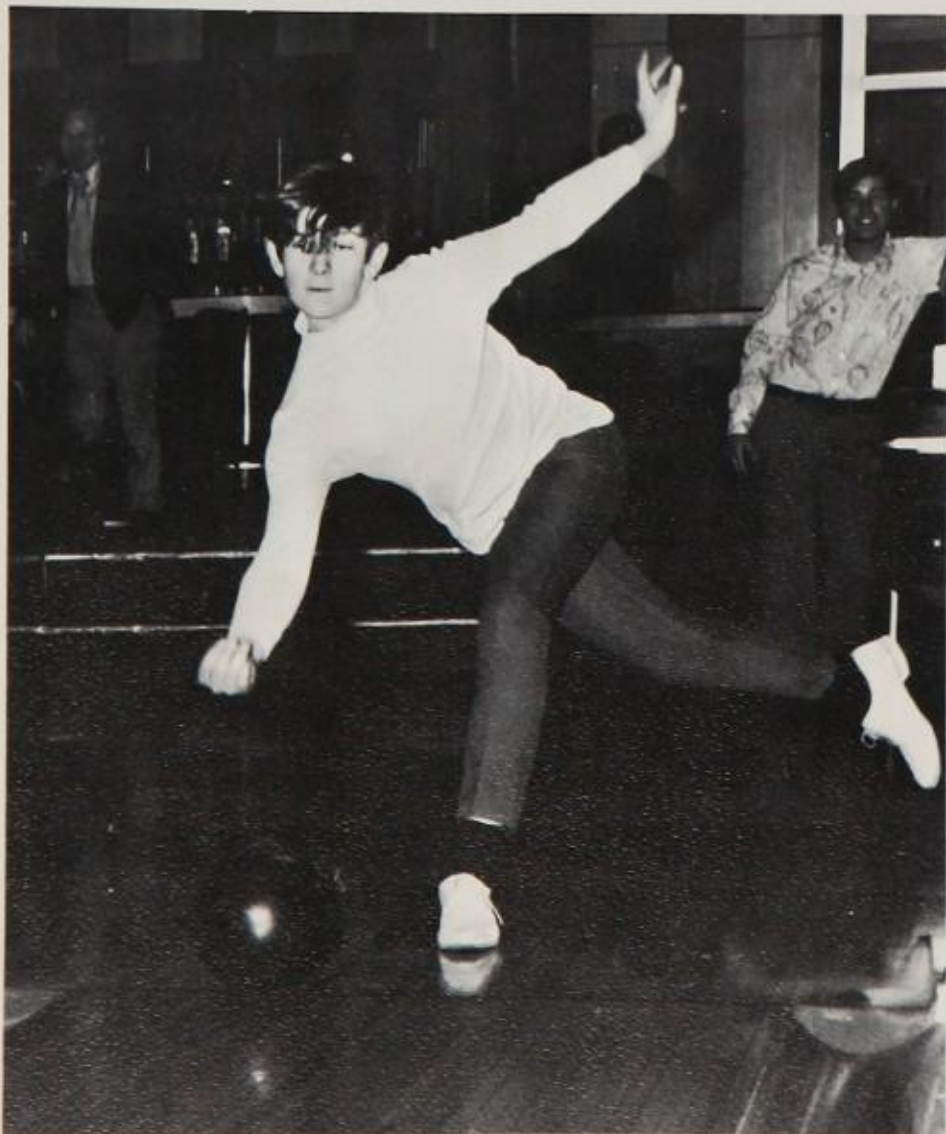

H.L.R. Bowling Teams

found new meeting place;

formed All-Star team

Three sets of bowling leagues were formed this past year, with two meeting at Arena Bowl, the newer club meeting at the Branding Iron. The separate bowling leagues at the Arena met from two to four in the afternoon, with 24 members on the boys team, 47 on the girls team. As quoted by the sponsor Mr. Perrin, "We hope that boys bowling provides an athletically competitive and socially enjoyable activity for its members." A new co-ed league was also formed which met every Monday night at the Branding Iron. From these teams an All-Star team was selected to compete against other schools during the year. The experience and knowledge gained from this sport was helpful to members of the teams.

While being watched by his fellow team-mates, Mark Graham showed his confidence in his graceful bowling ability to get strikes and spares.

Showing excellent form in hopes to make a strike with her hook shot, was Denise DiPietro making sure she didn't step over the foul line.

Anxiously watching a fellow bowler, while keeping a close watch of the score, were Denise DiPietro, Terry Skender and Barbara Beesley.

Miss Brightwell advised eleven Russian club members; held dinner

"Sdrasvitche" was a friendly and familiar greeting used by members of the Russian Club to acknowledge each other when they met. This year the group was headed by a new advisor, Miss Linda Brightwell, who also taught English along with Russian. Despite having a new sponsor, the club followed tradition in having their annual "Russian Club Dinner". The menu consisted of such palate pleasing preparations as, Beef Stroganoff, Broscht (beet soup) and many other typically Russian dishes. The dinner was prepared by the students under adult supervision. To round out the evening, live entertainment was provided by an actual Russian dance troupe.

In order to try out the recipes which included borscht and beef stroganoff several members of the club participated in a practice dinner.

Active interest in Foreign by Foreign Language clubs languages kept alive, kicking

With a diminishing interest in foreign languages, students of these languages went "all-out" to express concern and spirit. Participating in the Harold L. Richards Homecoming parade was the French clubs of NE, NW and Campus.

Miss Jeanne Goodman advised the group of French students from Campus while Mrs. Palmisiano took NW and Mrs. Sharon Wsol advised NE.

Mr. Anthony Janka still found interested Latin students to provide members for that club. Miss Ashley sponsored the Northwest German students in their club.

Spanish visited neighborhood, films; sponsored authentic Spanish dinner

Having visited a Spanish neighborhood in order to learn about the cooking, living habits and language of the people, the Spanish Club sold candles to help provide funds for the club's activities. In the Spring the aromas of Spanish rice, chicken, salad filled the halls when the Spanish club sponsored their annual dinner with authentic Spanish recipes served. Also in addition to their first Tuesday of the month meetings the Spanish Club attended movies and films that were produced in Spanish to increase accuracy in hearing and speaking. The officers were president Linda Swift, vice-president Donna, secretary Linda Anders, treasurer Sue Johnson.

Helping to make plans for the annual Spanish Club dinner, specializing in favorite Spanish dishes, was the club's advisor, Mr. Irizzary.

Officers installed in May to HLR Girl's Club at Mother-Daughter Reception

The H.L. Richards Girl's Club was an organization open to any girl who was interested in becoming a member. The club has many functions, usually which were beneficial to the Girl's Club. Their many activities included functions such as Turnabout, Father-Daughter Date Night, Christmas Dances and various other sock-hops and gym-jams. At the Mother-Daughter Reception, in May, new officers to the Girl's Club were installed. The President was Sue Guenzler; First Vice-President Jorge Quinn; Second-Vice-President, Jan Bladin; Secretary was Marsha Guenzler and the Treasurer, Mary Kerkstra. The club advisor was Miss Carol Schaal. Meetings were held once a month on Tuesday evenings.

Newly elected officers of Girl's Club were Secretary; Marsha Guenzler, President; Sue Guenzler and Second-Vice-President; Jan Bladin.

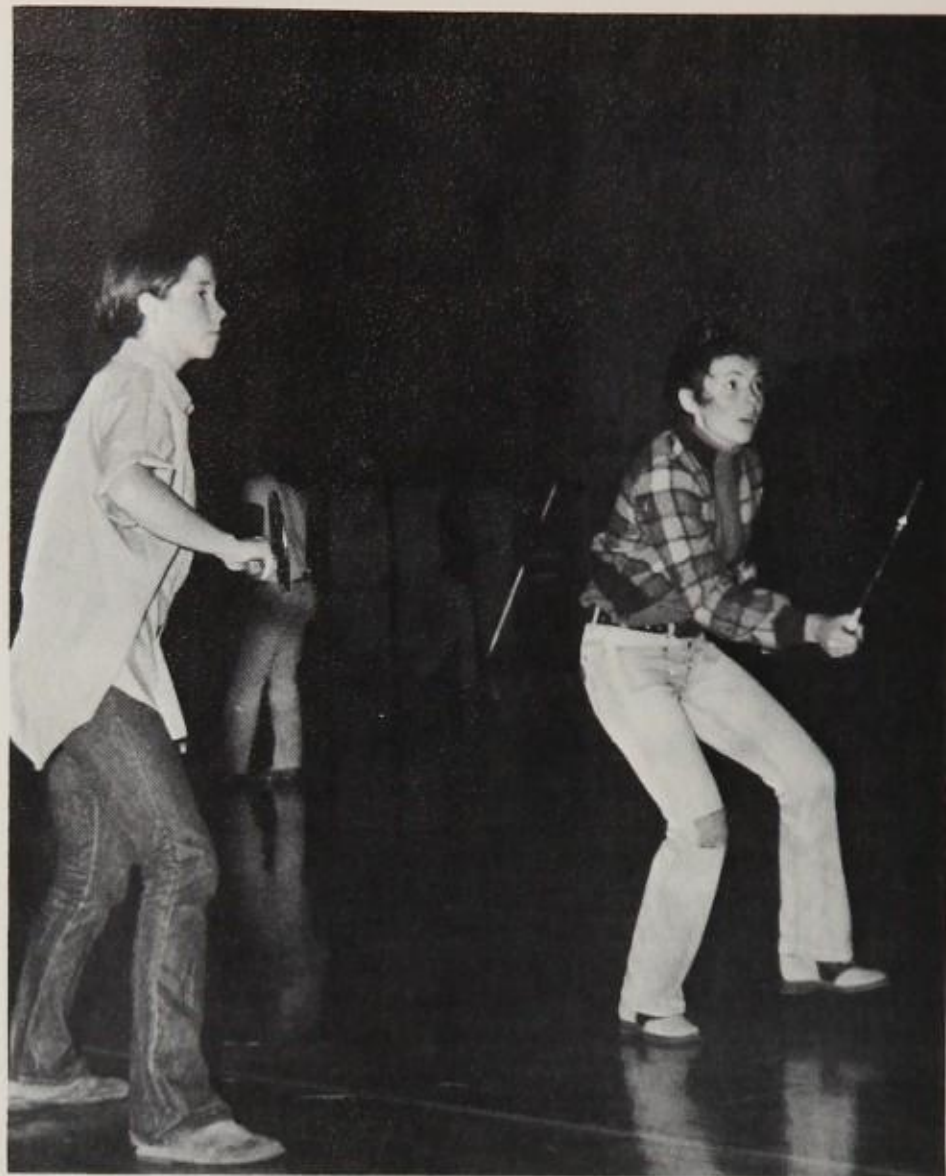

Dotted Swiss was the theme of the Mother-Daughter Reception for which a group of the members did a modern dance for entertainment.

Volleyball, gymnastics offered in Girl's Intramurals outside of gym classes

Girl's Intramurals was a club responsible for girl's interest in sports. They met on Monday's and Wednesday's every week in the Campus gym. There they worked on gymnastics, volleyball, badminton, and dancing roughly parralleling concurrent gym classes at the time. Miss Linda Ritzman advised the club and worked with the students. Volleyball-Girl's participated in Sports Days where other schools were invited to play in mini-tournaments.

Volleyball was again a popular sport for the girls at H.L. Richards. They competed against other schools in our conference just as the football and other sport teams did outside of Girl's Intramurals.

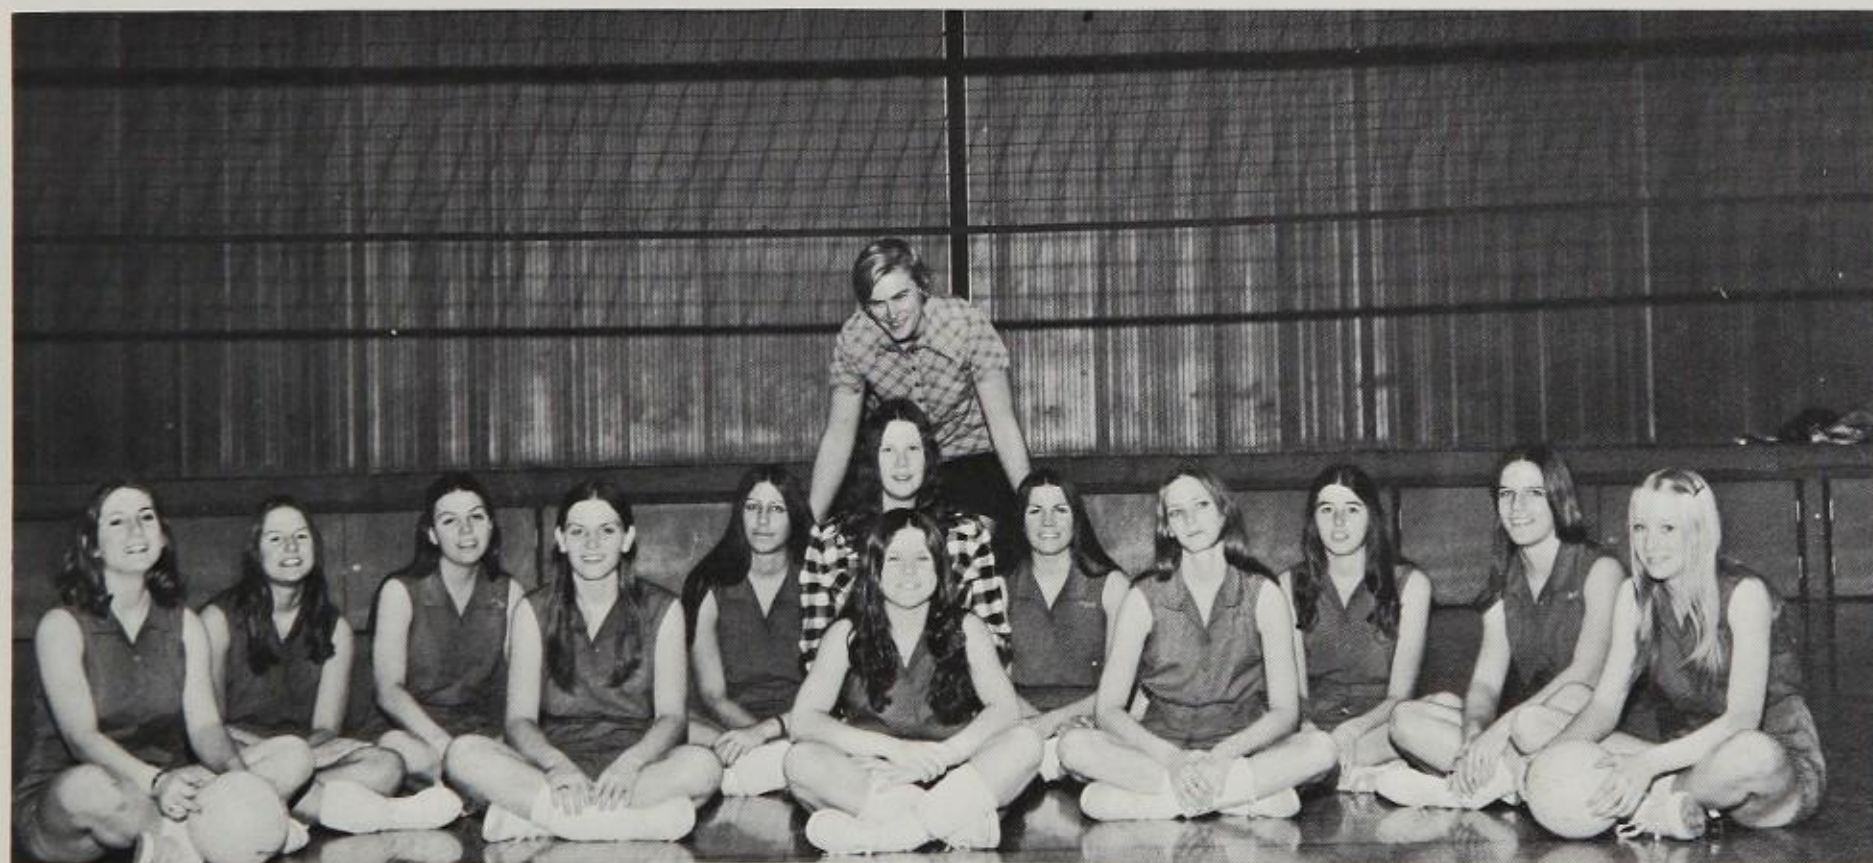

Among the many activities provided by the Girls Intermurals was a good game of Badminton, played with enthusiasm, spirit and competition.

Future Teachers aid in P.F.A. Conferences; cake, coffee were served there

Under the Direction of Campus Art teacher, Mrs. Pat Huss, The Future Teachers of America ushered for the Parent-Faculty Conference Nights. The Girls served cookies and coffee from a cart they wheeled around to the individual classrooms where the actual conferences were being held. Future Teacher members attended meetings once a month and planned their club activities. F.T.A. Officers include Terry O'Neal, Mary Christopher, Karyl Resner, Robin Peterson, and Cathy Kuhl. The Future Teachers of America also had a guest speaker come to talk to the members early in March about life with a teaching career stressing good and bad factors.

On Parent-Faculty Night, one of the student ushers helped out Mrs. Morris to locate the classroom for her next conference that night.

Changes in Golden Year

With different publisher;

New photograph studio

"A new innovative concept in yearbooks was produced by this year's staff with the symbolic cover design, symbolizing unity and harmony between the many separate factions of H. L. Richards High School," stated Mrs. Wanda Wagner, yearbook advisor.

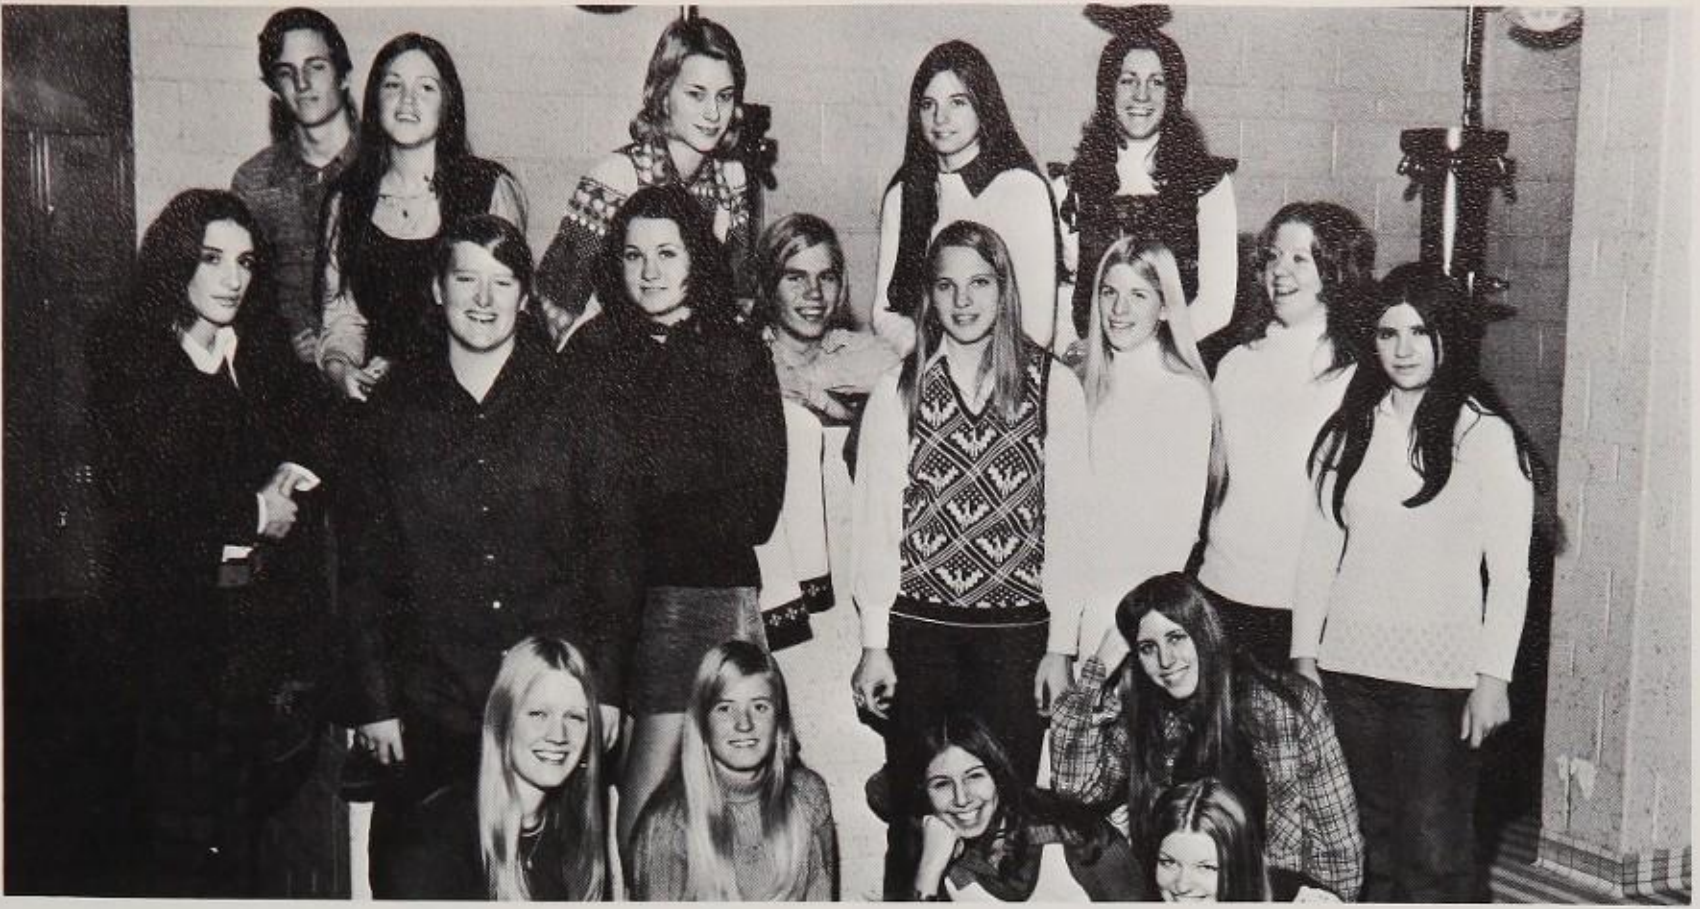

Pischel Yearbook Company and Root Studios were 2 new facets of this year's book. Candy and cookies were sold to adult evening classes to help raise funds for the yearbook. With editor, Bob Ruszel, and co-editor, Donna Williams, 3 separate classes of 62 staff members, the largest in Richards' history, coordinated their efforts to produce the 1973 Golden Year.

Contrary to the common yearbook flurry, Jan Jenrich, Nancy Ciara and Karen Wirth waited leisurely for the bell to signal the end of the period during sixth period Publication class.

Herald's newspaper staff

Kept students informed

Of many school activities

Informing the student body of what's happening in their school kept the 20 Herald staff members busy. Taking the place of Mr. Kociemba as advisor this year, was Miss Karen Ostendorf. Editors-in-Chief were Cathy Harrington and Jean Doyle. The newspaper was published bi-monthly, and sold for 10 cents or an activity ticket. Deadlines for the Herald were on Wednesdays, and the staff worked hard to get their articles in on time to be printed. The newspaper staff was responsible for taking pictures, keeping students informed of school activities, seeking out students' views and opinions, and most important, making the Richards' Herald.

by Reflections magazine

The literary magazine of HL Richards, entitled Reflections, had a new sponsor, Mrs. Mantia, a Creative Writing teacher at Campus. According to Mrs. Mantia, "The purpose of the Reflections magazine is to encourage and develop creative writing and to allow the students a vehicle for publishing their work." The editor, Carol Emmerling, headed the staff meetings which were held every second Wednesday of the month. There were approximately 35 members on the staff. December presented much work for the staff as they attended a creative writing workshop in Indiana and sponsored a cover design contest, also the completed magazine was distributed in May.

scholarship and service
accomplished NHS goals*

Throughout a student's High School years, one of the main goals that most of them worked towards to accomplish before graduation was to qualify for admittance to the school's National Honor Society. Under the advisorship of Mrs. Jeanette Ridderhoff, over 50 Juniors and Seniors were initiated at the May '73 ceremony. These students met the requirements that showed character, leadership, scholarship and service. Before the inductees were announced, the names of these students were screened by the teachers in the Richards' cluster. One of the highlights of NHS for the past year was a letter from an orphan that they have been supporting in Korea.

Leadership and Service, were few qualities possessed in Karen Rodd, when she let new members light their candles from the one she held.

'72-'73 Richards team

in October It's Academic

Working throughout the summer were a group of H.L. Richards students who were looking for a chance to appear on television. The '72-'73 It's Academic team was coached by Social Studies teachers Mrs. Audrey Collins and Miss Pat Luecke. The final team picked from a total of nine students were Captain Fred Hamel, Nick Sortoris and Judy Sparks. Coming in last against teams from Rich East and Stagge, the show was aired in October. The teams competed against each other answering questions academically geared to high school subjects. "Team members were chosen by grade point average and performance in the summer practice sessions," said Miss Luecke.

Intent on questions despite the bright lights, excited audience and hopes of friends were Richards team Nick Sortoris, Fred Hamel and Judy Sparks.

ISE planned benefit at Drury Lane to get funds for club

International Student Exchange offered the opportunity to see Van Johnson at Drury Lane in a benefit night of a play and dinner. The club sponsored the evening out to raise money for their club.

In late March the club members hosted a Foreign Student weekend being responsible for some 23 students who were from such countries as Spain, France, Switzerland and Sweden. The advisor, Miss Patricia Lueke, arranged lunch and recreation which included Richards school activities such as a gym jam. ISE also provides information for our students going abroad.

Dedicated Leo members

learned to help others,

found it was worthwhile

Helping others was the main purpose of Leo Club, and this year 40 members dedicated their time and service for many different activities. Among these were "Candy Day", selling fruitcakes, making braille pictures and taping books for the blind, and much more. The HLR Leo Club was the first organized in the state of Illinois, founded under Mr. Pearson. Mrs. Ridderhoff also was a sponsor for the club. Leo was a part of Lion's Club, which also sponsored special activities. The Leo Club met the second Wednesday of every month at 6 o'clock. The officers were Pat Nawrocki, the president, Joyce Bensema, the vice-president, and Nick Sortoris.

Taping textbooks for the blind as a voluntary service in connection with Richards Leo club were students Karen Wirth and Ken Hawley.

double teams to competition

"The main purpose of the speech team was to participate in interscholastic speech competition during the season running from late October until the end of February." With 120 to 130 members participating in the 11 categories during the competition the club grew to its largest number of members. The Northwest building provided a greater representation and also drew members from Forensics classes. The club has sent double teams to several tournaments, including two overnights to Bloomington and Richwoods in Peoria. Some of the categories that members worked at were humorous interpretation, serious interpretation, prose reading, verse reading and duet acting.

Conversing and acting out his comedy skit was Senior John Cox and the many laughing members of the Speech Club who listened in it.

carnival, Spirit week

Thanks to the leadership abilities of the members of our school's student council, they were able to successfully complete a number of projects that were very beneficial to the student body. Sponsored and advised by Mr. Todd Shaefer, the council consisted of approximately one hundred and ten members. President, Bill Savage; vice-president, Roseann Ross; and the recording secretary was Sandy Siepak. Among the activities sponsored by the council were sock-hops, the spring carnival, and the annual Homecoming dance. Their meetings were held every Monday night in their respective buildings and the cluster council meetings were held at Campus once a month.

Conducting the weekly Campus II Student Council meetings was Pres. Bill Savage who with his qualities of leadership accepted the responsibilities.

*Band marched in Homecoming parade, added
music to school spirit*

During seventh period the halls of the Harold L. Richard Campus building resounded with the blaring of brass, the soul-stirring sound of an occasional march or two, and once in awhile a loud clunker hit by some erstwhile Harry James. Under the direction of Meyer Channon the Richards band performed at school function: appearing at half-time during the football games and marching in the Homecoming Parade for the first time. They appeared at spirit rallies playing "their little hearts out" to provide musical background for student activities. Officers include Terry O'Meal, Jerry Witkowski and Marcia Miller. Concert Band Members total 107, under double direction of Conlee-Plug

Once again the Northeast and Northwest Concert Bands at Richards participated in many school activities throughout the 1972-1973 school year. Participation ranged from their appearance at school assemblies to the voluntary attendance in the Campus Marching Band that played for all of the home football Varsity games, the Columbus Day Parade in Chicago and others. Under the direction of Mr. Leon Plug, over 30 brass instruments contributed to the Northeast Concert Band and under the direction of Mr. James Conlee, over 20 brass instruments made up the Northwest Concert Band. This year there was a new area Chairman for music, Mr. William Gabbert.

Being the second graduating class in H.L. Richards history to have worked under split shifts, they had more opportunities to achieve the goals that they valued. One year gave them the chance to get accustomed to the split schedule, which in turn prepared them for graduation.

SENIORS

It is difficult to say what is impossible for the dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow.

Robert E. Goddard Senior Motto, '72-'73

Graduating means to me that I've finally made it after four long years when I felt like giving up a million times. I also feel that for the first time I am really on my own and don't really know if I like it or not. But in all graduating means that I've achieved what some kids couldn't, that I tried and made it, not always with flying colors but I at least crossed the line. - Janet Jenrich.

Graduation is a passing of four years of getting ready, not contemplating the past, but looking on to the future to the beginning of a new life. - Lynn Janicki.

It's a long awaited experience. - Kris Lythberg.

One more step taken on a long, long road. - Sue Bain.

I feel both sad and happy about it. I am going to miss all the fun times. I feel very good though because I feel as if I accomplished something. - Terri O'Neal.

W.E.O.!!! - Nick Sotiros.

Graduation represents looking forward to college, a job or marriage, getting ready to live your life to the fullest. Four years of high school was educational and fun, but now is the time to look towards the future for better opportunities and education. Graduation represents the ending of a very important part of my life for my future and my goals. - Linda Anders

It's the best thing that happened in the last twelve years. - Ray Abplanalp.

We leave behind years of fun but look forward with anxiety to new opportunities as each year gets better. - Robin Mohr.

It couldn't hurt! - Jeff Malone.

It's great! If I pass. - Anna Peterson.

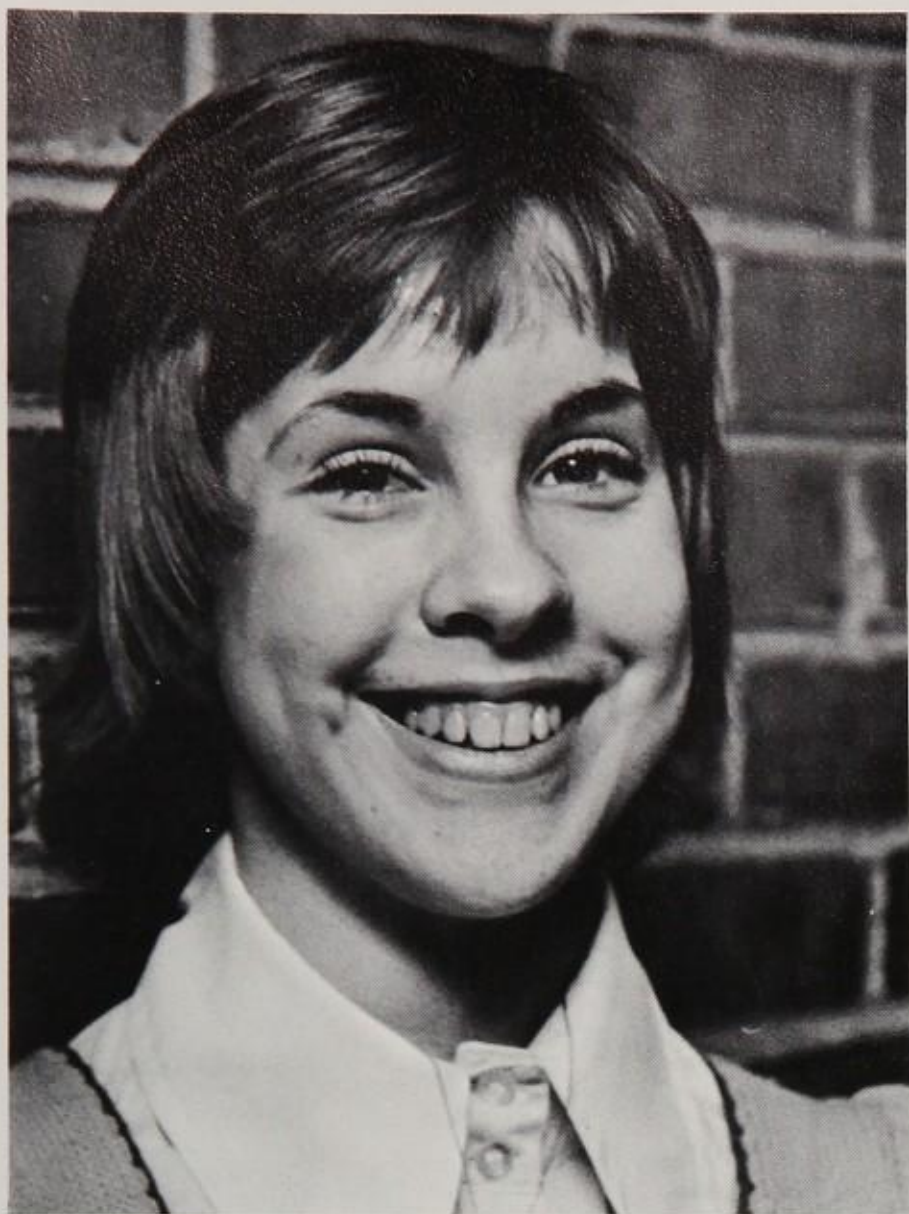

I was very anxious to graduate so that I could live my own life and continue to learn when I go away to college. It will be an unhappy time though, because I probably won't see any of the acquaintances I have made in high school. - Pat Nawrocki.

It's wonderful! - Lois Romano.

Some students think graduation is just like any other day of their life - they could care less, but to me and I'm sure others, we begin to realize how valuable education is both for our independence and future desires. The four years that I've spent at Richards have been memorable and now that graduation is here, I have found that my Senior year has been the best year of my life. - Donna Williams.

I can't wait! - Bob Parke.

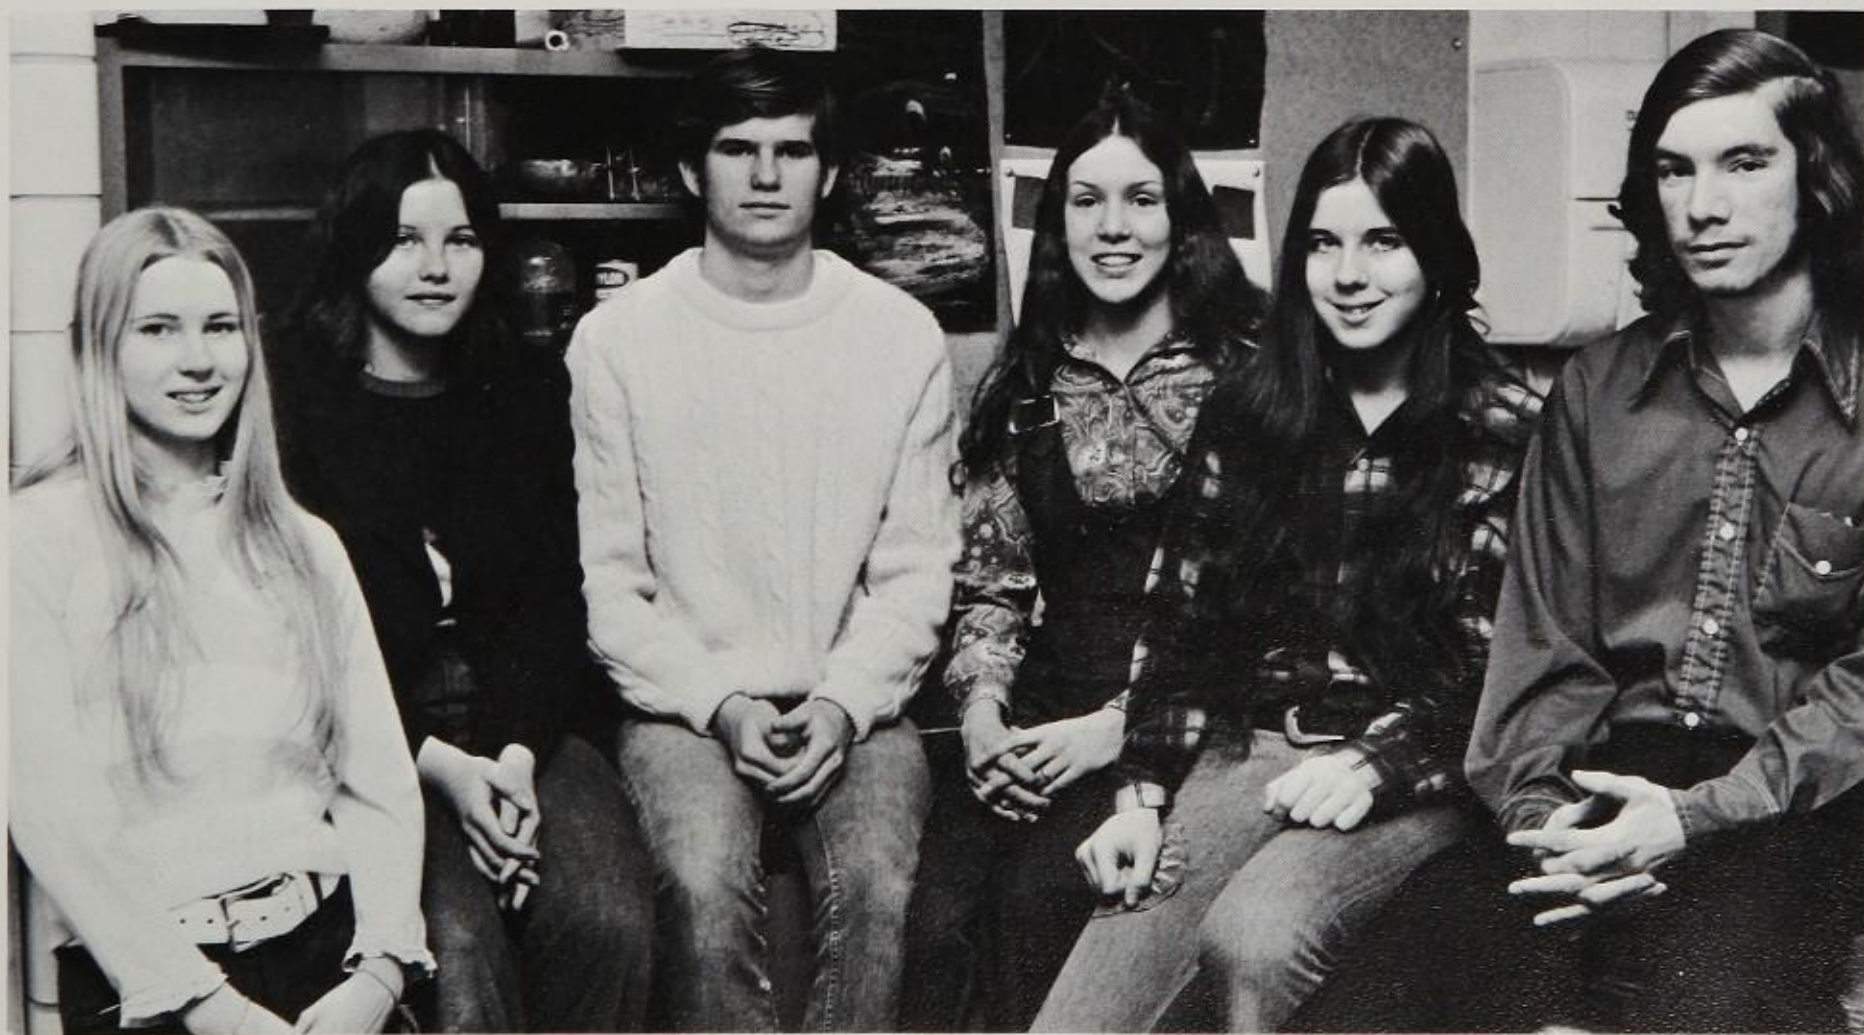

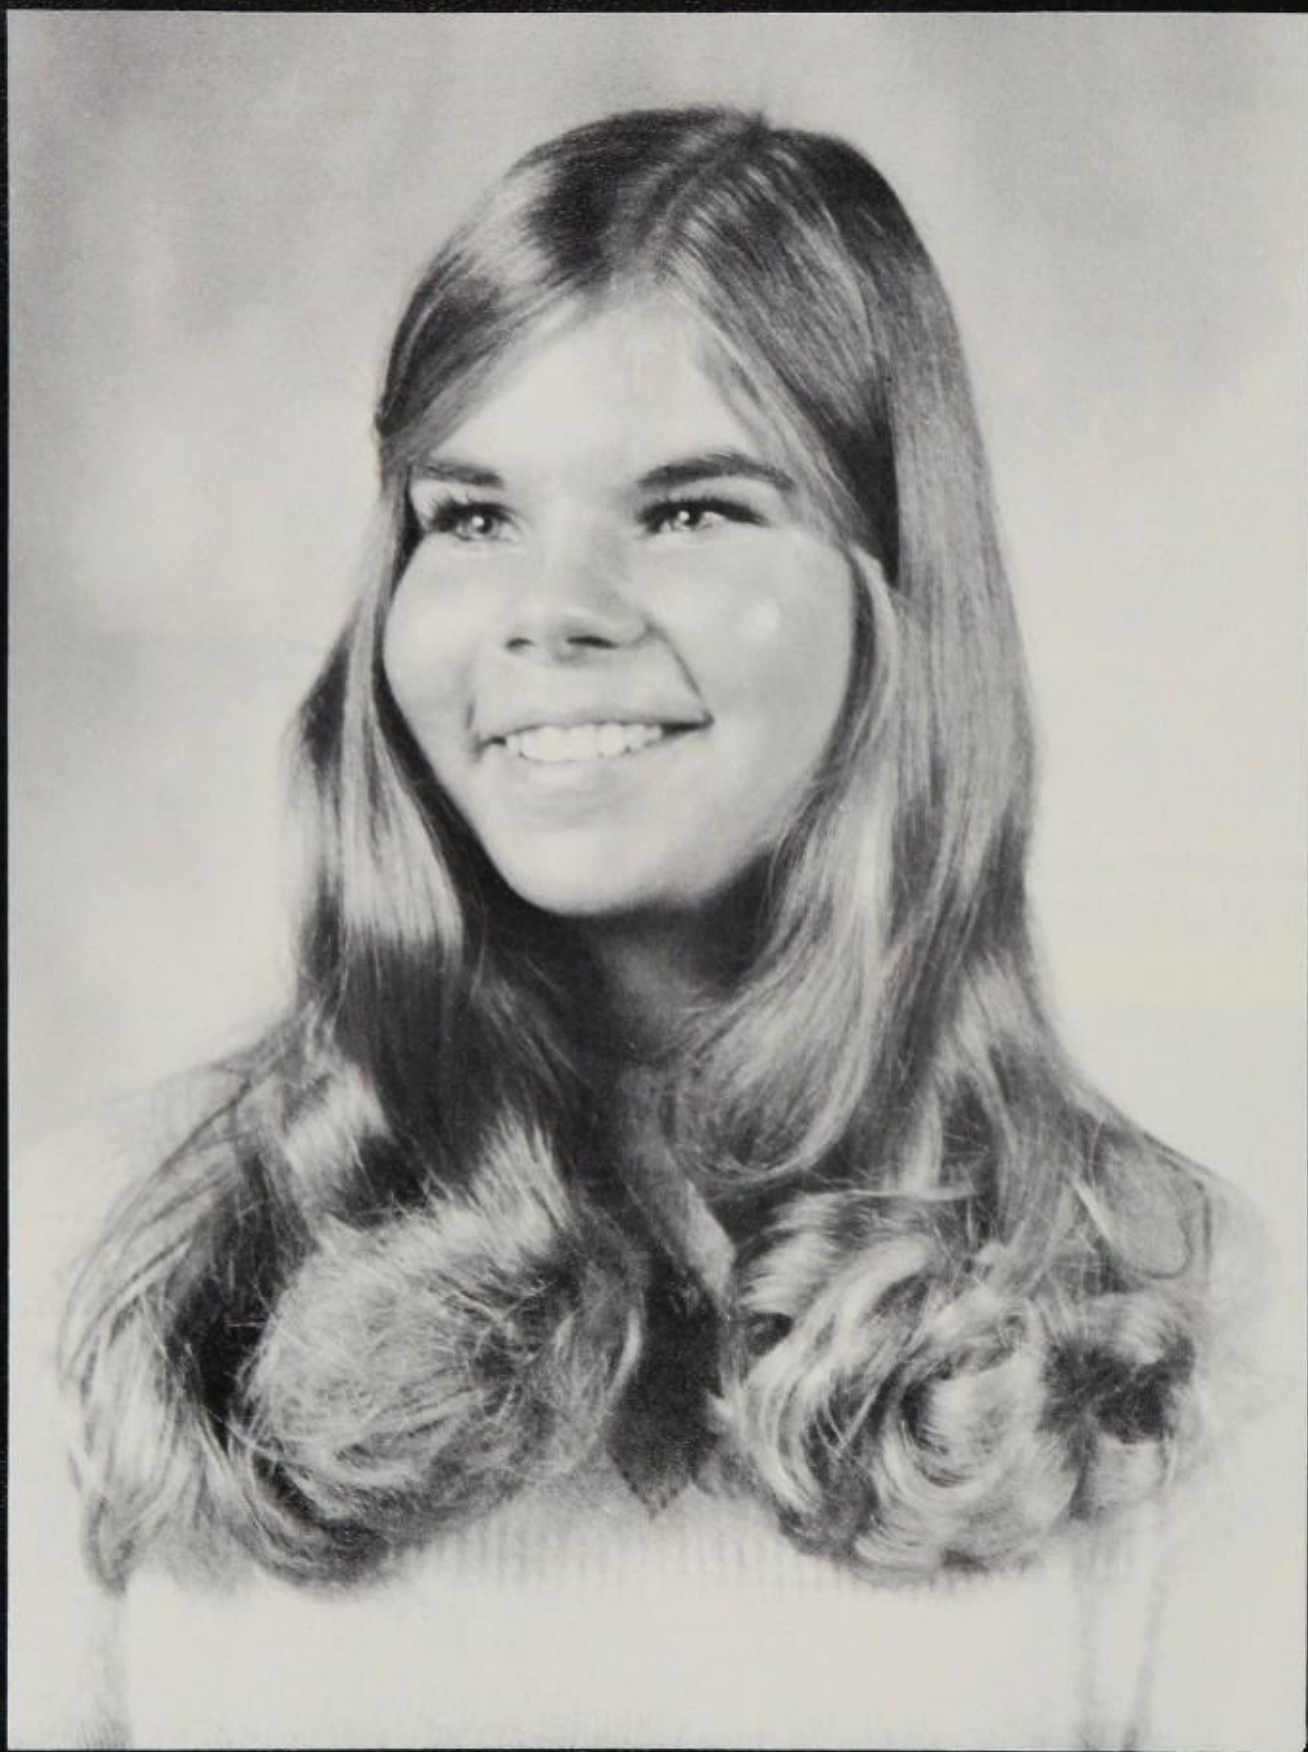

Leadership, courage, and love for country were only some of the many qualifications required of Sue Guenzler to win the D.A.R. award.

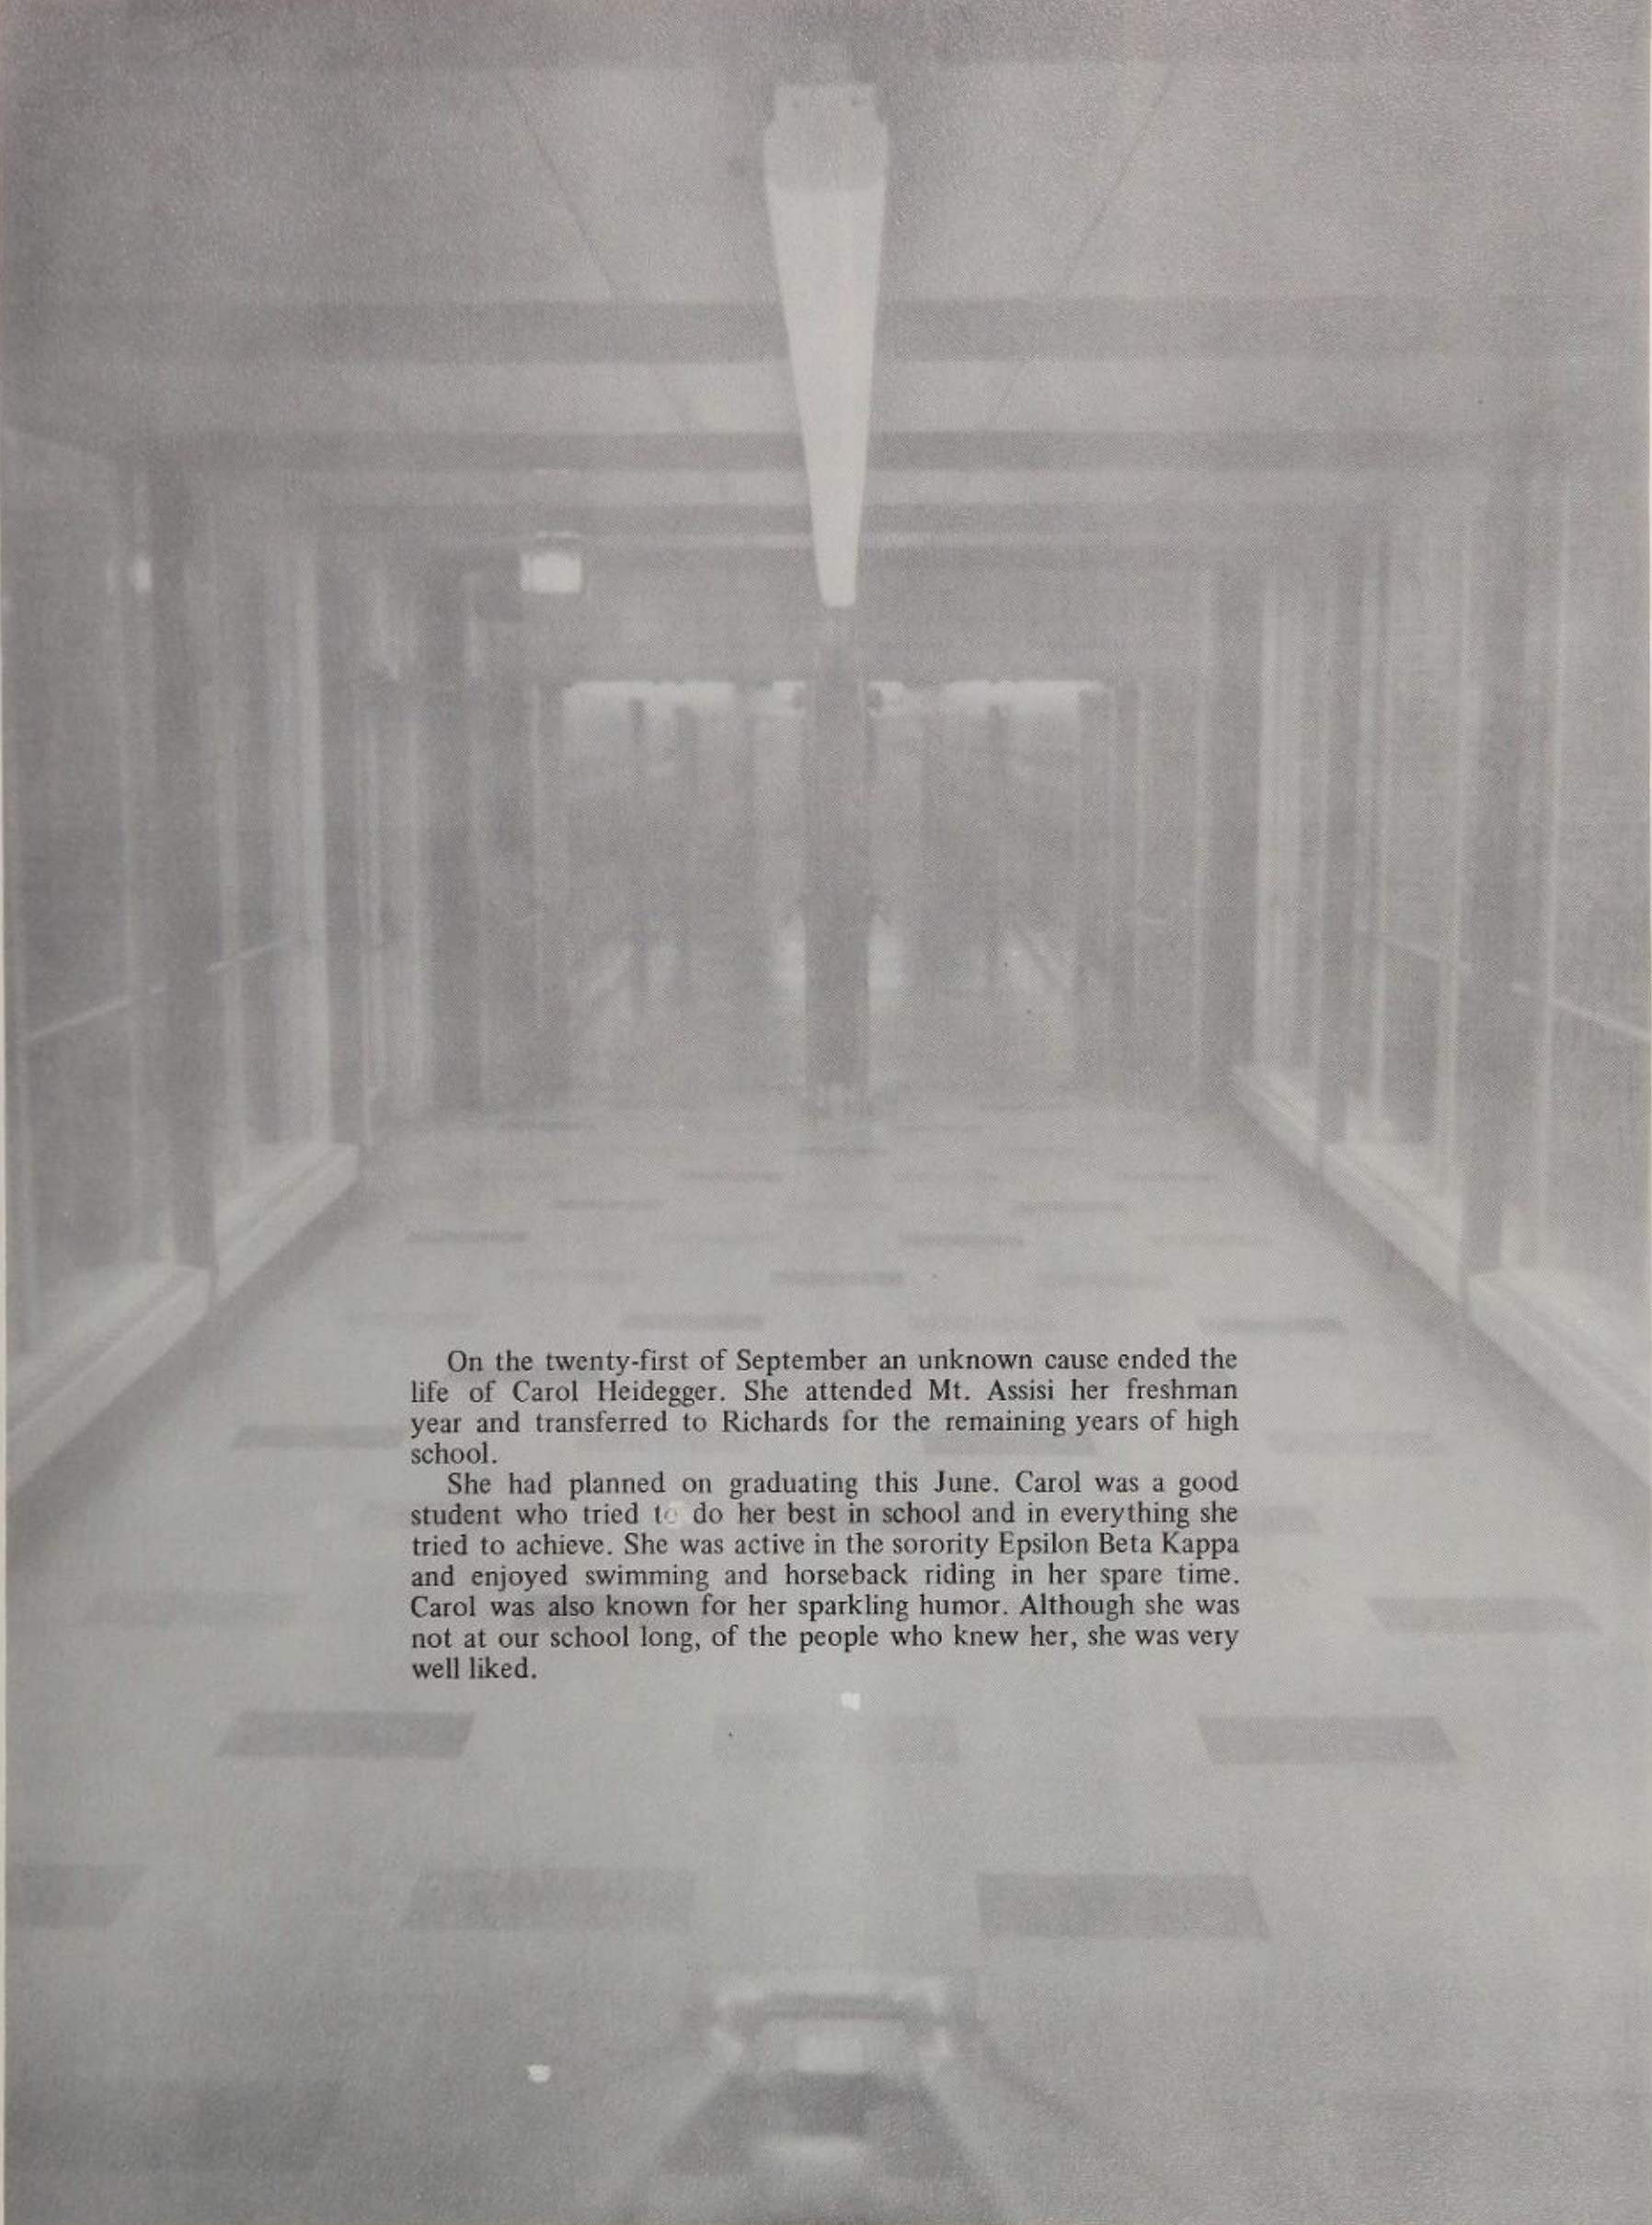

Outstanding qualities such as integrity, leadership, and ingenuity were some of the many Ray Ulriech displayed to win the S.A.R. award.

On the twenty-first of September an unknown cause ended the life of Carol Heidegger. She attended Mt. Assisi her freshman year and transferred to Richards for the remaining years of high school.

She had planned on graduating this June. Carol was a good student who tried to do her best in school and in everything she tried to achieve. She was active in the sorority Epsilon Beta Kappa and enjoyed swimming and horseback riding in her spare time. Carol was also known for her sparkling humor. Although she was not at our school long, of the people who knew her, she was very well liked.

As you look into the classes of the future, it is soon realized that the split shift will last at least five more years, with hopes for a new building.

There is a possibility that the problems now faced will be ironed by then, but the tasks and challenges the underclassmen face are monumental.

'Daddy for President' offered proud time

Pigtails, and stuffed animals played a major role in the skit Karen Alford, Pat Kerkstra, Denise Garner and Sue Doody did for Dads.

Voters passed building referendum on Dec. 9;
218 to move to new system

On Saturday, December 9, a decision was made by the voters of District 218 to enlarge the present campus of Richards' three buildings. The referendum that passed provided for improvements at the Eisenhower school also. A new building was approved to be built at 131st and Ridgeland, tentatively planned as a Freshmen building, thus making the district go to a 1-3 system. Among the improvements were plans for a swimming pool, enlargements in the Physical Education facilities, addition of classroom space that would be completed for the projected date of September '75. The success of the bond referendum was the answer to overcrowding and the threat of triple shifts.

Mr. George W. Strein - Director of Human Relations

Mr. George Kimbell - Director of Adult Education

Mr. Charles Coker - Director of Business Affairs

*Directors took on mighty task of running school;
planning for new additions*

Responsibility for one school was a vast and heavy load for any group of men and women to carry. District 218's directors had the task of organizing, providing and directing two schools, huge complexes, each with their own unique requirements.

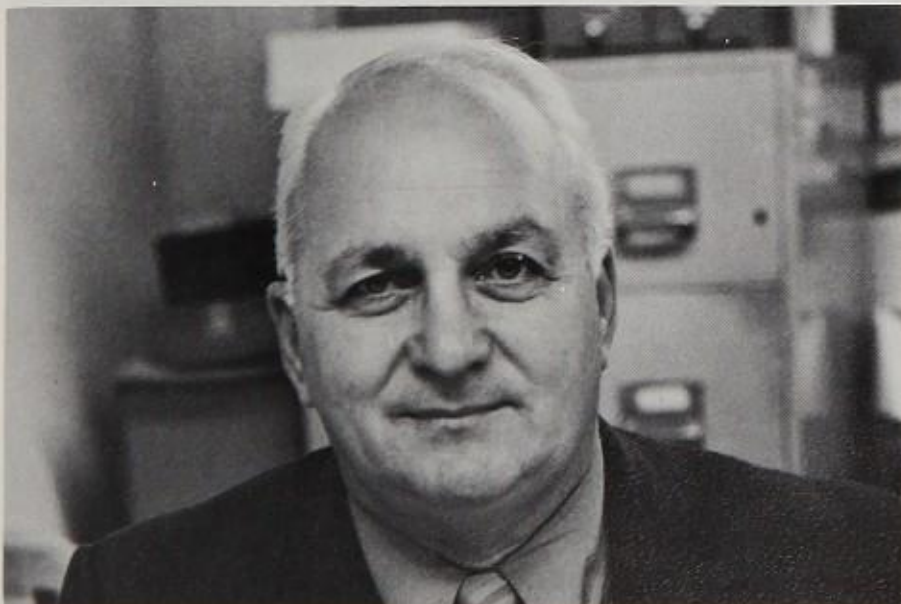

Occupied with the desire to relieve the overcrowded conditions in 218 the directors worked to pass the referendum. Once successful, they occupied themselves with planning the new additions for the various buildings and naming and procuring necessities for the new building besides approving new curriculums and re-writing old ones. All this in a small building on 115th street.

*Area Chairmen begin new policy of combined depts.
of Richards, Eisenhower*

The new operation of departments went into effect in District 218. Departments were combined from Richards and Eisenhower into one department under the chairmanship of a single person. The department chairmen were chosen from a number of applicants from the district and from outside the district. The new chairmen were responsible for evaluating the performance and effectiveness of their departments, meeting with the teachers to discuss new techniques, matching the teacher with the courses, evaluating, organizing and sometimes trouble-shooting. Their offices were located in the Administration Center.

Campus II now Richards

Campus: door installation

alarms; ATC building opened

Campus II became Richards Campus on all the interdepartmental mail and principal Mr. Lloyd Lowe saw the installation of new fire doors and other building improvements done over the summer. Plans for the alarm system and hall cameras also reached completion. Mr. Roger James moved into a new office while Mr. William Bosnak waged a relentless campaign for law and order. Mr. Ernest Johnson coped with a new pre-occupation - self-registration.

Mr. Arthur J. Stejskal became principal at the newly opened Area Technical Center organizing and working with three schools that sent students.

The terrifying new world of high school to an entering Freshman might be an exciting experience or just the opposite but needless to say most survive and in Sophomore year prepare to go on to another building and new responsibilities.

Greeting the students at the Northeast building was principal Mr. Gene Bell, Mr. Glenn Ambler, Assistant Principal, and Mr. Wayne Raybold, Dean of Students. Performing the same services for their students at the Northwest Building was Mr. William Mutz, Principal, Mr. Forrest Boyer, Assistant Principal, and Mr. Jerry Roach, Dean of Students.

Shades of Flash Gordon! Is it an attack by the clay people? Only Mrs. Huss's art class putting their heads together during a plaster casting unit.

Through careful methods of shaping and molding, Northwest art students prepared their ceramic molds for baking, and then added that final touch.

Sitting busily making different molds are Northwest art students as they learned all the different procedures of making different structures.

Field trips, sketching, Morton

Arboretum, visiting art shows

showcased Art students work

Art classes showed creativity and talent learning new techniques and methods through the various elements which resulted in different compositions of clay, still life sketching, printing, 3-D forms painting with oils and water colors and copper enameling. Art students also expanded their imaginative horizons by going to various centers on field trips. An art showing at Wielboldts in Oak Park offered the opportunity to view displayed work of fellow students. They also visited the Morton Arboretum to sketch the scenery and visited the largest Art Show in the United States at McCormick Place after visiting the Art Institute. A comprehensive program was offered to underclass as well as upper class students in their respective buildings.

Using their creative ability, each student in the Northwest art class worked carefully on a project assigned to the class by their teacher.

Art student at Northwest found out that a little glue along with some talent could create many pieces of art as demonstrated by the class.

Business class increase

School work plus job

More courses offered

To prepare students to enter the world of business was the main objective of the Business Department at H. L. Richards High School. Through courses such as Bookkeeping, Steno, Retail Selling and with the help of qualified teachers the goal was made possible to be achieved. Added to the curriculum were Distributive Education, Office Occupation, Distributive Occupations and Co-operative Work Training, which were classified as "extra curricular" courses in the past. The Business Department was headed by Mr. Richard Gerber and the students were graded by their supervisors for quality and ability on the job as well as school work.

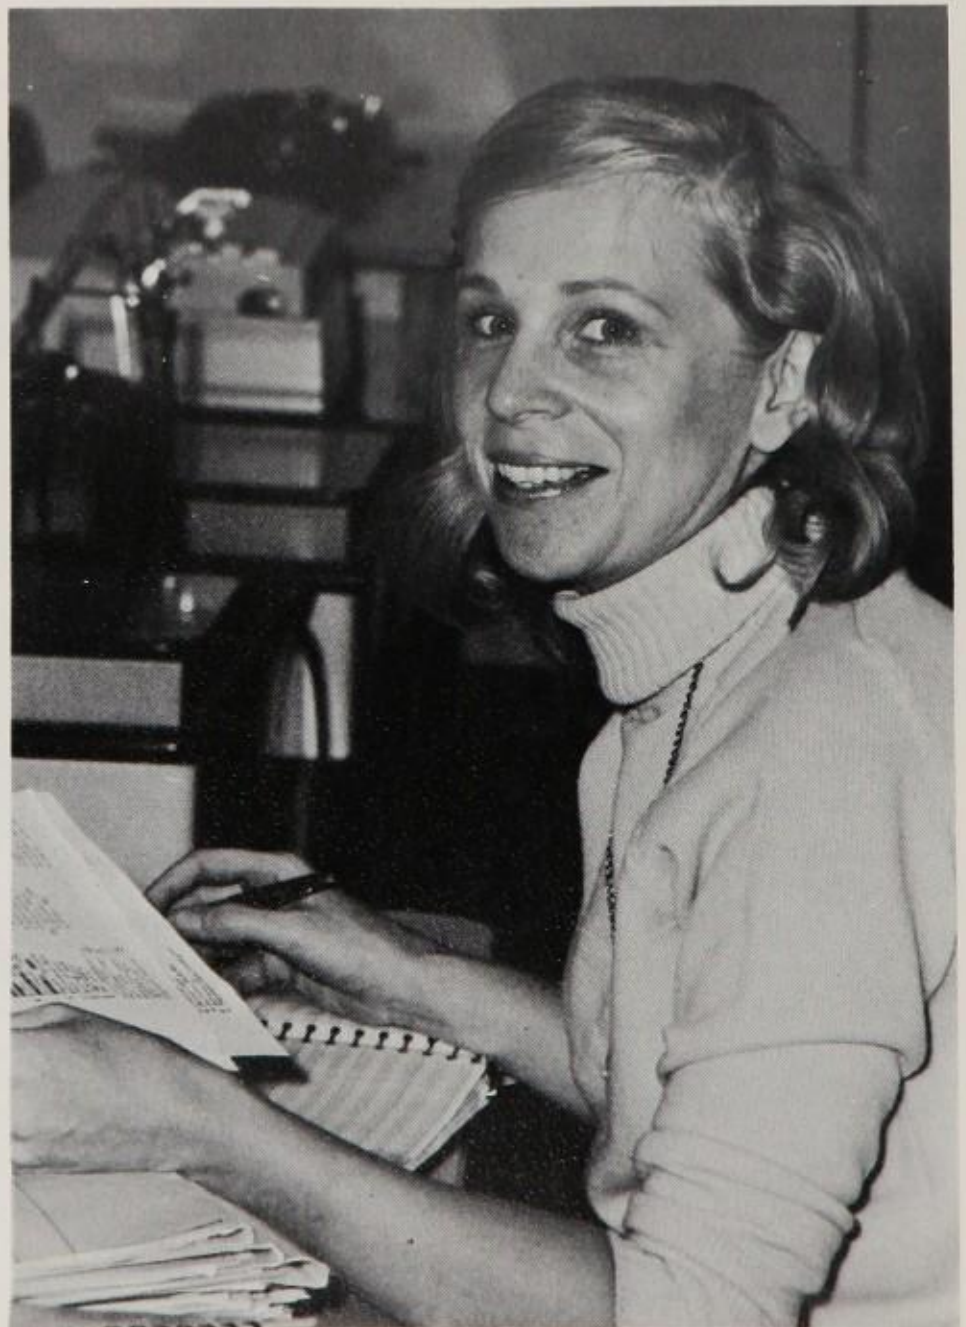

Striving to keep their eyes on the books, these Northwest typing I students demonstrated their skills while taking three-minute timings.

Waiting for the last few seconds to pass was Mr. Rekruciak as he prepared to terminate the time writing and gave his typing students a rest.

Like most teachers, Miss Duer took time to correct and record typing papers from her office practice classes during her few free periods.

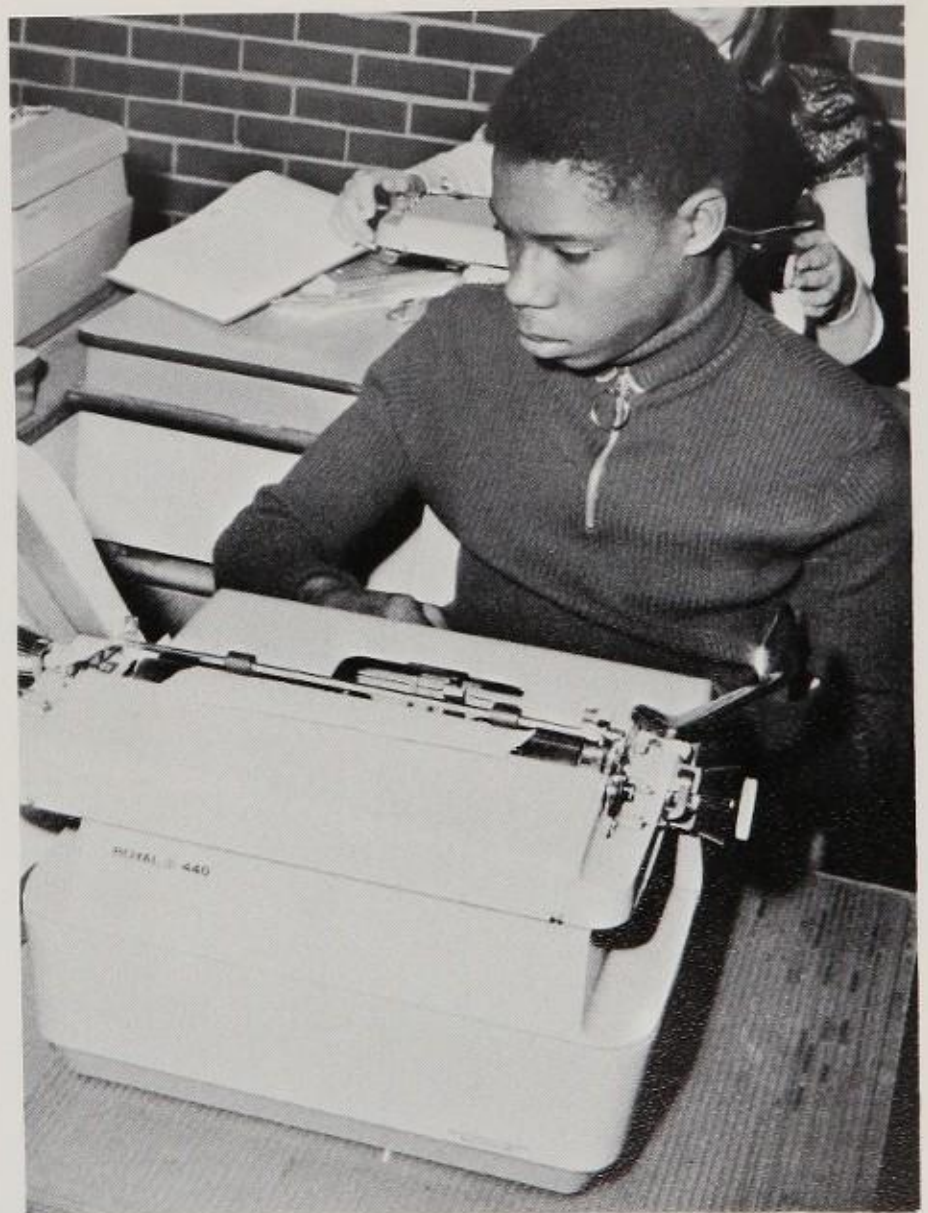

With a big smile for the camera, Mr. Soverin, a student teacher for Mr. LaFoy, assisted Diane Barber with her bookkeeping assignments.

Getting ready for the world of business, Miss Moore showed this student the different functions and various uses of business machines.

Daily typing exercises provided many students to gradually build speed and accuracy skills at the Northwest Freshmen-Sophomore building.

Discussing problems, vocational aspirations, and giving out advice were some of the daily encounters met by Counselor John Rachford.

A.C.T. test information given by counselors at Campus II building

Many students seeking help in finding what college to go to or what subjects they should take next year came to their counselors for advice. There were counselors at each separate building trying to help as many students as possible in registering for their classes next year, or for the Seniors next semester. The students were divided up alphabetically according to their last name as to which counselor they were assigned to. Each building had a counseling secretary so the students could make appointments at any time they had a free period to see their counselor. If your counselor wasn't available at the time of need there was always one on hand.

Listening and handing out advice were some of the ways Counselor Rich Shewmaker communicated and became involved with students.

Communicating by phone to various colleges made Mr. Lotito's job of counseling a little easier and quicker than just writing letters to them.

Taking a short break from her work, Mrs. Derks, one of the four counselors at Campus paused and discusses self scheduling.

Preparing and writing recommendations for college bound students was only a small part of Miss Lau's duties in the counseling department.

Using a Dictaphone and other machines needed in her secretarial job was Kathy Twoney showing that hard work can pay off well.

Budzik, Gross headed

Distributive Education,

Occupations; inspected progress

Distributive Work Programs placed students in various shops, supermarkets and stores in the District 218 area. Headed by Mrs. Kathy Budzik the program officially entitled Distributive Education met at the school buildings during the day with the students working during the afternoon and then being supervised by visits from Mrs. Budzik who received reports on their progress from employers.

Mr. Weldon Gross was the official teacher for a similar program entitled Distributive Occupations. He also made inspection calls to find out how his students were working out in actual employment situations.

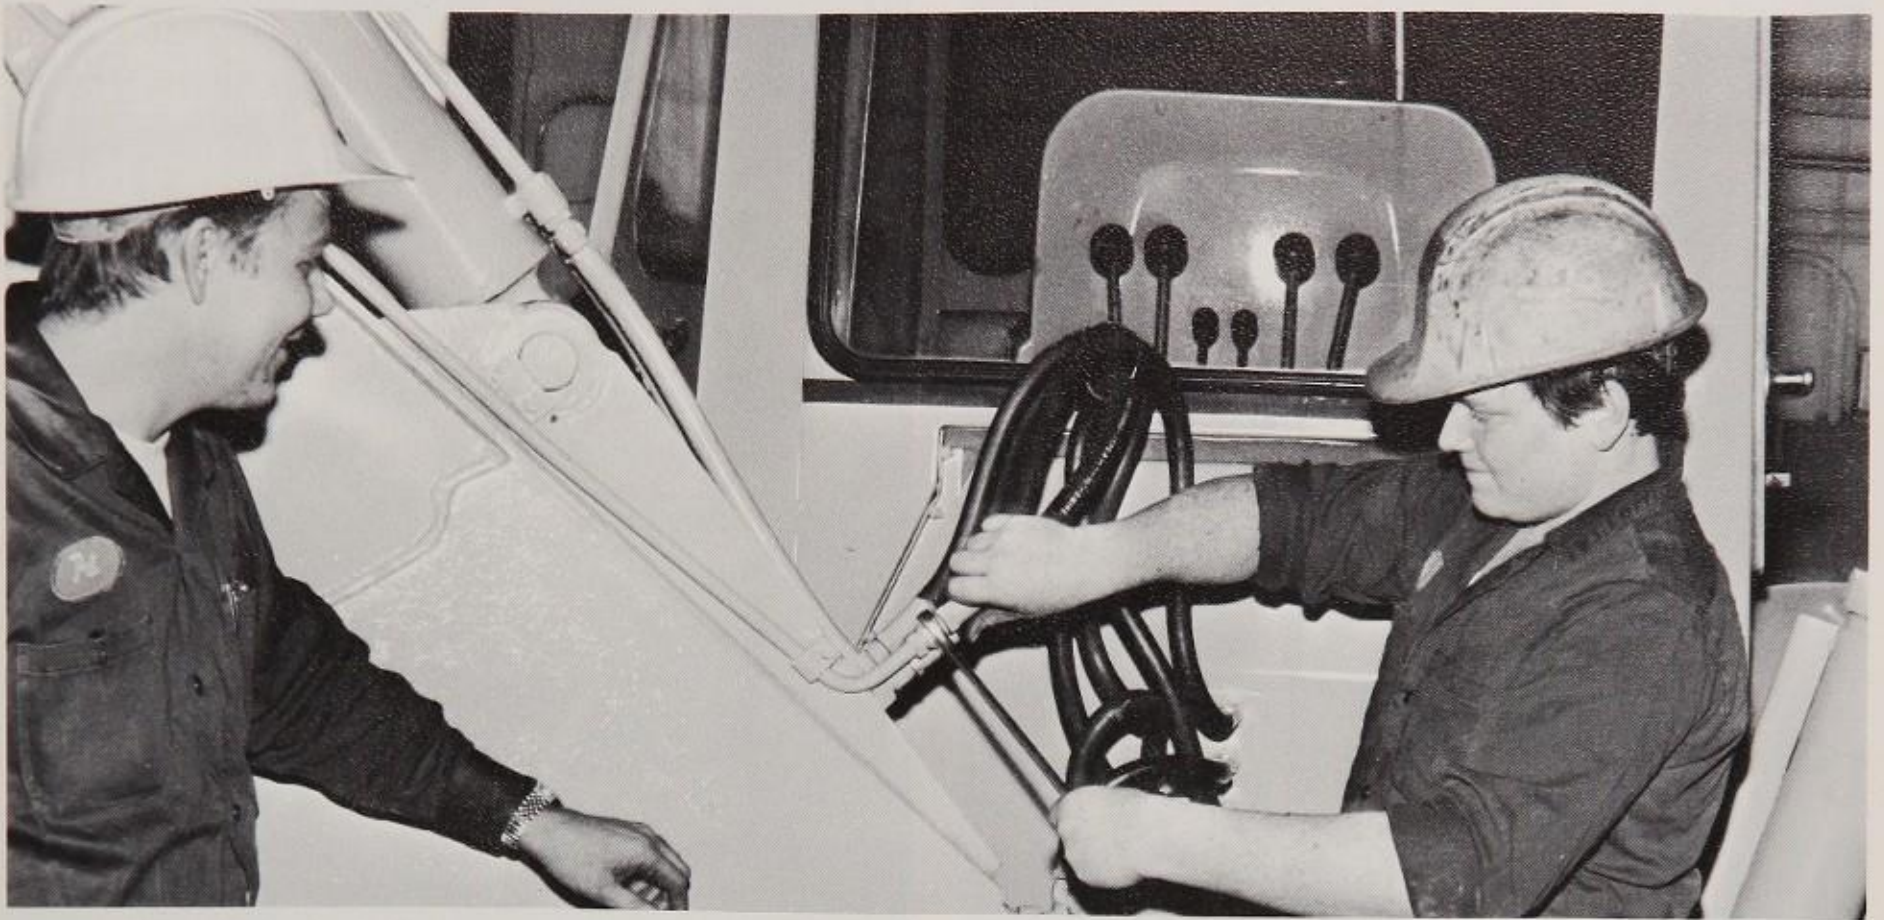

D.E. provided Diana Gorenz with this job as a check out girl showing her that giving change took brains but also skill, so as not to make a mistake.

Steady hands with a close eye on what he was doing showed that Tom Earley had the skill needed for producing fine work in his D.E. class.

Making a preliminary safety inspection on machinery at McAllister Equipment was one of the jobs Ron Amos was qualified for at work.

Distributive Education provided Patrick Cahill a job at All Steel Industrial Metal Company which taught him such things as proper welding.

Shoeing essential parts to a power drill was Mr. Wessel as employee Richard Saindon observed to help improve work at the Alsip Hardware.

Passing the time of day and earning her keep was Cathy Dehaan as she cheerfully waited on a friendly patron in the "Just Pants" store.

Keeping busy in an automotive storeroom was Dan Bila as he took inventory under the careful supervision of the Department manager.

Wrapping fruits and vegetables was one of the many tasks that Bob Koontz did while he was employed through the CWT Program.

Answering an order by telephone was illustrated by Chris Maxwell as one of her many services that she performed at Snack Shack.

Attended school mornings working afternoon part-time life of CWT,OO students

Two work programs were in full swing this year with the success of Co-operative Work Training and Office Education Association. Mr. McAteer, the advisor of the C.W.T., stated that the program was "to allow those students the opportunity to gain the necessary occupational skills, they will need when they complete their formal education." President Craig Kolen and Vice-President Leroy Larsen were head of the C.W.T. program of 44 people. In the O.O. program in which Miss VanLeuween was the advisor, the girls worked in a variety of lessons to prepare them for the business world. In both programs the students went to school part of the day and then went to jobs, helping them get ready for the future.

Adding up figures was quite a task, but using a calculator makes it much easier for Nancy De Boer as she totals for the current company.

Office Occupations student, Sue Senne, listened carefully to instructions from her boss, Mr. Hoffman, at the computer section at the ATC.

Answering the telephone at the Pat Hayden Realty was Senior Laurel Racey, who was a member of the Office Occupations Program.

Rapid Reading course

initiated in English Dept.;

efficient communication goal

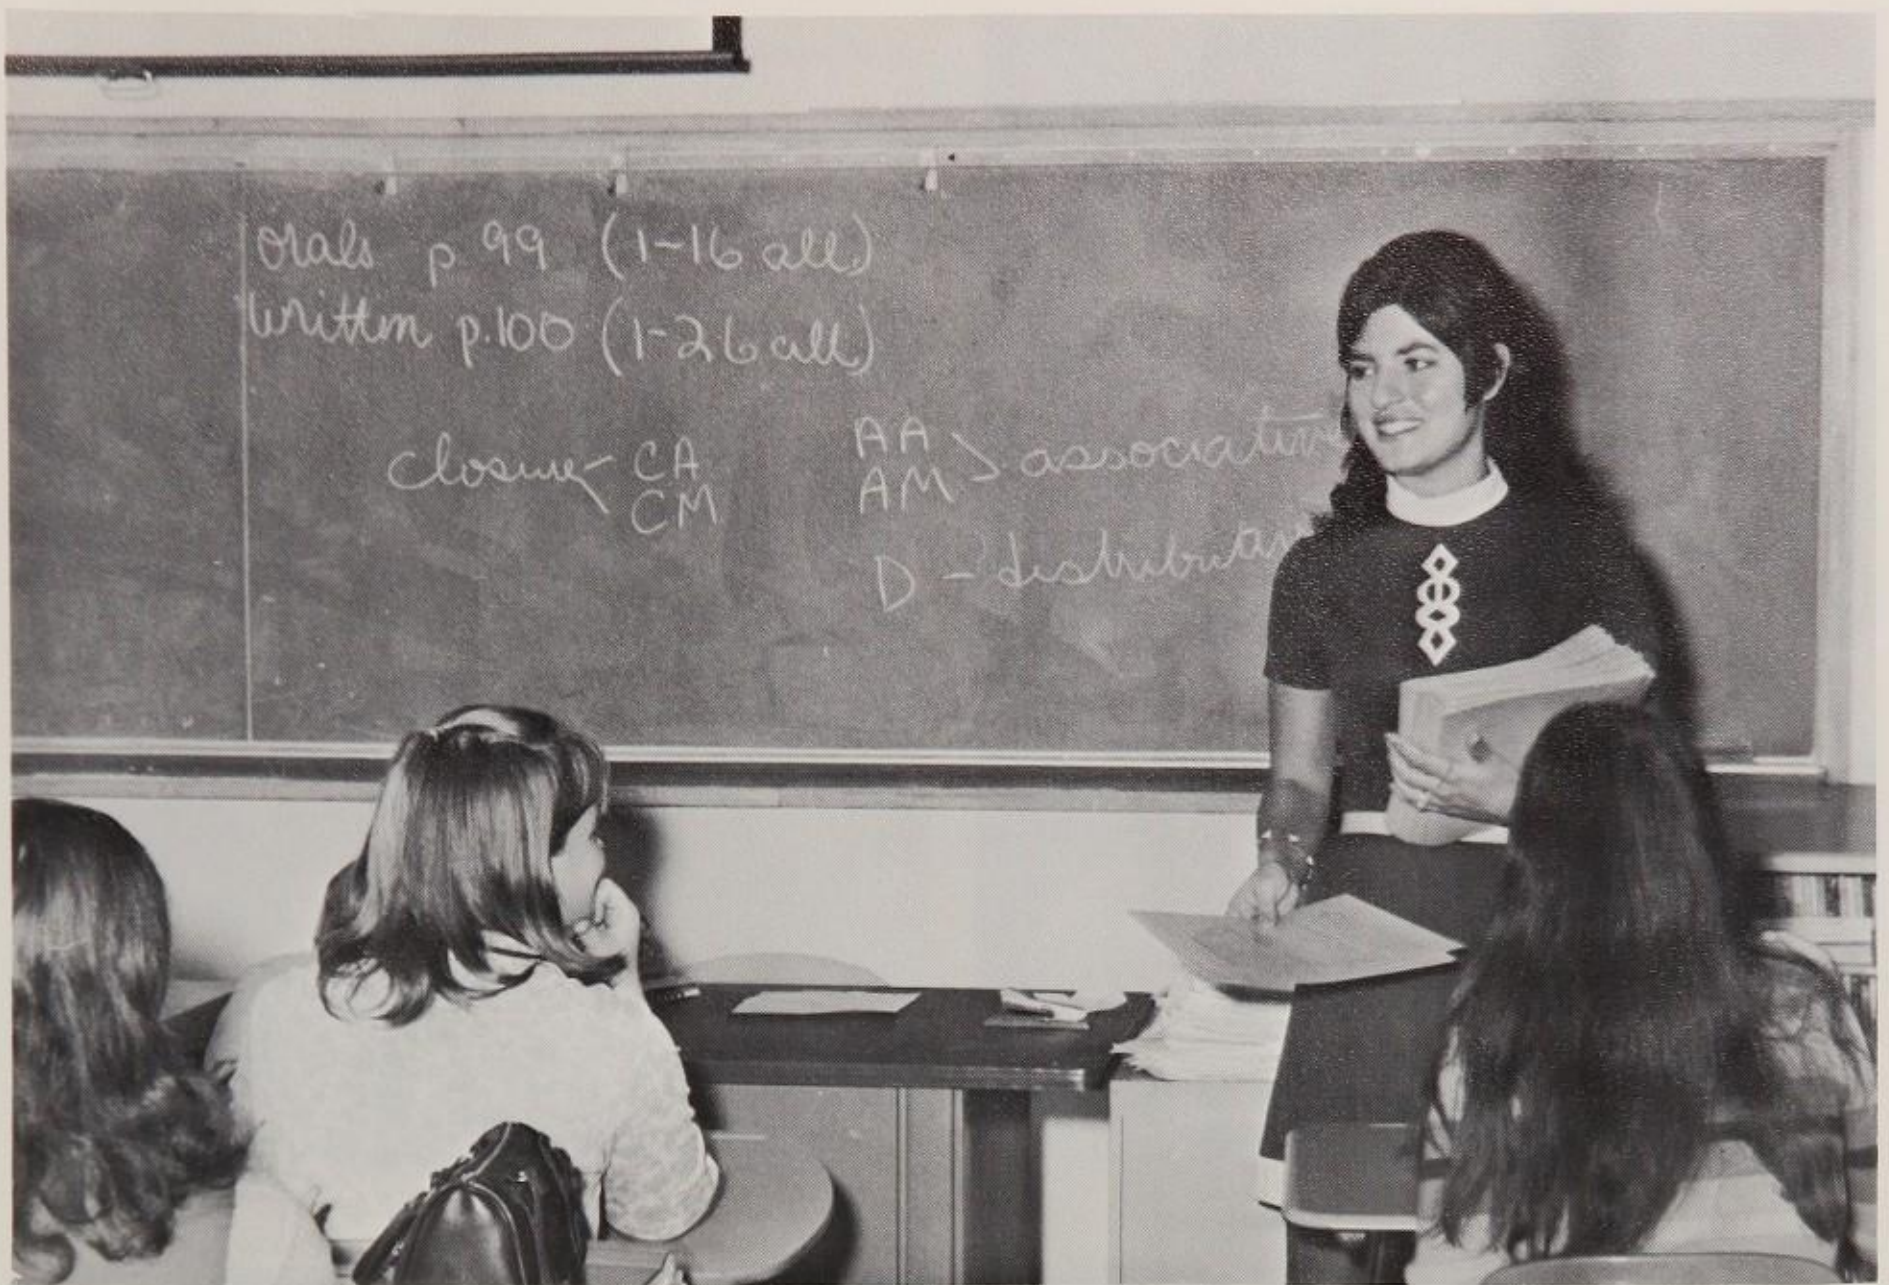

One of the few departments where classes weren't cut, the English program was still able to provide subjects ranging from Independent Reading to Drama Workshop. The goal of the department was to have "students be able to communicate as efficiently as possible and to appreciate the literature of our language. Through these things, they will hopefully come to know themselves and others better," said Anne Gemeinhardt, Department Chairman. Helping these goals to be realized was the addition of a Study Skills Center, and a new course, Rapid Reading. New equipment added to the department included audio-visual equipment, and the posting of new bulletin.

Teacher of American Literature, Creative Writing and Everyday English was Mrs. Mantia handing papers back to one of her classes.

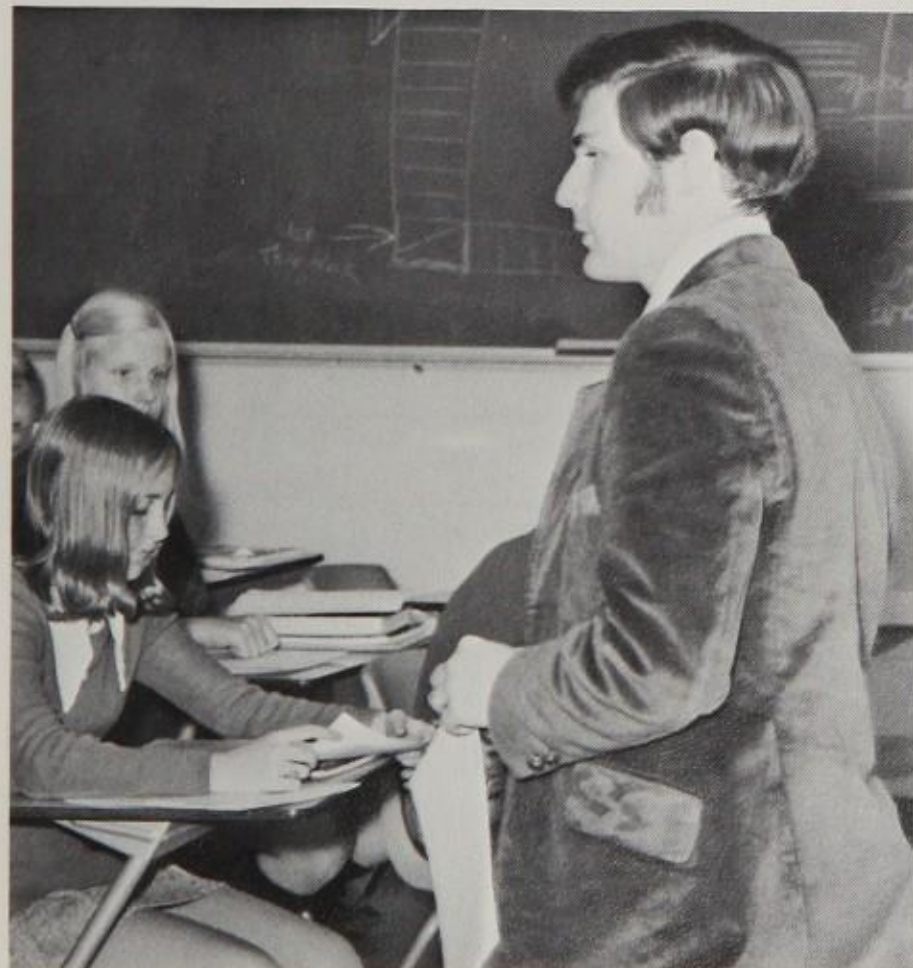

Exercising one of his duties, Mr. David Gettle, English teacher at Campus held conferences with individual students like John Kass.

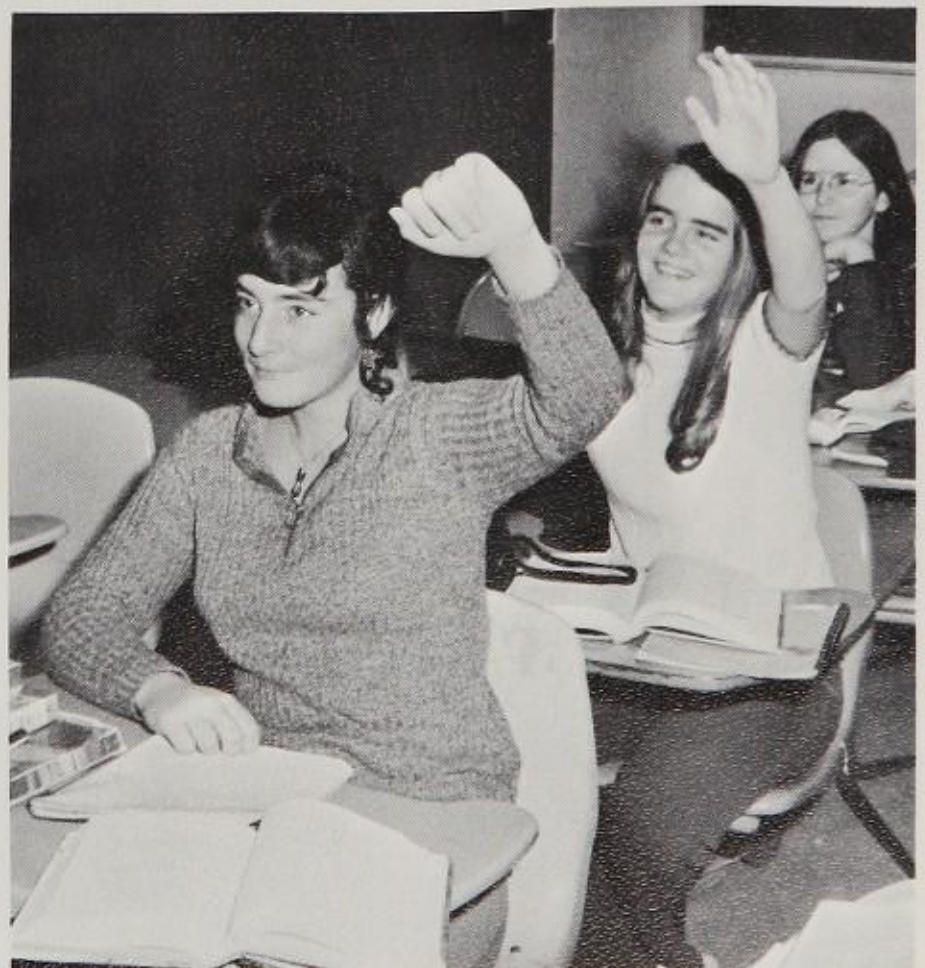

The students at Northwest paid careful attention to their English teacher, Miss McGrath, as she explained the forthcoming assignment.

Discussion of the English language was Mr. Burnson's main purpose to the students of the Northeast building.

With arms raised, these students eagerly wait with anticipation, to give answers to questions for which they have well prepared themselves.

Demonstrating the proper method of applying seam tape, Mrs. Catherine Easterling prepares students for Homemaking careers.

Cooking, sewing skills

were basic practices

for Home Ec students

"Home Economics, encompasses a wide variety of topics; ranging from food and clothing sections, to family living, where relationships within the family are discussed and reviewed," which was said by Mrs. Smith one of the teachers in the Home Economics department of the Richards Campus II Building. During the 1st semester, students learned the skills of cooking a meal, and 2nd semester they learned to sew things and patterns. While these students learned these two things, they were tested on how to do certain things in the process of creating homemakers projects. As these projects were being made, sweet aromas filled the halls.

Concentrating on the processes of applying theory to the real thing, these two Home Economics students share a moment of quiet learning.

Teaching from the text was Home Economics teacher, Mrs. Smith. She answered any questions students had concerning the material.

A Northwest Home Ec. student intends on cutting out her pattern with exact preciseness to insure that her garment turns out favorably.

Ready to move on to another sewing project, these two home economics students thumbed through the Simplicity pattern book for a few ideas.

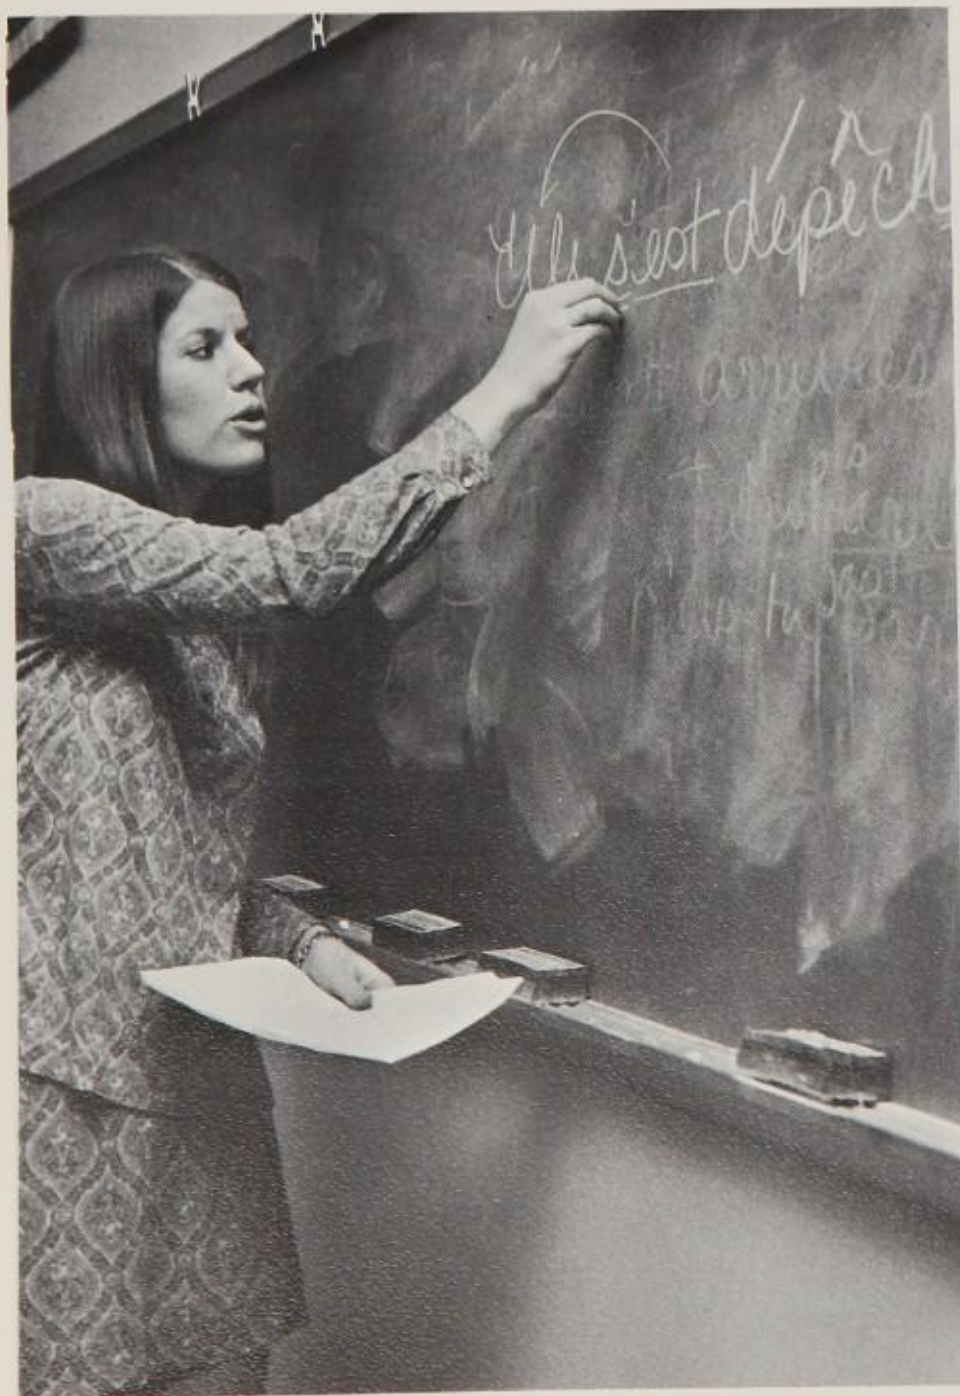

Latin I, Russian I gone

Split shift, 2-2 plan most damaging to language dept.

The foreign language department was one of the most diversified departments at Richards. Languages and customs covering all parts of the world were taught. Spanish, French, German, Russian, and Latin provided enough variety for any student. There were seven hundred students enrolled in Spanish I and II alone in 1972. On the Junior level, French had the most students, but because of small enrollment, Latin I and Russian I were dropped. When asked what some of the special problems were, Department chairman Laszlo Takacs said, "The split shift and 2-2 plan are the most damaging to our program, with competition for Junior electives second."

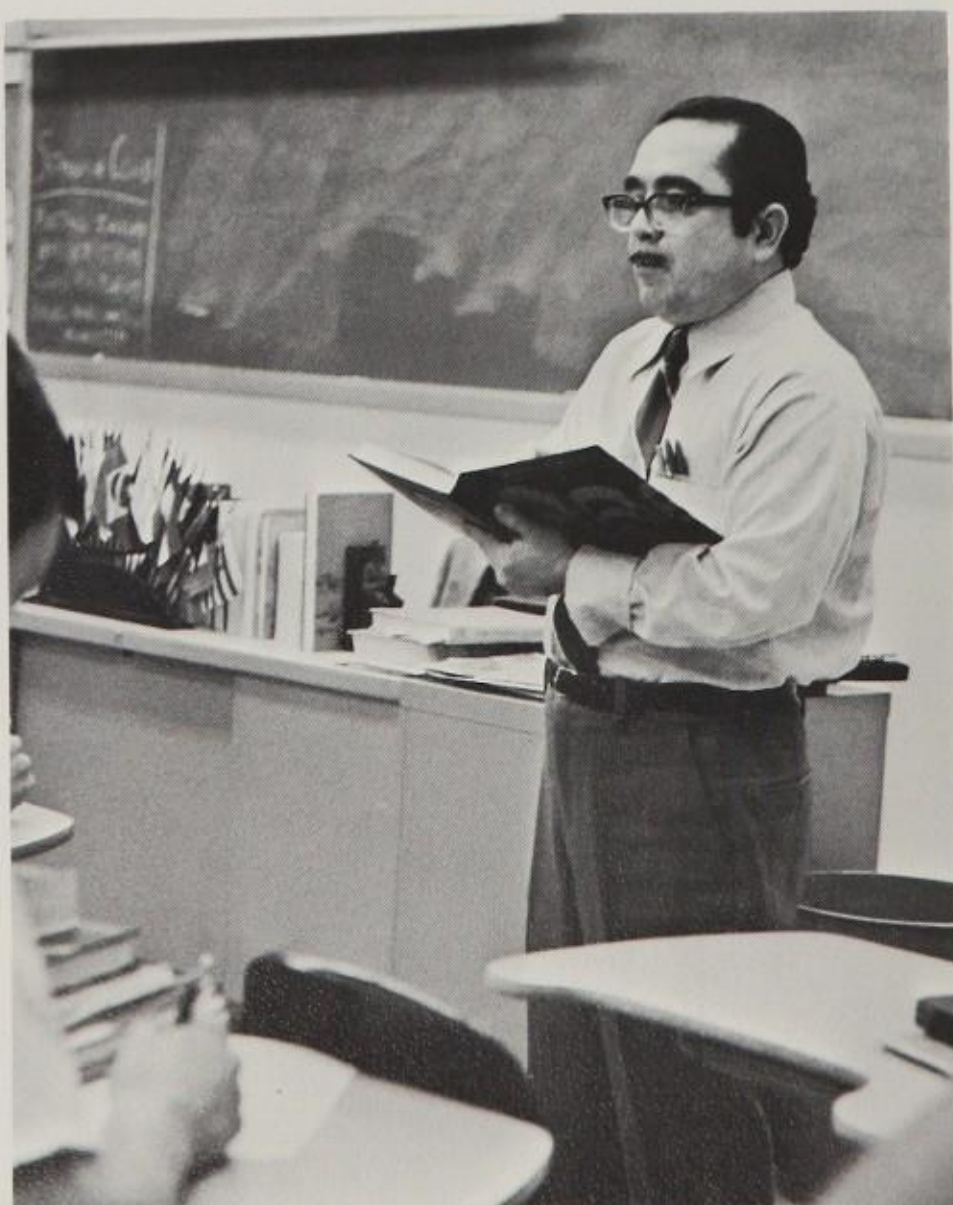

Demonstrating the skill that all languages required, was Miss Jeanne Goodman, as she corrected the improper grammar within a sentence.

Students were influenced with a friendly atmosphere, to achieve goals while learning Russian in Miss Brightwell's foreign language class.

Spanish was made interesting, as Mr. Joseph Irizarry read many passages to students as to emphasize the importance in understanding.

*Future drivers learned important rules of road
in Driver's Ed. Program*

The Driver's Education Program taught students the rules of the road and gave them six hours of behind-the-wheel training. The program was headed by Department Chairman, Mr. Dale Gustafson, with Mr. Lamb, Miss Thompson, Mr. Muir, Mr. Korhonen, Mr. Rummel and Mr. Kudla as some of the driving instructors. The Driver's Education cars were donated by different automobile dealers when brand new, and after being used for a year, were returned to the dealers and sold as used cars. A new car that has been contributed was a Volkswagon, which gave the students the opportunity to learn to operate a stick-shift as well as an automatic automobile.

Explaining to Vicki Adancheski some of the parts of a Volkswagon motor was Mister Matthew Lamb, Driver Education teacher at Campus.

"Finally in the driver's seat", was probably Vicki Adancheski's thoughts as she tried to get familiar with the Volkswagon's stick-shift.

Girls placed Auto shop

Drafting courses provided

class observed safety rules

Recognizing the need of various students to perform in other than English or Math or History classes, District 218 provided all students with the possibility of preparing themselves for after graduation employment. Students in the Industrial Arts program were also encouraged to pursue their own craft interests as well as gain practical insight into the intricacies of machinery and the skills needed for their upkeep and use. Girls worked along side the traditional male student in Auto Shop, Drafting and Electric Shop. Strict safety rules were observed at all times by the students and their teachers from shoes in machine shop to the special protective eyeglasses in welding. Wood Shop students produced a multitude of items including chess boards.

Students in the feeder buildings were taught the basics of shop which would later be applied to help in the Campus building classes.

Sidewalk superintendents always seem to abound when one was doing and his fellow students were supervising as demonstrated in this wood shop.

Students were precise and accurate in order to complete and produce a product that met all the specifications of their blueprints and the students creativity.

Electronics lab was a combination of individual attention, theory and experimentation taught by Mr. Mahlke in the Campus building.

Safety rules were strictly enforced by the shop teachers and fervently observed by the students knowing the good reasons behind them.

Musical education program offered by District 218
at all three buildings

"We've got rhythm! We've got music! Who could ask for anything more?"

Students of District 218 found the opportunity for a comprehensive musical education available to them. A program of choral training and instrumental training was begun during a student's freshmen year. Mr. John Holt at the Northeast Building conducted the choir while Mr. Leon Plug directed the band. Miss Ilka provided direction for singers at Northwest while Mr. James Conlee worked with the band.

When entering the Senior building, Juniors could choose Mr. Robert Guenzler's class in choir, Mr. Henry Justice's course in orchestra which provided training in strings and Mr. Mayer Channon's Concert or Marching Band.

Waiting for the almost reverential hush that happens just before the music begins, Mr. Henry Justice signaled the up beat for the orchestra.

Concert band, under the direction of Mr. Channon, practiced for a number that might be played at the next rally or half-time program during their regular practice.

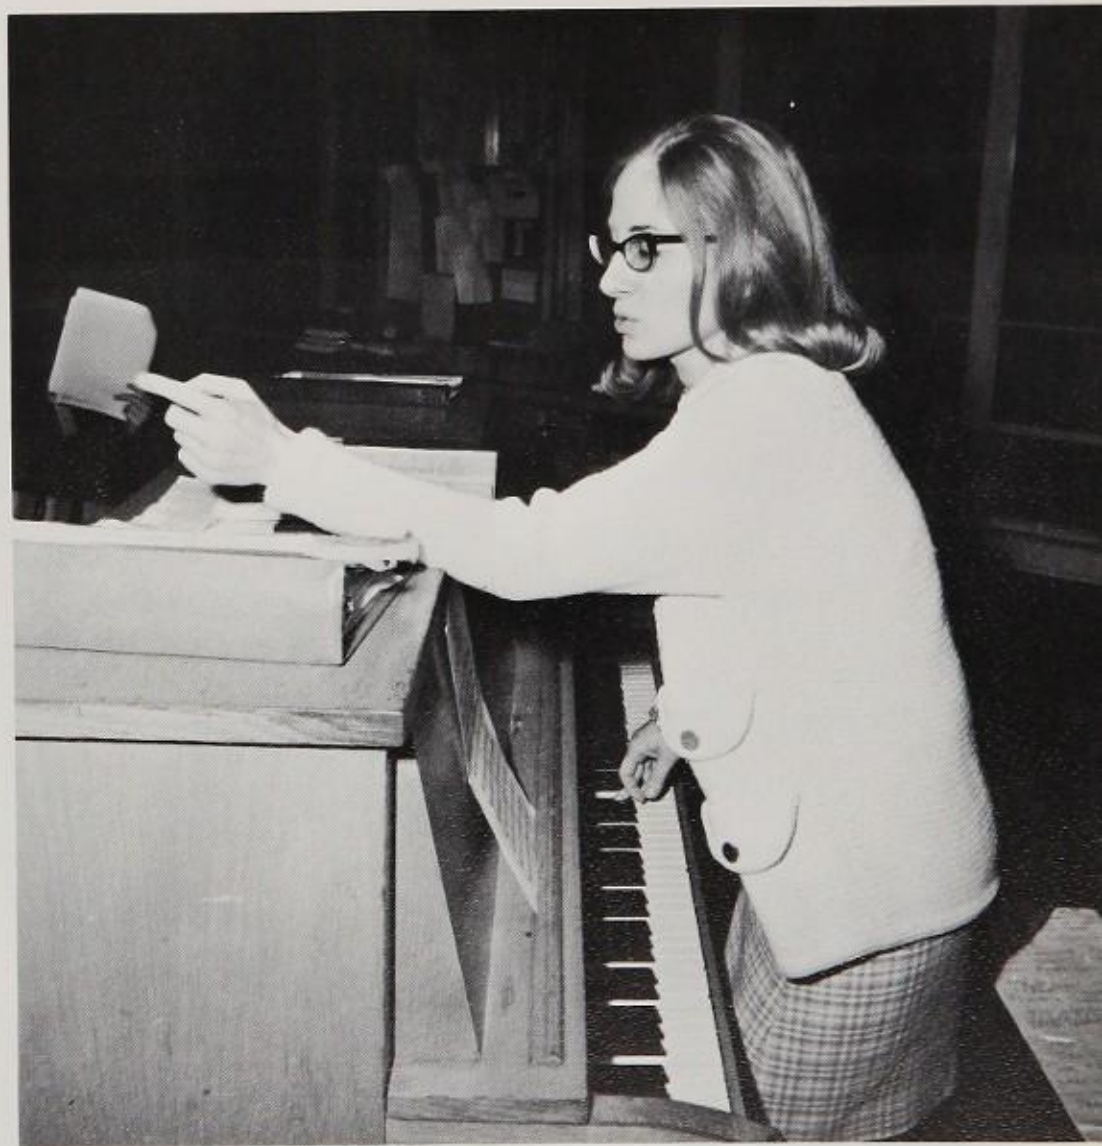

The music goes round and round and it comes out here as this student practiced to perfect intricate, complex study of the French horn.

Music classes and study touched all aspects of learning which was demonstrated by these Northwest students preparing for a Concert.

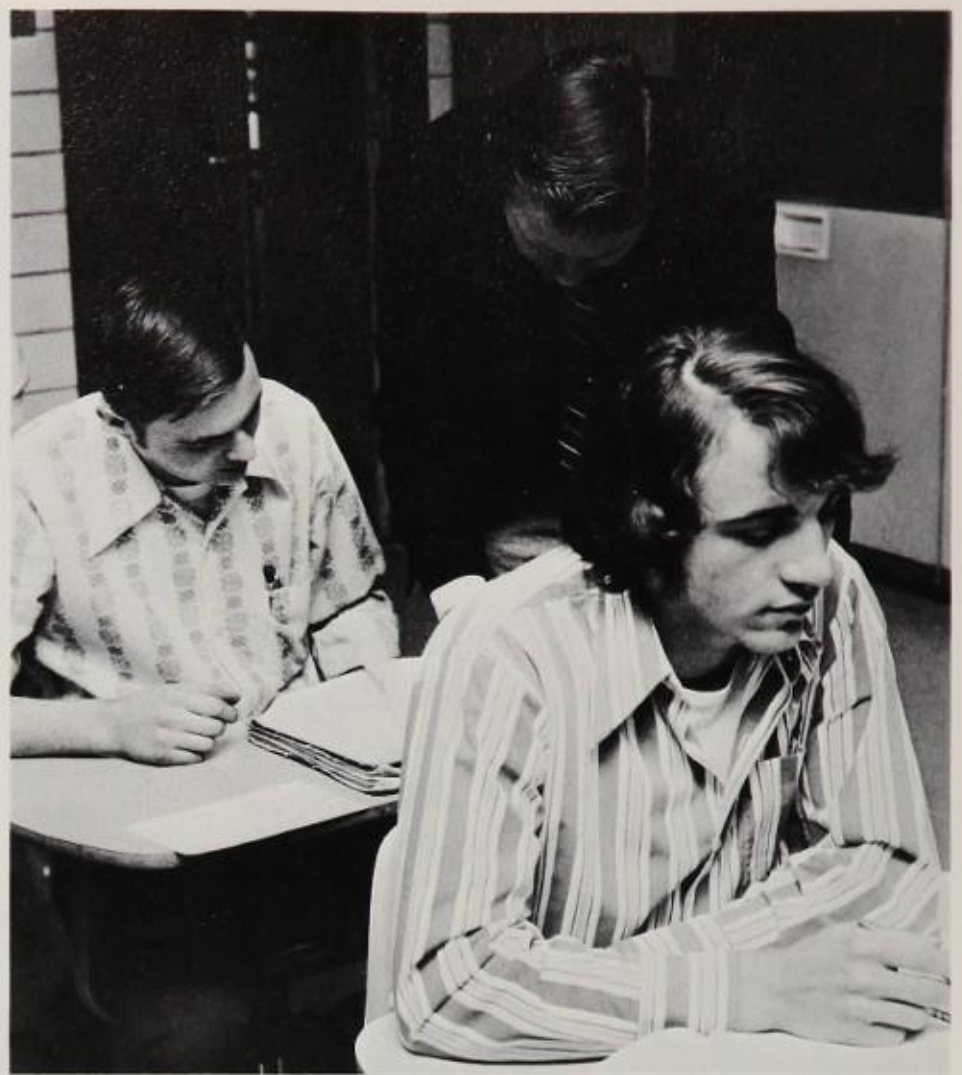

Conducting a choir class at the Northwest building, Miss Ilka sounded a note expecting the class to get the correct pitch for the song.

Computer Science at NE,

Consumer Math at NW

part of meaningful program

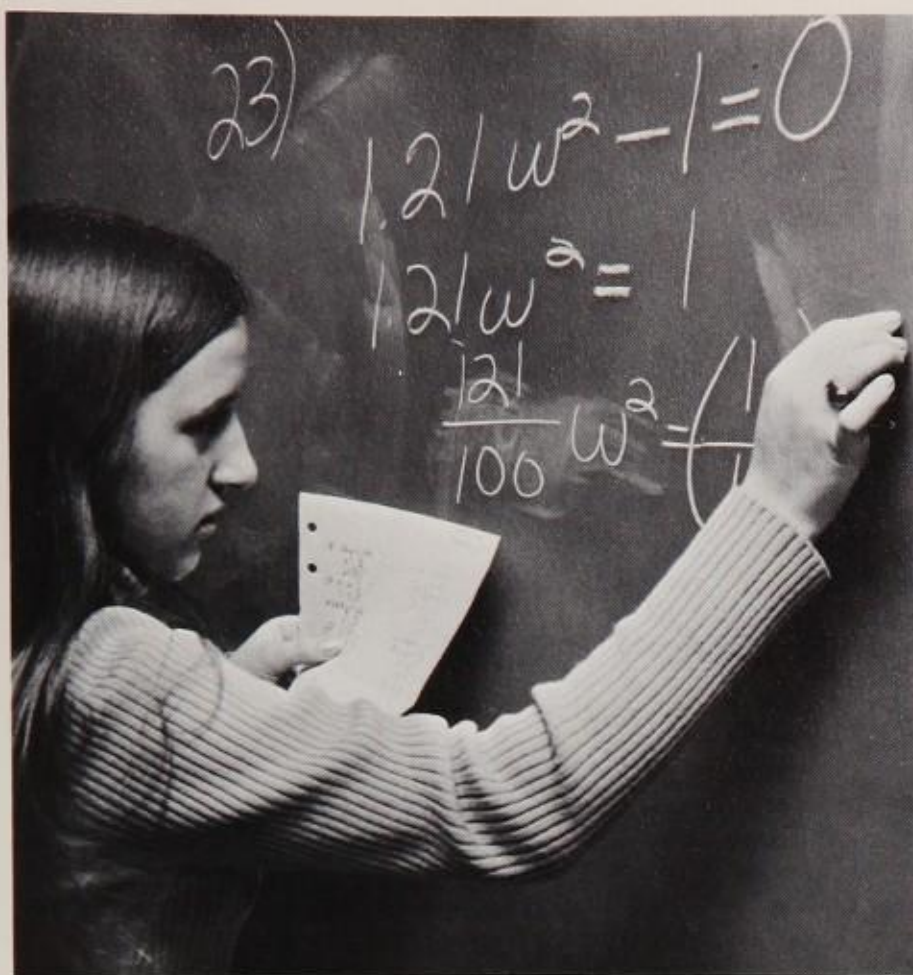

"Our most important goal is to provide a meaningful program, one that will provide students with the mathematical knowledge necessary to their future living needs." That was the reply Department chairman John K. Brown gave to one of our staff member's questions. Evidence to this are two courses that began in 1972, Computer Science at Northeast and Consumer Mathematics at Northwest. Also, when asked what could be done to increase the size of some of the smaller classes, Mr. Brown said that "We need to get off the split shift," and that calculus, the course with the smallest enrollment "should not be taken by a large majority of the students."

Giving a helping hand to Ray Mitchell was Algebra instructor Mr. Dennis Hausner as students worked on their assignments and homework.

As students stayed after class for special assistance with math homework, Miss Christine Johnson gave them her time for that extra help.

Careful study and analogy of a mathematical problem was what Karen Sulko exhibited as she solved a problem by showing her work on the board.

Diligently working on an advanced algebra computation was Dan Hogan during a brief time that was given to the students during class for homework.

To pay attention and take notes on new mathematical procedures in Trig was what John Cox and Diane Kaczmarek did during class time.

New warning system installed at Richards
alarms at disturbances

In addition to cleaning, dusting, washing and keeping track of the three buildings that made up the Harold L. Richards school, janitors had the added responsibility of a new security system. The system which was extremely sensitive to any disturbance in the building triggered alarms at the police station as well as the home of Frank Hill, head custodian. The system does not consist of cameras but of censor devices capable of detecting noise, temperature changes, etc. The system was part of a new protection system. Among the janitors this year were Frank Hill, head custodian, Claude Peloquin and this year no matrons were on the staff.

Sweeping the hallways was first on the list of many jobs that Bob and the many other janitors must accomplish after the final bell at Campus II.

Giving the floors a final going over was Mr. Claude Peloquin who was one of the many utility men who keep things running here at Campus II.

If you were sick this was the place to go as Mrs. Evelyn Middaugh took good care of a sick patient down in the nurses office.

Willing and Ready, all nurses render services for Richard's students Tending to all the medical needs that arose in the course of the school year were the nurses of H. L. Richards. There were 4 nurses serving 3 buildings. At the Campus building Evelyn Middaugh and Miss Harty cared for almost 2,000 students while Kay Landry and Nell Richardson attended to the needs of the Northeast and Northwest buildings respectively. These nurses created an informal atmosphere in their offices as they omitted the traditional wearing of hospital whites. Each nurse had more than adequate equipment such as beds, and emergency medication, to handle the various crisis that originated in their respective buildings.

Taking the pulse was an important factor in which to consider in any such situation, especially where the welfare of a student is concerned.

Checking for a temperature was the nurse from the Northeast Building, Mrs. Kay Landry, while she performed her daily duties.

Giving advice to an interested student, Mrs. Evelyn Middaugh, the school nurse for Campus II Building, did the best she knew.

Members of Office Staff

were dependable crew;

ran 4 offices smoothly

Performing many different secretarial tasks, the office staff did their best to keep the many students, parents, and administrators satisfied throughout the school year at the three Richards' buildings. Among their many daily jobs were such duties as typing up the daily bulletins, keeping student files, answering telephones, and taking care of interoffice correspondence. Each member of the office staff had their own desk and was assigned to a principal or a dean to help them in their daily duties. Working in the large school offices, the secretaries had to have experience and patience to cope with the many situations that arose.

*P.E. classes engaged in ballet, bowling, gymnastics
and many other activities*

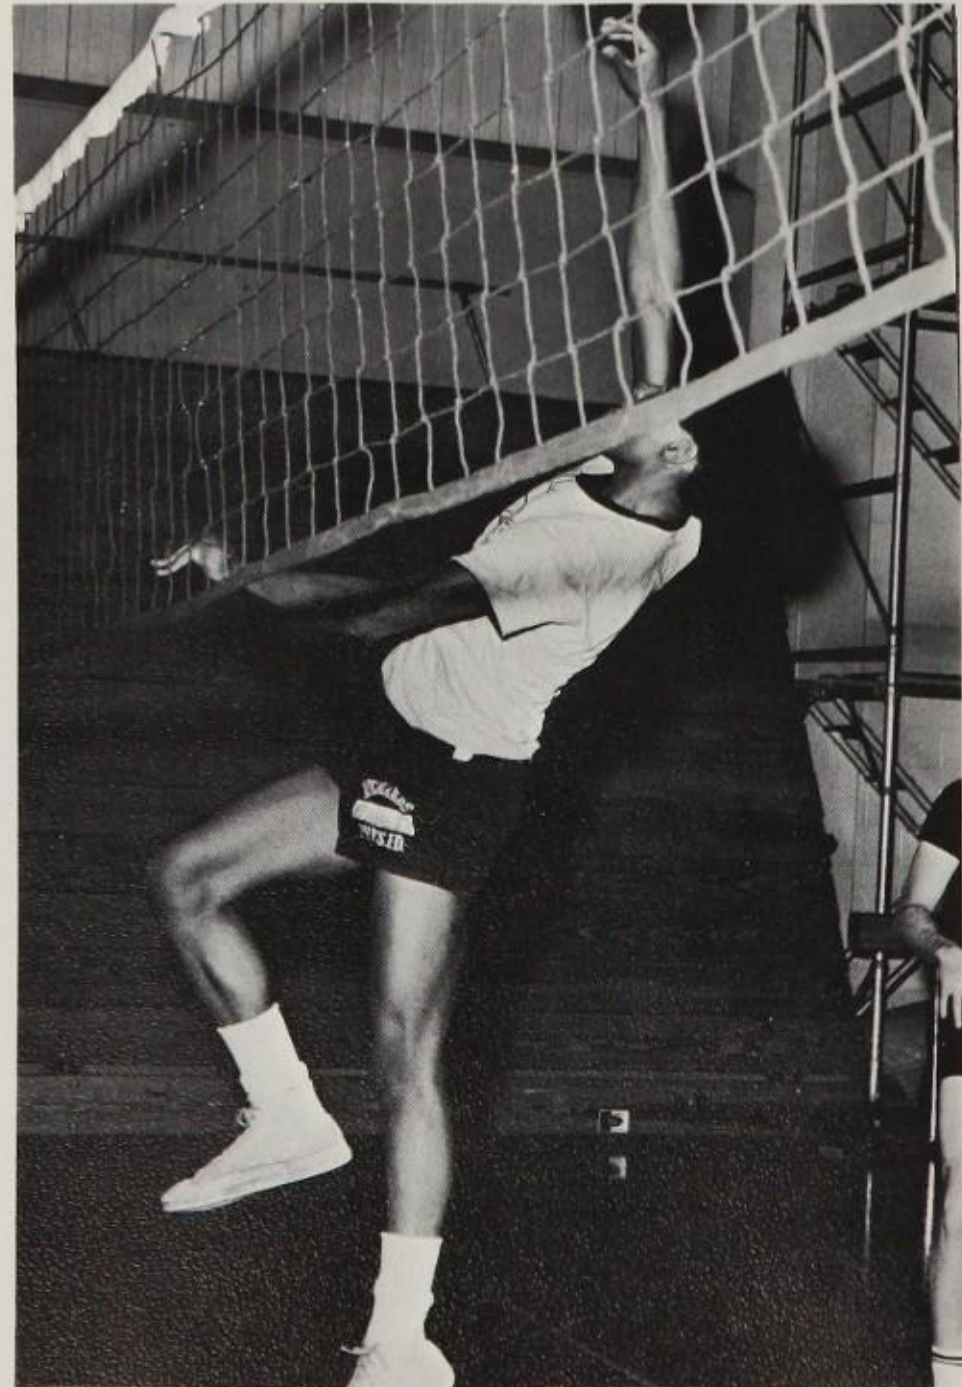

Tennis, wrestling, badminton to bowling. These were just a portion of the activities engaged in by students during their gym classes. From team sports such as football, and individual performances in ballet, boys and girls had the opportunity to show their poise, strength and ability. Equipment included gymnastics apparatus, weight lifting machines, soccer nets, and the use of the Arena Bowling Center at 103rd and Cicero. Also, for the first time since bowling became part of the activities, boys were allowed to participate. The main goal for the course was to give the student a full opportunity to realize his potentials as an athlete.

Explaining how the weight machines work and their purpose, was Sophomore Football Coach Mr. D'Anza who also teaches P.E. at Northwest.

Using all of his strength and volleyball skills to return the serve to his opponents was demonstrated by Bill Vardalos during gym class.

Displaying his talented spiking skills one student in P.E. enjoyed an exciting and challenging class period of volleyball at the Campus Building.

More girls enjoyed PE.

all classes involved in

wide variety of sports

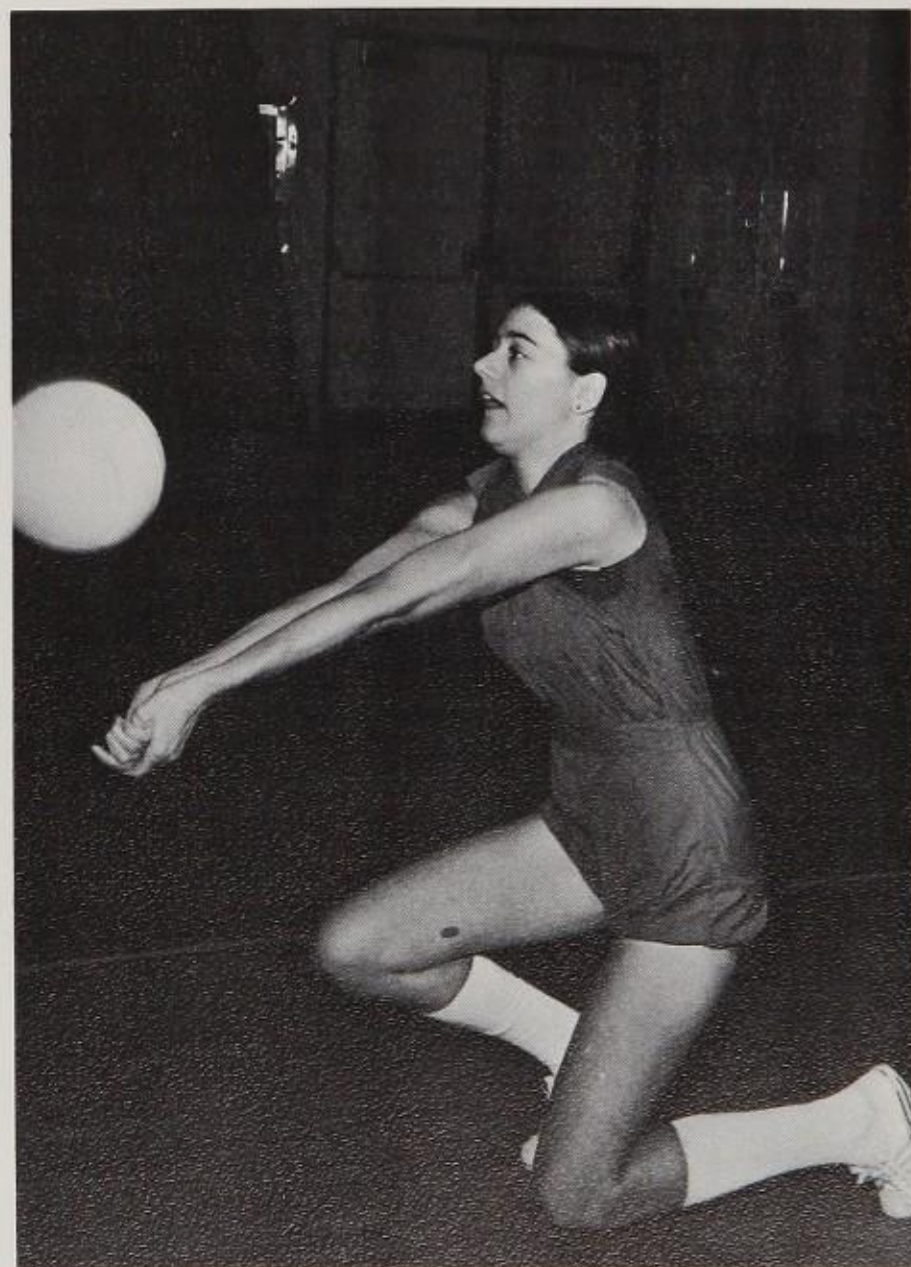

This past year, many girls who otherwise did not enjoy gym, became involved in all of the activities offered by the P.E. department. Under the direction of Mrs. Jones, Miss Jankowski, Miss Ritzman, and Miss Thompson, the girls developed skills in many different areas of physical education. Volleyball, badminton, free exercise, and flag football were the areas covered during the first semester. The second half of the year they participated in bowling, gymnastics, and all of the other sports which go along with the spring season. Girls who excelled in P.E. activities were given a chance to continue in that area by joining girls' intramurals.

Always among volleyball nets and other apparatuses which is needed to run the course, was Miss Carol Jankowski, observing her students.

Instucting her freshman and sophomore girls the rules involved in volleyball was Miss O'Neal, Physical Education instructor at Northwest.

Practice made perfect, proven here by Judy Sparks, as she returned a ball with a so called "bump pass" to her opponents opposite here.

Learning new techniques involved in Science, this Northwest student was assisted by Mr. ~~Harp~~ Mahmet in preparing his experiment.

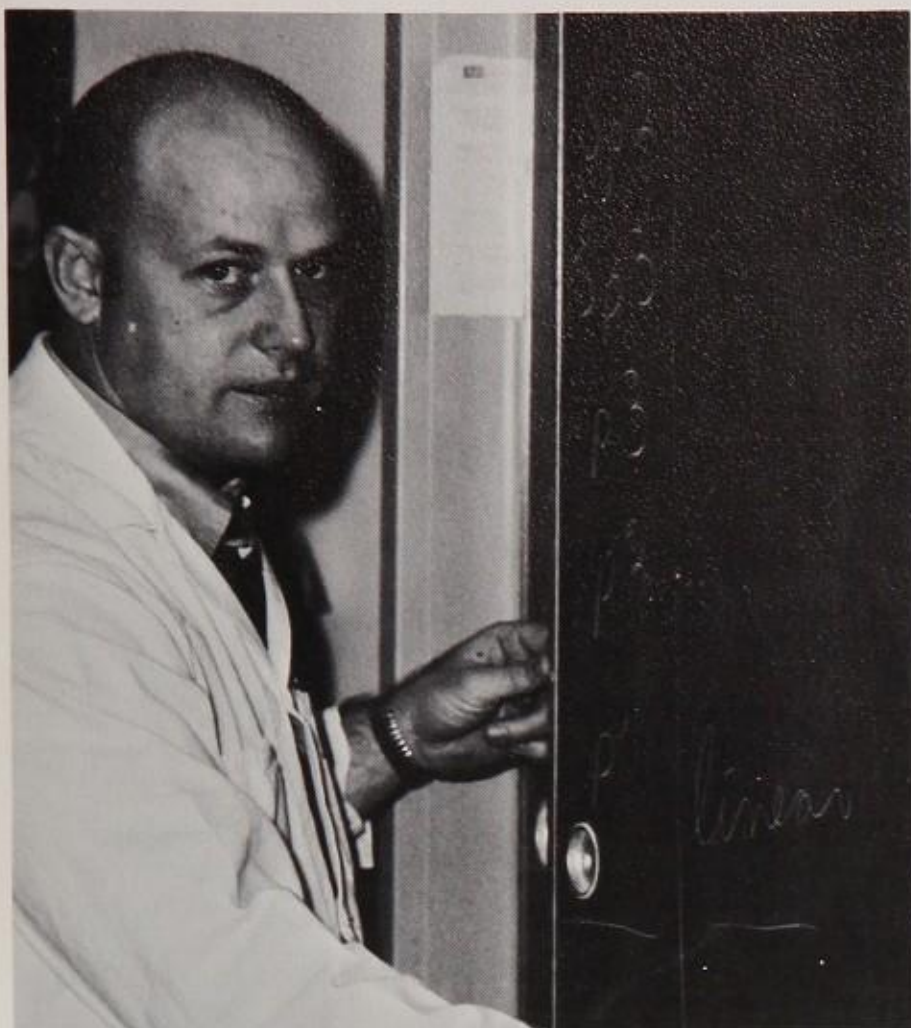

Introducing new experiments in Physics seemed to have taken place in the hall, as shown here by Liz Radloff and Karen Peterson.

Neutrons, protons and electrons were spinning around atoms as were the minds of some of Mr. Vandercar's chemistry students studying chemical formulas.

Campus students chose between Physics, Chem.

NE, NW dissected in Biol.

With the emphasis in America on the Science program, the achievements of the space program placing U.S. astronauts on the Moon, a new interest in the science program appeared. District 218 provided a science program that consisted of Biology, Physics, Chemistry, General Science and the associated lab classes.

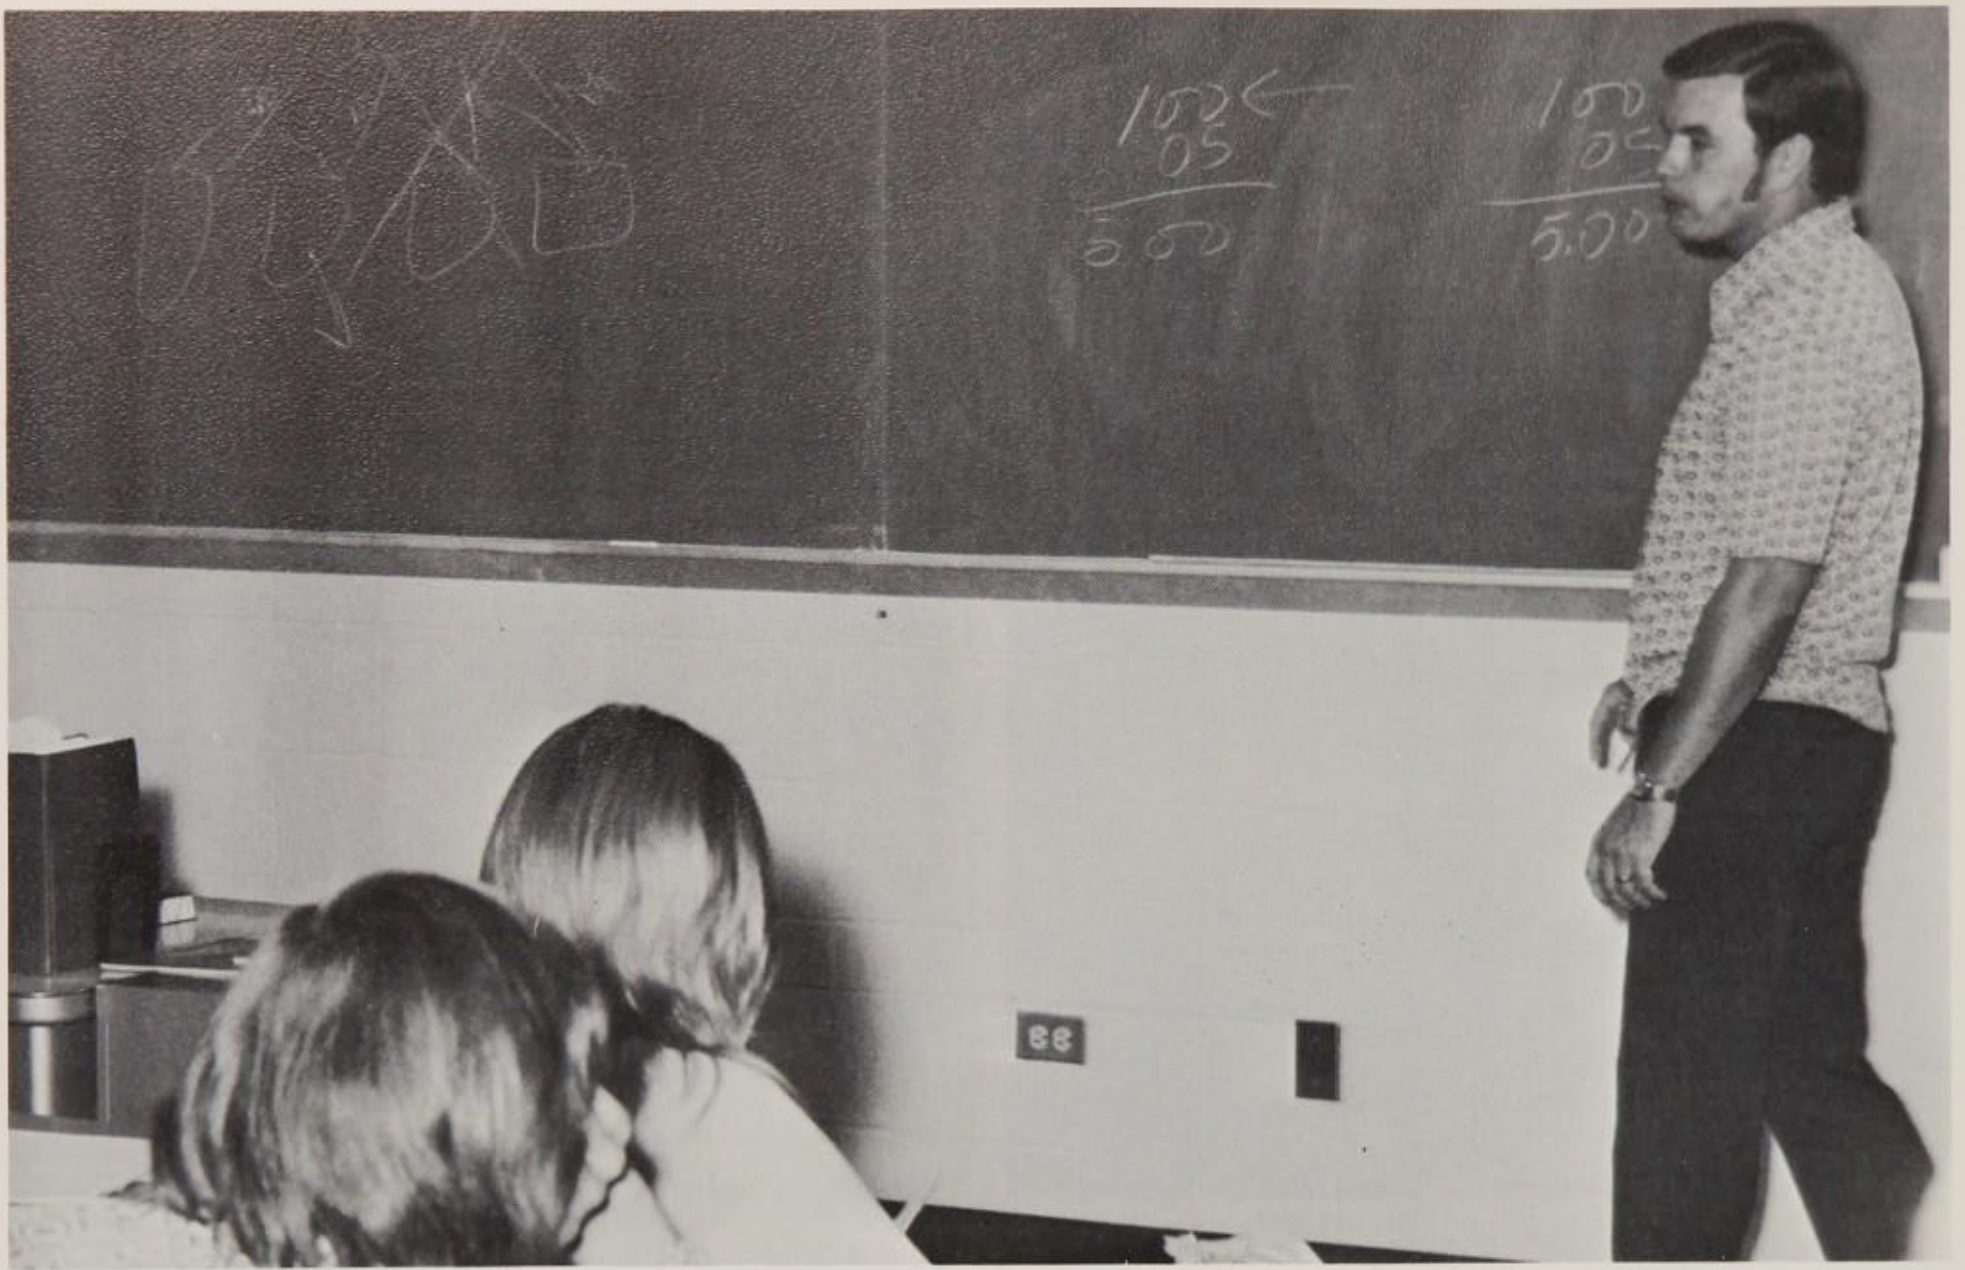

At Northeast and Northwest the students were begun on the program by taking a General Science course and Biology was also an elective science course fulfilling the one year requirement. Here they dissected and learned the life orders. Arriving at the main campus building students could choose between Physics and Chemistry.

Disappointment, jubilation or just plain disgust were some reactions when that "Hard" quiz was handed back in Physics Lab that demanded constant study and attention.

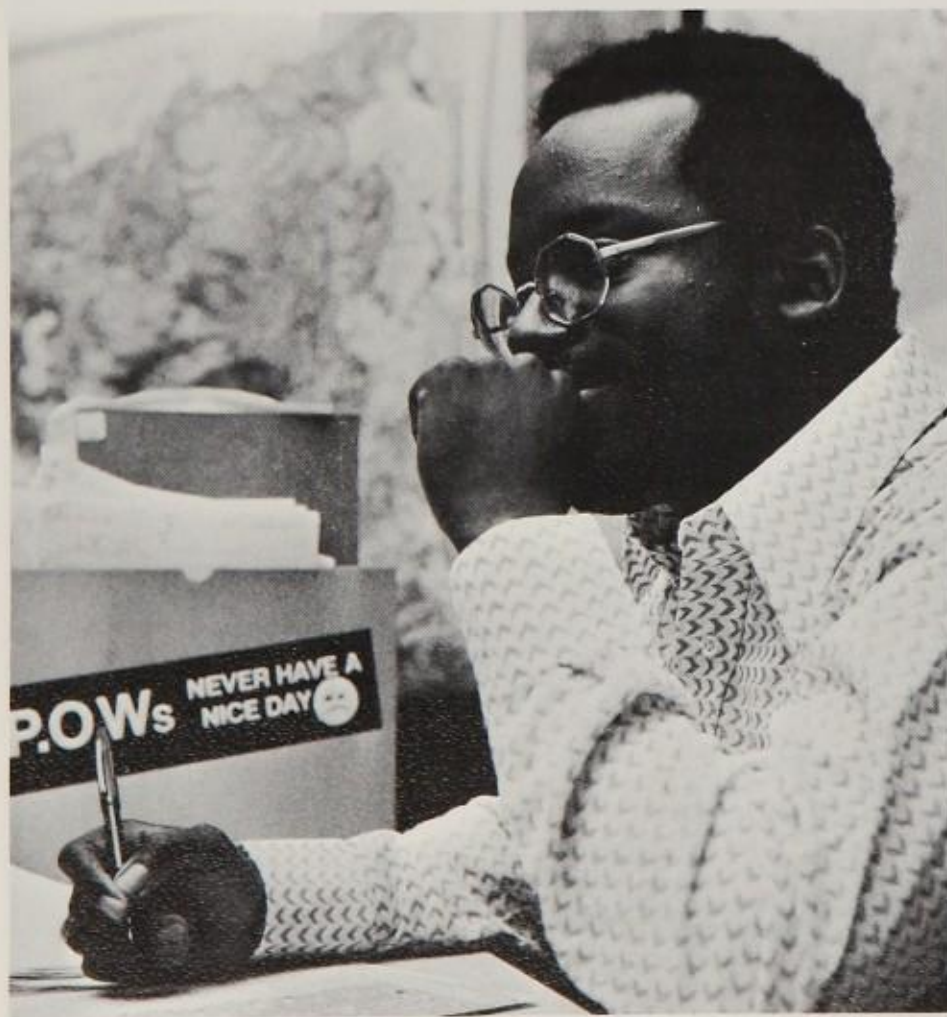

Individual instruction proved helpful to many of the students in Mr. Tharp's Biology class where they learned the basis of life on planet Earth.

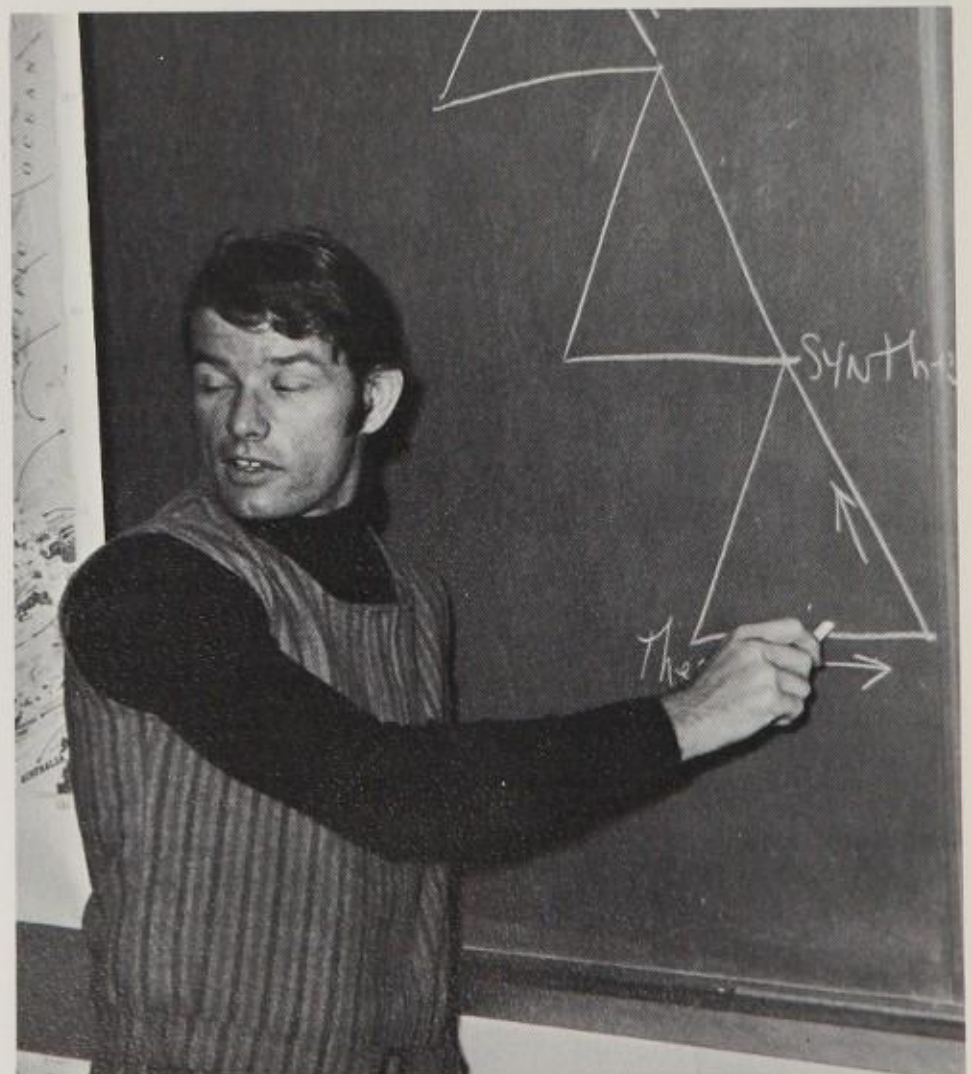

Explaining the principles of U.S. and world economics was H. L. Richards faculty member, Walter Tyler, seen here teaching at the Campus II building.

In a room surrounded by maps, sits Mr. Charles Shelton, indulging his students in American History and the learning of new things.

Diagramming and explaining seemed to go together when Mr. Ron Rogers took up the subject of religion in his Asian History class.

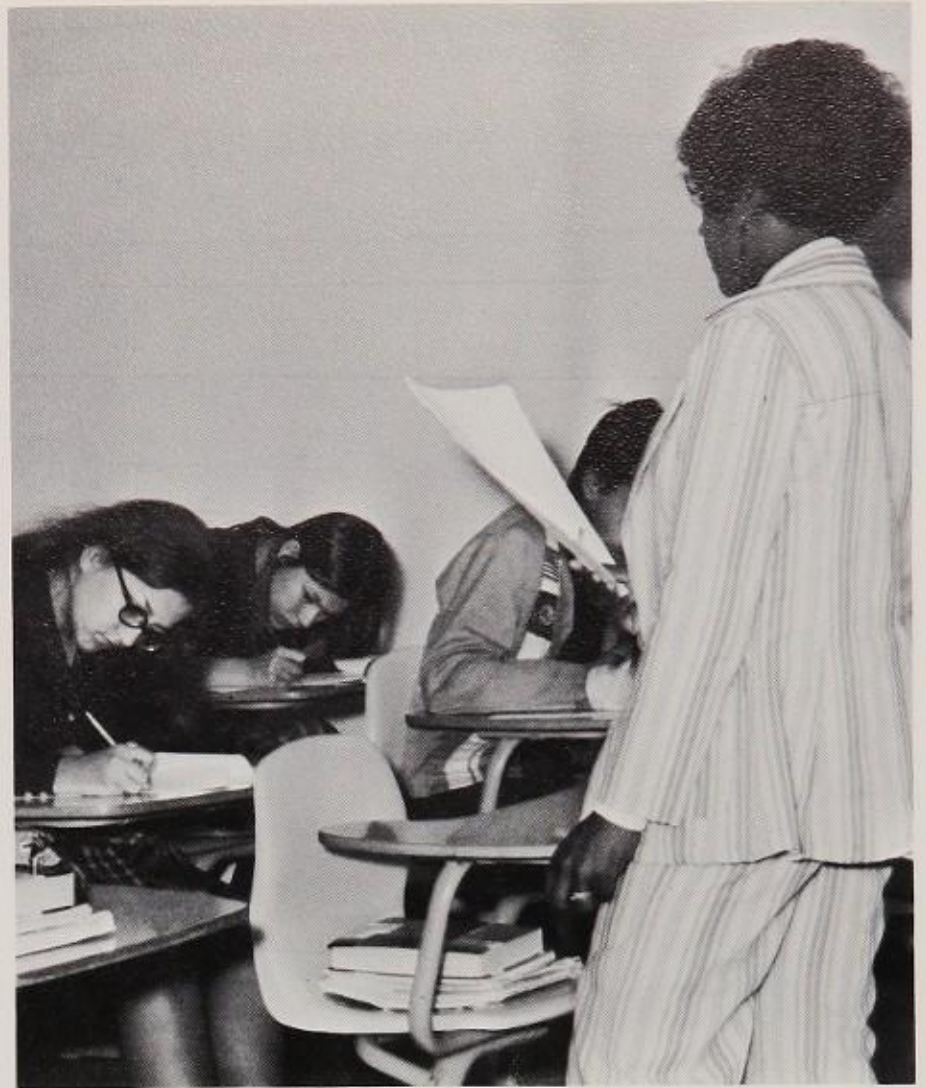

Spivey new dept. head

Asian history, American

Government taught at Campus

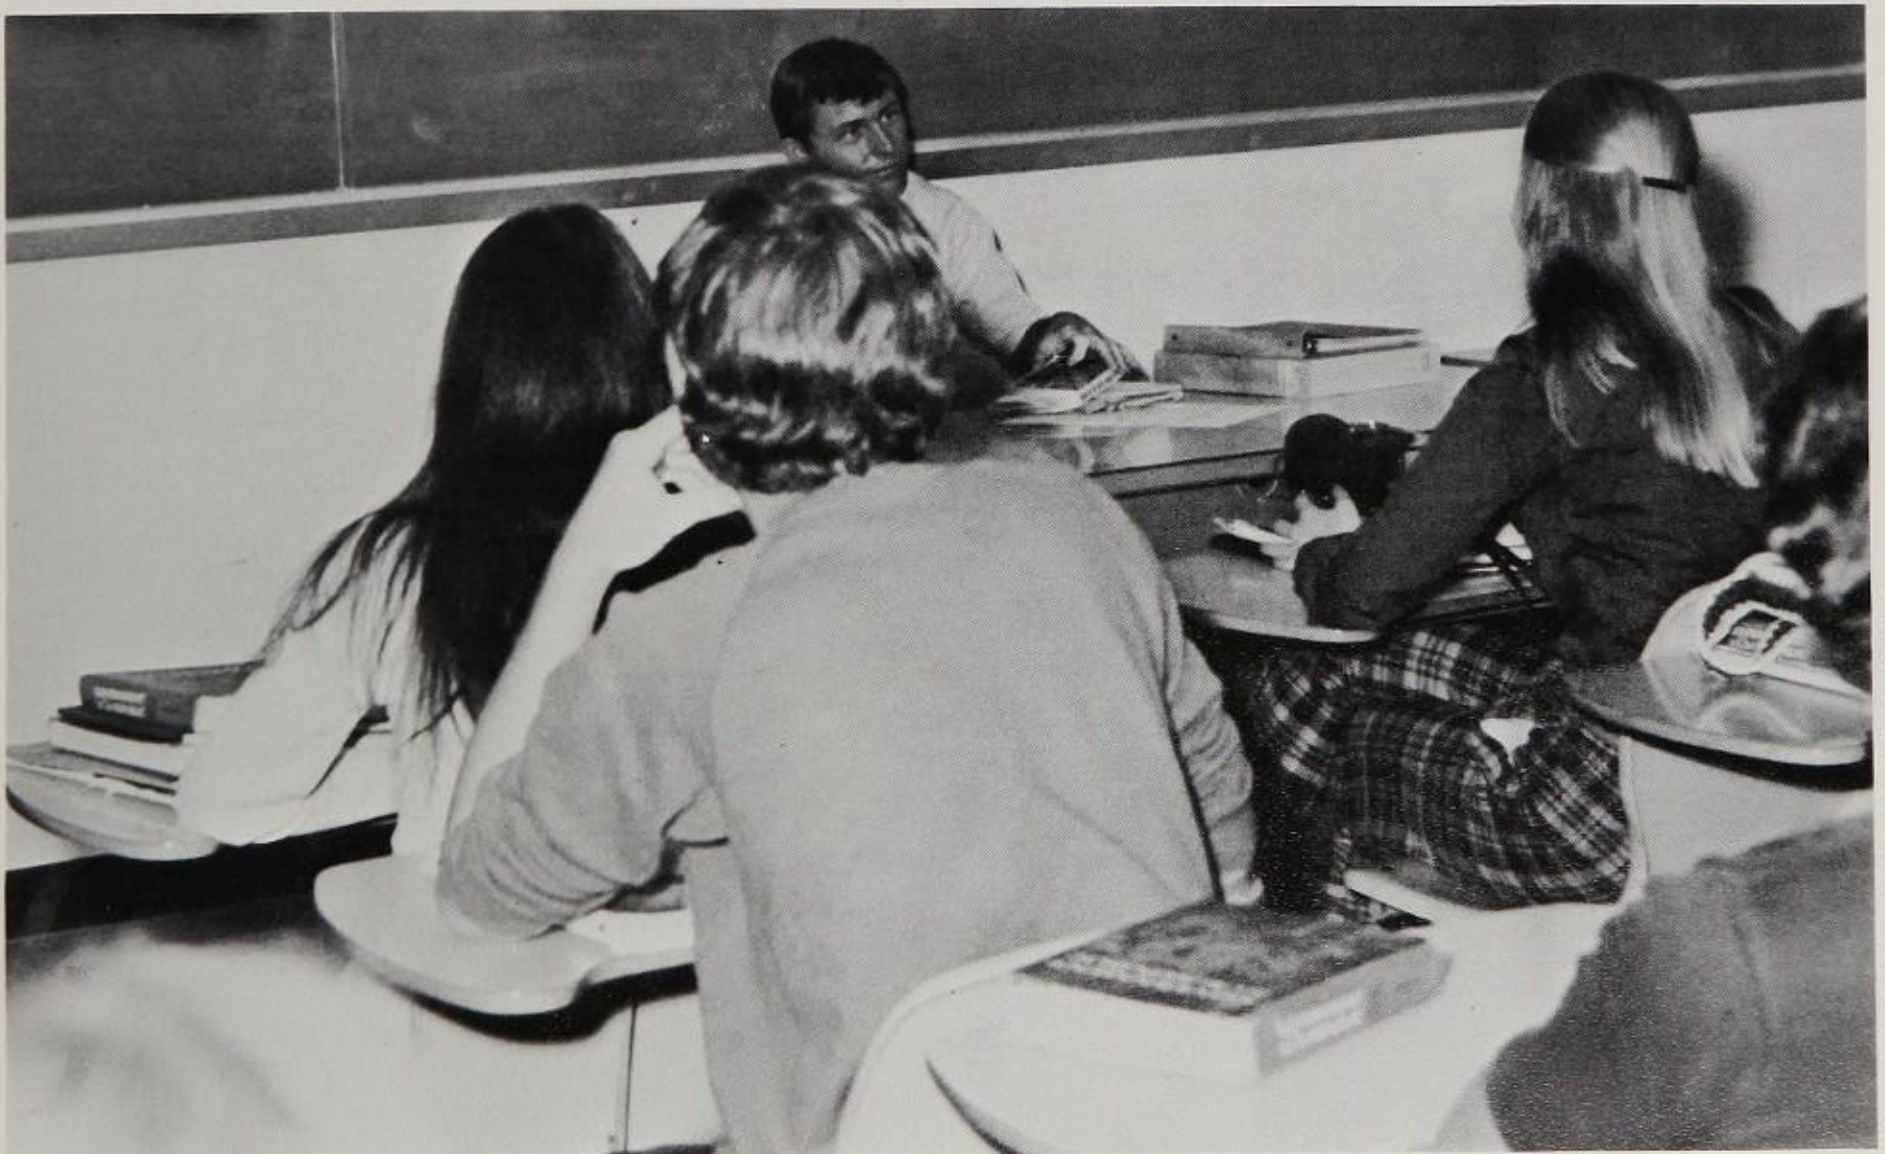

Learning to function and understand a new and complex society was the students in the Social Studies Department. Included in the department were the social sciences that were Psychology, Sociology, Histories, which included the American and Asian offered at Campus, Government and Economics.

Psychology students participated in experiments of operant and classical conditioning bringing in rats and mice to run mazes in order to demonstrate these principles. Sociology students studied the varieties of their complex new world. The new department head was Mr. Spivey.

Art of taking notes was one of the skills that students of American history learned from Mrs. Audrey Collins in their early morning class.

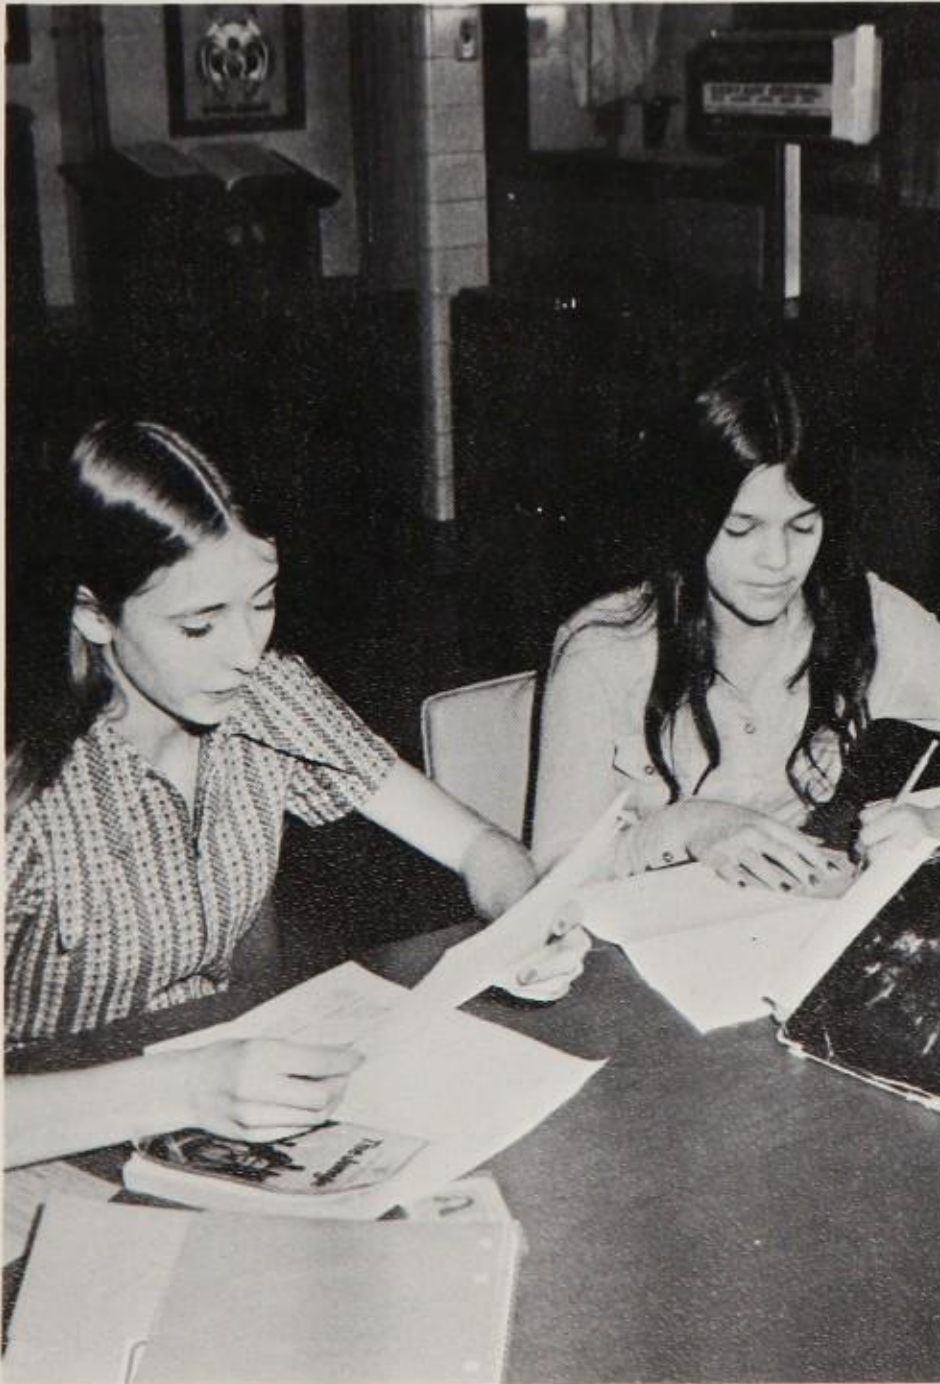

Pausing to listen to an interesting comment from one of his Government students was Mr. Bruce Rodgers in his American Government class.

Demonstrating the ability and efficiency of the center in helping students find a source for a research paper or just to read a magazine for pleasure was substitute Mrs. Guenzler.

Students from the Northeast building soon discovered that the Media Center held a wealth of information for the particular assignment that had been given to them in class.

Collins replaced Ruhl at Campus: tours given by Media Specialists

In the silent confines of the H. L. Richards Media Centers the dynamic process of research and learning were combined to allow the individual student the opportunity to seek out for himself the wonder involved in books, music and film. Through the Media Centers the student found it possible for him to explore his environment through a vast array of audio-visual aides and volumes of books. Tapes, records and cassettes were available to the student for over-night use or weekend use depending upon his need. The Centers, which came under the new direction of area chairman, Mr. Gerber, also had available encyclopedia as well as an extensive film library to supplement teachers in classes. Campus Media saw a change when Mrs. Louise Ruhl left to have a baby and was replaced by Mrs. Audrey Collins.

One of the services offered by the Media Center was an orientation tour for students to help acquaint students with the center given here by Media Specialist, Muriel Walker.

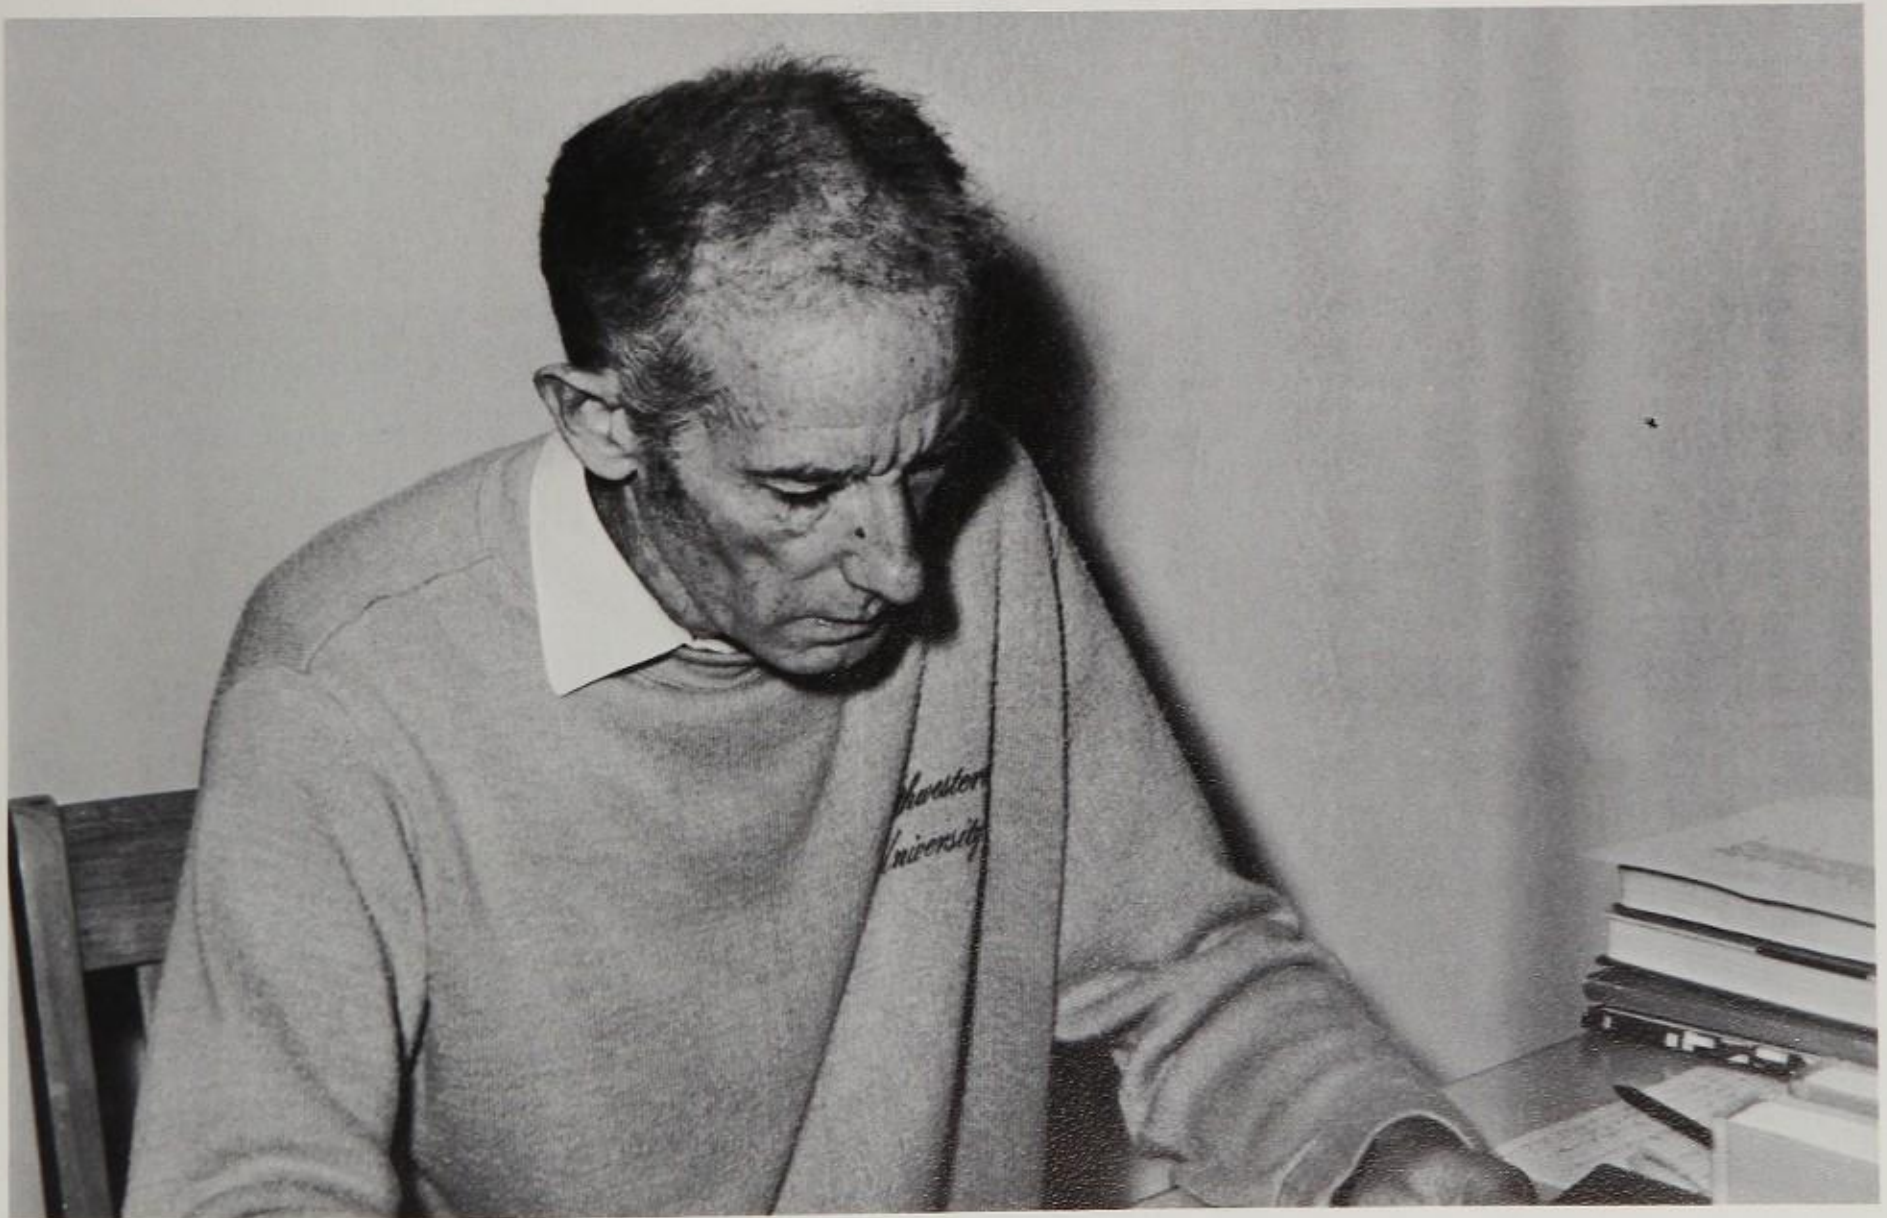

Emphasizing class participation and unity was Special Education teacher Miss Jovanda Hollis at NW laughed while she read an amusing story.

Woodshop, Typing I, II were offered as electives for Special-Ed students

Special Education students must fulfill all requirements for graduation by taking American History, Government and Economics. These students are able to work at their own levels in the subjects in which they are taking. Special Education classes are at all of the Richards buildings and can receive counseling whenever they wish to talk something over. The Northeast building has Miss Joanne Georgulis, and Miss Christine Johnson, Northwest has Chuck Deusing, Joyonda Hollis and Carolyn Schwarz and at Campus II there was Mr. Robert Newton teaching these students. Rooms were set aside for the Special Education students use at each building.

Richards Campus teacher Mr. Newton checked attendance cards for absentees before starting classes he conducted in Special Education.

Looking on proudly and leading the 1972 Senior graduates down the aisle were Junior class Marshalls Annette Halberg and Wayne Baker.

Reflective speeches made by Duider and Kubillus; Lausch presented flag

With an organ playing in background, a procession of 827 seniors graduated from H.L. Richards. They were led along by the Junior Marshalls, Annette Halberg and Wayne Baker; Reflective speeches were made by the valedictorian, Sue Duider and salutatorian, Karen Kubillus. The ceremony began with the National Anthem and the Pledge of Allegiance led by Robin Gutzwiller. Later on, the American Flag was presented to Sergio Araya, a foreign exchange student from Costa Rica, by Jim Lausch, the senior class president. The rose as class flower; symbolizes peace, love and unity. June 9, 1972 was the end of the high school days for senior students.

With Superintendent Lowell M. Johnson in the background, Mr. Frank D. Hiter, Board Member gave out diplomas to the graduating class of 1972.

Making their way down the crowded bleachers at the Senior graduation rehearsals were graduates Becky Breckinridge, Joe Benson and Pat Beyer.

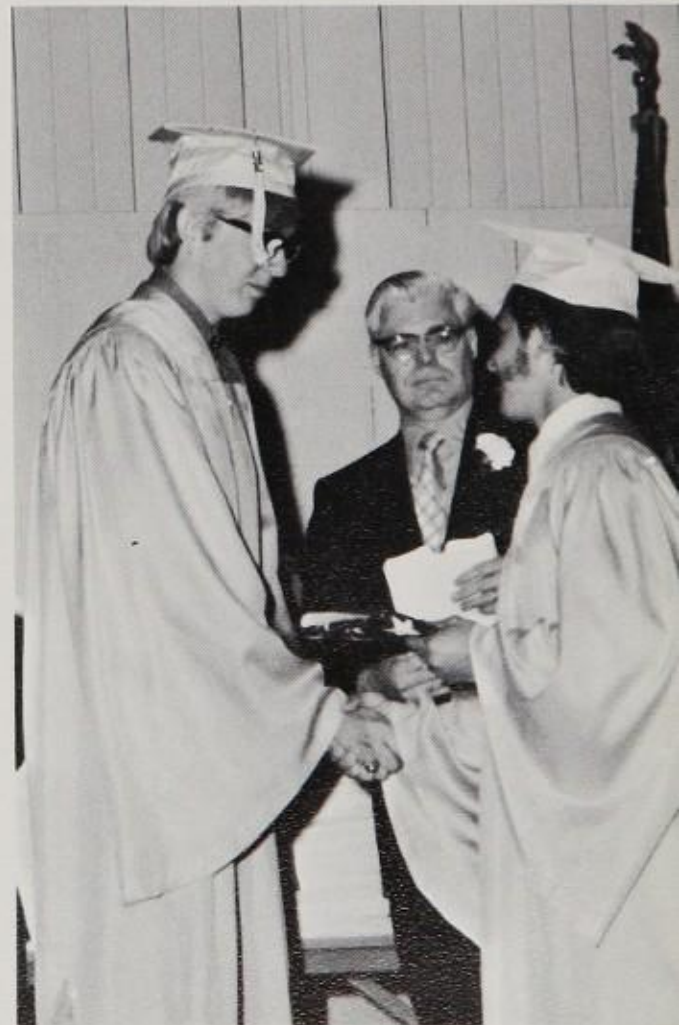

Not yet knowing what life would hold in store for him, Karl Cira seemed to smile happily because of the prospect of graduation and the future.

Surrounded by enthusiastic Seniors who assembled for the graduation rehearsals the day before was Senior sponsor, Miss Alva Samaniotto.

Before the graduation ceremonies began, sincere wishes and congratulations were given by Mr. Heider to both Sergio Araya and Jim Lausch.

The school year was what we made it and we have strived to bring it all together. Though there were disappointments, such as not getting all the classes we wanted, being separated from friends made in previous years, or not being able to participate in certain sports or activities, the experience was an important one in coping with difficulties ahead in life. In spite of the problems, by this second year of split shifts we have learned to accept them and even come to realize some advantages. The struggle to bring together the many divisions of our school has made us...DIVIDED BUT ONE.

The Golden Year would not be in existence without the help and talents of many. Thanks goes to Mr. Donner Kepler, representative for Pischel Publishing Co., for his patience and sincere concern; Wallinger/Root Studios for their fine work in photography. The many Patrons who helped finance our book. Ball State University Journalism Workshop, where our book's life first began to take shape. Special Thanks to Colonel Charles E. Savage, for his help with our theme and the much knowledge we obtained through him. And a Very Special Thanks to Ms. Wanda Wagner for her great supervision which made our yearbook possible.

Quiet halls became the rule rather than the exception during the break after school ended and before summer school began. All students looking back, looking ahead, united by memories of Harold L. Richards High School's Golden Year.

Dear Albie,
I know I'll never forget you because of how much you've helped me.

Love
for ever
